SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

DISTRIBUTION OF UP TO 12,187,723 SHARES OF COMMON STOCK OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC. TO STOCKHOLDERS OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMPANY

This Information Statement/Prospectus is being furnished by U.S. Office Products Company ("U.S. Office Products") in connection with the distribution to its stockholders of the stock of School Specialty, Inc. ("School Specialty"). School Specialty is a Delaware corporation formed by U.S. Office Products that will own substantially all the assets of, and will be responsible for substantially all the liabilities associated with, U.S. Office Products' Educational Supplies and Products Division. Pursuant to this distribution (the "School Specialty Distribution"), all of the issued and outstanding shares of the common stock, $.001 par value per share, of School Specialty (the "School Specialty Common Stock") will be distributed to holders of record as of 5:00 p.m. EDT on June 9, 1998 (the "Record Date") of the common stock, par value $.001 per share, of U.S. Office Products ("U.S. Office Products Common Stock"). Each such holder will receive one share of School Specialty Common Stock for every nine shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock held on the Record Date (the "Distribution Ratio"). Fractional shares will be aggregated into whole shares of School Specialty Common Stock and sold on the open market by the Distribution Agent (as defined herein). The proceeds of such sales will be distributed to holders who otherwise would be entitled to receive fractional shares. See "The School Specialty Distribution--General."

Holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock will not be required to pay any consideration for the shares of School Specialty Common Stock they receive in the Distribution. There is no current public trading market for School Specialty Common Stock. The shares of School Specialty Common Stock have been approved for inclusion, subject to notice of issuance, on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "SCHS".

The School Specialty Distribution is an element of a comprehensive restructuring plan adopted by the Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products, including modifications made since first adopting this plan (as so modified, the "Strategic Restructuring Plan"). The principal elements of the Strategic Restructuring Plan are (1) a self-tender offer by U.S. Office Products (the "Tender Offer") to purchase 37,037,037 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (including shares that may be issued on exercise of vested and unvested options for U.S. Office Products Common Stock) at $27.00 per share (or, in the case of stock options, at $27.00 minus the exercise price of the options) and the incurrence of debt to pay a portion of the purchase price in the Tender Offer; (2) after acceptance of shares in the Tender Offer, the pro rata distribution to U.S. Office Products' stockholders of shares of four companies that will conduct U.S. Office Products' current print management, technology solutions, educational supplies and corporate travel services businesses (the "Distributions"); and (3) the sale to an affiliate ("CD&R") of an investment fund managed by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. ("CD&R, Inc.") of equity interests in U.S. Office Products (the "Equity Investment") following acceptance of shares in the Tender Offer and the Record Date for the Distributions.

All holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock, including the executive officers and directors of the Company, had the right to participate in the Tender Offer. All of the executive officers and directors who held shares (or options to purchase shares) of U.S. Office Products Common Stock, except for Donald Ray Pate, Jr., tendered shares and options in the Tender Offer. See "Management of School Specialty."

IN REVIEWING THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, STOCKHOLDERS SHOULD CAREFULLY CONSIDER THE MATTERS DESCRIBED UNDER THE HEADING "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 12.

THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS CONTAINS FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS ABOUT BUSINESS STRATEGIES, MARKET POTENTIAL, FUTURE FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE, AND OTHER MATTERS. IN ADDITION, WHEN USED IN THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT/ PROSPECTUS, THE WORDS "INTENDS TO," "BELIEVES," "ANTICIPATES," "EXPECTS" AND SIMILAR EXPRESSIONS ARE INTENDED TO IDENTIFY FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS. SUCH STATEMENTS INVOLVE MANY RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES THAT COULD CAUSE ACTUAL RESULTS TO DIFFER MATERIALLY FROM SUCH STATEMENTS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, THOSE RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES DESCRIBED UNDER THE HEADING "RISK FACTORS" BEGINNING ON PAGE 12.

Following the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty will be subject to the informational requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and, in accordance therewith, will file reports, proxy statements and other information with the SEC that will be available for inspection and copying at the SEC's public reference facilities referred to above. Copies of such material can be obtained by mail at prescribed rates by writing to the Public Reference Branch of the SEC at the address referred to above.

Additional information regarding the Strategic Restructuring Plan and School Specialty may be found in reports, proxy statements and other information filed by U.S. Office Products with the SEC, including U.S. Office Products Tender Offer Statement on Schedule 13E-4 filed on May 4, 1998 and U.S. Office Products Proxy Statement filed on April 30, 1998.

School Specialty intends to furnish to its stockholders annual reports containing audited consolidated financial statements examined by its independent public accountants and quarterly reports containing unaudited consolidated financial statements for each of the first three quarters of each fiscal year.

Questions concerning the School Specialty Distribution should be directed to Mark D. Director, Executive Vice-President--Administration, General Counsel and Secretary of U.S. Office Products, or Donald H. Platt, Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of U.S. Office Products, at 1025 Thomas Jefferson Street, N.W., Suite 600 East, Washington, D.C. 20007, telephone (202) 339-6700. After the School Specialty Distribution, holders of School Specialty

Common Stock having inquiries related to their investment in School Specialty should contact Daniel P. Spalding, Chief Executive Officer, at 1000 North Bluemound Drive, P.O. Box 1579, Appleton, Wisconsin 54914, telephone (920) 734-2756.

NO PERSON IS AUTHORIZED TO GIVE ANY INFORMATION OR TO MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OTHER THAN THOSE CONTAINED IN THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS, AND, IF GIVEN OR MADE, SUCH INFORMATION OR REPRESENTATIONS MUST NOT BE RELIED UPON AS HAVING BEEN AUTHORIZED.

Until July 4, 1998, the expiration of the twenty-fifth calendar day following the School Specialty Distribution, all dealers effecting transactions in registered securities, whether or not participating in this distribution, may be required to deliver an Information Statement/Prospectus.

UNLESS THE CONTEXT INDICATES OTHERWISE, THE INFORMATION HEREIN DOES NOT REFLECT THE PUBLIC OFFERING OF SHARES OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY COMMON STOCK (INCLUDING EXERCISE OF THE UNDERWRITERS' OVER-ALLOTMENT OPTION IN FULL) BY SCHOOL SPECIALTY (THE "OFFERING"). WHERE THE CONTEXT REQUIRES AND UNLESS THE CONTEXT INDICATES OTHERWISE, THE INFORMATION HEREIN HAS BEEN ADJUSTED FOR THE DISTRIBUTION RATIO. UNLESS THE CONTEXT REQUIRES OTHERWISE, REFERENCES TO (I) U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS AND THE COMPANY (OR SCHOOL SPECIALTY) SHALL INCLUDE THEIR RESPECTIVE SUBSIDIARIES, AND (II) THE COMPANY (OR SCHOOL SPECIALTY) PRIOR TO THE DISTRIBUTION DATE SHALL REFER TO THE EDUCATIONAL SUPPLIES AND PRODUCTS DIVISION OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS.

THE COMPANY

School Specialty, Inc. (the "Company" or "School Specialty") believes that it is the largest U.S. distributor focusing on non-textbook educational supplies and furniture for grades pre-kindergarten through 12 ("pre-K-12"). The Company provides a comprehensive offering of high quality educational supplies and furniture to school districts, school administrators and teachers through the broad distribution of its catalogs. School Specialty distributes general school supplies, including classroom and art supplies, instruction materials, furniture and equipment. The Company also distributes supplies and furniture for certain educational disciplines, including early childhood education under the Childcraft name, art supplies under the Sax Arts & Crafts name and library-related products under the Gresswell name. In order to broaden its geographic presence and product offering, the Company has acquired 15 companies since May 1996. For the twelve months ended January 24, 1998, the Company's revenues aggregated $279.6 million and operating income aggregated $19.7 million, which represented compound annual increases of 32% and 62%, respectively, over revenues and operating income for the year ended December 31, 1994. For the twelve months ended January 24, 1998, the Company's pro forma revenues (giving effect to all acquisitions made since the beginning of such period) aggregated $377.2 million and pro forma operating income aggregated $23.7 million, which represented compound annual increases of 45% and 71%, respectively, over revenues and operating income for the year ended December 31, 1994.

With over 32,000 stock keeping units ("SKUs"), School Specialty offers customers one source for virtually all of their non-textbook school supply and furniture needs. School Specialty markets its products through an innovative two-pronged approach, targeting both administrators and teachers to cover the full spectrum of decision makers. The Company's "top down" approach, utilizing its 290 sales representatives and its School Specialty general supply and furniture catalog (the "School Specialty Catalog"), focuses on procurement officials at the state, regional and local levels, while its "bottom up" approach focuses on curriculum specialists and teachers. Sales to curriculum specialists and over 2.1 million teachers are made primarily through the 6.3 million general supply catalogs of The Re-Print Corp. ("Re-Print") and specialty catalogs that are mailed each year.

The Company believes that annual sales of non-textbook educational supplies and equipment to the school supply market aggregate approximately $6.1 billion, with over $3.6 billion sold to institutions and $2.5 billion sold to consumers. The Company also believes that there are over 3,400 distributors of school supplies, the majority of which are family- or employee-owned companies with revenues under $20 million that operate in a single region. The Company believes the demand for timely order fulfillment at competitive prices, combined with the need to invest in automated inventory and electronic ordering systems, is accelerating the trend toward consolidation in the industry. School Specialty also believes that it is well positioned to capitalize on this consolidation as the largest distributor in its industry with annual revenues which it believes exceed those of its next two largest competitors combined. Although the Company is the largest distributor in the industry, its share of the $6.1 billion school supply market is less than 6%, giving the Company substantial growth opportunities.

The volume of school supplies is directly influenced by the size of the student population. Kindergarten through 12th grade ("K-12") student enrollment reached an all-time peak in 1996 with 51.5 million students and the U.S. Department of Education projects that student enrollment will continue to grow to 54.3 million by the year 2006. As a result of these trends, the U.S. Department of Education projects that expenditures in public elementary and secondary schools will continue to rise through the year 2007. These rising expenditures include a projected increase in total per pupil spending in current dollars from $5,961 per pupil in 1997 to $7,179 by the year 2001. The Company believes that as the largest U.S. distributor of non-textbook educational supplies it will be a major beneficiary of this growth in expenditures.

KEY STRENGTHS

School Specialty attributes its strong competitive position to the following key strengths:

LEADING MARKET POSITION. The Company has developed its leading market position over its 38 year history by emphasizing high quality products, superior order fulfillment, exceptional customer service and brand name recognition. The Company believes its annual revenues exceed those of its next two largest competitors combined and that its large size and brand recognition have resulted in significant buying power, economies of scale and customer loyalty.

BROAD PRODUCT LINE. School Specialty's strategy is to provide a full range of high quality products to meet the complete supply needs of pre-K-12 schools and as a result currently offers over 32,000 SKUs ranging from classroom supplies to playground equipment. School Specialty offers customers one source for virtually all of their school supply needs.

INNOVATIVE TWO-PRONGED DISTRIBUTION. The Company targets administrative decision makers with a "top down" approach through its 290 person sales force and School Specialty Catalog, and teachers and curriculum specialists with a "bottom up" approach primarily through the 6.3 million Re-Print general supply, and specialty catalogs mailed each year.

ABILITY TO INTEGRATE ACQUISITIONS. School Specialty has successfully completed the acquisition of 20 companies since 1991, 15 of which have been acquired since May 1996. The Company believes that it can generate significant economies of scale and rapidly improve the margins of acquired entities, as well as increase sales, by channeling acquired entities products through its broad distribution network. See "Business--Company Strengths".

USE OF TECHNOLOGY. The Company believes that through the utilization of technology in areas such as (i) purchasing and inventory management, (ii) customer order fulfillment, and (iii) database management, School Specialty is able to turn inventory more quickly than competitors, offer customers more convenient and cost effective product ordering methods and conduct more precisely targeted sales and marketing campaigns.

EXPERIENCED MANAGEMENT. School Specialty's management team provides depth and continuity of experience. Management's interests are aligned with those of its stockholders as management's incentive-based compensation is tied to School Specialty's operating profitability.

GROWTH STRATEGY

School Specialty's objective is to further enhance its position as the leading distributor of non-textbook educational supplies through the continued implementation of the following strategies:

PURSUE ACQUISITIONS AGGRESSIVELY. The Company believes that there are extensive acquisition opportunities among the over 3,400 school distributors in the U.S. The Company intends to pursue two types of acquisitions: (i) general school supply and furniture companies in geographic markets in which the Company has a limited presence, and (ii) specialty companies focusing on disciplines such as physical education, science, technology and music.

IMPROVE PROFITABILITY. School Specialty improved its operating margin from 3.7% in 1994 to 6.3% for the twelve months ended January 24, 1998. School Specialty believes that there are substantial opportunities to further improve margins by (i) increasing the efficiency of recent acquisitions, (ii) expanding purchasing power and (iii) improving warehousing and distribution.

PENETRATE NEW MARKETS AND EXPAND CUSTOMER BASE IN EXISTING MARKETS. School Specialty believes that it can increase revenues by adding sales representatives in geographic markets in which the Company does not have a significant presence. In addition, the Company believes that it can further increase revenues by cross merchandising its specialty product lines to its general supplies customers.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

On March 20, 1998, the Company acquired the catalog business of Education Access, a catalog reseller of technology solutions for the K-12 education market. This new product line will offer curriculum software, productivity software, peripherals, networking products and other related products through catalogs mailed twice a year.

BACKGROUND OF THE SCHOOL SPECIALTY DISTRIBUTION

THE DISTRIBUTION..... Shares of common stock, par value $.001 per share, of School Specialty (the "Company Common Stock" or the "School Specialty Common Stock") are being distributed to the stockholders of record of U.S. Office Products (the "School Specialty Distribution" or the "Distribution") as of 5:00 p.m. E.D.T. on June 9, 1998 (the "Record Date"). The School Specialty Distribution is part of a comprehensive restructuring plan adopted by the U.S. Office Products' Board of Directors on January 12, 1998. The principal elements of the plan (including modifications the Board of Directors has made since first adopting this plan, as so modified, the "Strategic Restructuring Plan") are:

- Pursuant to a self-tender offer, U.S. Office Products is purchasing 37,037,037 shares of its common stock $.001 par value ("U.S. Office Products Common Stock") including shares that may be issued on exercise of vested and unvested options for U.S. Office Products Common Stock at $27.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, at $27.00 minus the exercise price of the options) (the "Tender Offer").
- After acceptance of the shares in the Tender Offer, U.S. Office Products is distributing to U.S. Office Products' stockholders the shares of four separate companies: Aztec Technology Partners, Inc., Workflow Management, Inc., School Specialty, and Navigant International, Inc. (collectively the "Spin-Off Companies"). The distributions of the shares of the Spin-Off Companies are referred to in this Information Statement/Prospectus as the "Distributions." The Spin-Off Companies hold U.S. Office Products' current technology solutions, print management, educational supplies, and corporate travel services businesses, respectively.

- Following the Record Date, an affiliate ("CD&R") of an investment fund managed by Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc., ("CD&R, Inc.") a private investment firm, is acquiring for $270.0 million, approximately 36,368,426 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock representing 24.9% of the outstanding equity of U.S. Office Products (after giving effect to the Tender Offer and issuance of shares to CD&R) and warrants to purchase additional U.S. Office Products Common Stock (the "Equity Investment"). CD&R will not acquire any interests in the Spin-Off Companies.

U.S. Office Products will retain its North American Office Products Group (which includes the office supply, office furniture, and office coffee and beverage services businesses), Mail Boxes, Etc., its New Zealand and Australia operations, and its 49% interest in Dudley Stationery Limited (a U.K. contract stationer).

In conjunction with the Strategic Restructuring Plan, U.S. Office Products is undertaking or plans to undertake the following transactions (the "Financing Transactions"):

- Pursuant to a tender offer, U.S. Office Products is purchasing $222.2 million principal amount of its 5 1/2% convertible subordinated notes due 2003 (the "2003 Notes") for a purchase price of 94.5% of the principal amount and accrued interest of such notes (the "2003 Note Tender").
- Pursuant to an exchange offer, U.S. Office Products has exchanged approximately $131.0 million principal amount of its 5 1/2% convertible subordinated notes due 2001 (the "2001 Notes") for 8,100,741 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (the "2001 Note Offer") at an exchange rate of 61.483 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock per $1,000 principal amount of 2001 Notes, which effectively reduced the conversion price on the 2001 Notes from $19.00 to $16.17 while the 2001 Note Offer was open.
- U.S. Office Products is entering into a new $1.225 billion senior credit facility pursuant to an agreement dated the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus.
- U.S. Office Products has entered into an agreement to issue and sell $400.0 million in 9 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes in a private placement.

REASONS FOR THE DISTRIBUTIONS.....

The Distributions are intended to separate the Spin-Off Companies from U.S. Office Products' other businesses so that each can:

- adopt strategies and pursue objectives that are appropriate to its respective industry, geographic territories and stage of growth;
- pursue an independent acquisition program that allows for a more focused use of resources and, where stock is used as consideration, provide stock of a public company that is in the same industry as the businesses being acquired;
- be recognized by the financial community as a distinct business that can be evaluated more readily and compared more easily to industry peers; and

- implement more focused incentive compensation packages that respond to specific industry and market conditions and enhance employee retention objectives.

The Distributions are also integral to the objectives of the Equity Investment, which is conditioned on completion of all of the Distributions. See "The School Specialty Distribution-- Reasons for the Distributions."

SHARES TO BE DISTRIBUTED..... Approximately 12,187,723 shares of School Specialty Common Stock are being distributed to stockholders of U.S. Office Products in the School Specialty Distribution.

DISTRIBUTION RATIO..... Each U.S. Office Products stockholder will receive one share of School Specialty Common Stock for every nine shares of U.S. Office Products common stock held on the Record Date.

FRACTIONAL SHARE INTERESTS..... Fractional share interests will be aggregated and sold by the Distribution Agent and the cash proceeds will be distributed to those U.S. Office Products stockholders entitled to a fractional interest. See "The School Specialty Distribution--General."

RECORD DATE..... 5:00 p.m. E.D.T. on June 9, 1998.

DISTRIBUTION DATE..... The effective time of the Distributions is expected to be 11:59 p.m. E.D.T. on June 9, 1998 (the "Distribution Date").

MAILING DATE..... Certificates representing shares of School Specialty Common Stock are expected to be mailed to U.S. Office Products stockholders on or about June 12, 1998 (the "Mailing Date").

DISTRIBUTION AGENT..... American Stock Transfer & Trust Company

TAX CONSEQUENCES..... Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion stating that, subject to the matters discussed therein, for U.S. federal income tax purposes the receipt of School Specialty Common Stock by U.S. Office Products stockholders will be tax-free to U.S. Office Products and the U.S. Office Products stockholders (except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares). See "The School Specialty Distribution--U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the School Specialty Distribution."

THE SPIN-OFFS FROM U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS..... School Specialty, U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies are entering into an agreement (the "Distribution Agreement") in connection with the Distribution pursuant to which, among other things, (i) equity interests in the domestic U.S. Office Products subsidiaries that engage in the business of the distribution of school supplies are being transferred to School Specialty, (ii) liabilities are being allocated among School Specialty, U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies and (iii) School Specialty, U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies will indemnify one another for liabilities allocated to them under the Distribution Agreement and a share of certain other liabilities.

School Specialty, U.S. Office Products and the Other Spin-Off Companies are entering into an agreement (the "Tax Allocation Agreement") (i) allocating to each Spin-Off Company responsibility for its share of U.S. Office Products' consolidated tax liability for the years that it was included in U.S. Office Products' consolidated federal income tax returns, (ii) sharing certain state, local and foreign taxes, and (iii) providing for (a)

they are assessed against U.S. Office Products as a result of the Distribution and (b) joint and several indemnification by School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies for such taxes resulting from certain acts taken by School Specialty or any of the other Spin-Off Companies. The liability to U.S. Office Products for taxes resulting from such acts is being allocated among the Spin-Off Companies pursuant to a separate agreement (the "Tax Indemnification Agreement"). As a consequence, School Specialty will be primarily liable for taxes resulting from acts taken by School Specialty and liable (subject to indemnification by the other Spin-Off Companies) for any taxes resulting from acts taken by the other Spin-Off Companies.

SUMMARY RISK FACTORS

In reviewing this Information Statement/Prospectus, stockholders should carefully consider the matters described under the heading "Risk Factors" beginning on page 12, including, among others, (i) the potential volatility of the trading price and risk associated with the absence of a prior trading market for shares of School Specialty Common Stock, (ii) dependence upon acquisitions for further growth, (iii) limitations on the use of School Specialty Common Stock in acquisitions, (iv) risks related to integration of acquisitions and acquisition financing, (v) risks associated with seasonal influences related to largest school supply orders occurring in the May to October period, (vi) risks related to management of School Supply's rapid growth, (vii) the risks inherent in the school supplies distribution business, (viii) conflicts of interest resulting from the fact that (a) the Distribution Agreement is not the result of arms-length negotiation and (b) the fact that stock options are being issued to certain officers and directors of the Spin-Off Companies in connection with the Distributions, and (ix) the tax consequences of the School Specialty Distribution.

- (1) The historical financial information of the businesses that were acquired in business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method (the "Pooled Companies") have been combined on a historical cost basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") to present this financial data as if the Pooled Companies had always been members of the same operating group. The financial information of the businesses acquired in the business combinations accounted for under the purchase method is included from the dates of their respective acquisitions.
  - (2) The pro forma financial data give effect to the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and the purchase acquisitions completed by the Company since May 1, 1996 as if all such transactions had occurred on May 1, 1996. The pro forma statement of income data are not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have been achieved had these events actually then occurred and should not be construed as representative of future operating results.
  - (3) The results for the historical and pro forma 12 months ended January 24, 1998 have been calculated based upon the historical and pro forma results for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 less the historical and pro forma results for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 plus the historical and pro forma results for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 respectively.
  - (4) Results for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and the 12 months ended January 24, 1998 (historical and pro forma) include a benefit from income taxes of $2.4 million primarily arising from the reversal of a $5.3 million valuation allowance in the quarter ended April 26, 1997. The valuation allowance had been established in fiscal 1995 to offset the tax benefit from net operating loss carryforwards included in the Company's deferred tax assets, because at the time it was not likely that such tax benefit would be realized. The valuation allowance was reversed subsequent to the Company's being acquired by U.S. Office Products, because it was deemed "more likely than not", based on improved results, that such tax benefit would be realized.
  - (5) For calculation of the pro forma weighted average shares outstanding for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 and January 25, 1997, see Note 2(k) of Notes to Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements included herein. The pro forma weighted average shares outstanding (basic and diluted), as further adjusted to give effect to the sales of shares to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate, and in the Offering, would have been 14.6 million shares for all periods for which pro forma data are given, and the pro forma net income per share, as so adjusted further and to give effect to the use of proceeds from such sales to reduce debt, would have been:

	FISCAL YEAR ENDED APRIL 26, 1997	NINE MONTHS ENDED

(6) The pro forma balance sheet data give effect to (i) the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products, (ii) the purchase acquisition of Education Access, the only acquisition completed by the Company subsequent to January 24, 1998, and (iii) the Distribution as if such transactions had occurred on January 24, 1998. The pro forma balance sheet data are not necessarily indicative of the financial position that would have been achieved had these events actually then occurred and should not be construed as representative of future financial position.

RISK FACTORS

THE FOLLOWING FACTORS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED IN ADDITION TO OTHER INFORMATION INCLUDED IN THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS.

POTENTIAL VOLATILITY OF STOCK PRICE; RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH SHARES ELIGIBLE FOR IMMEDIATE SALE

As a result of the School Specialty Distribution, stockholders of U.S. Office Products are acquiring 12,187,723 shares of School Specialty Common Stock that will be freely tradeable without restrictions or further registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), except that any shares held by "affiliates" of School Specialty within the meaning of the Securities Act will be subject to the resale limitations of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act ("Rule 144"). Because the School Specialty Distribution is being made to existing shareholders of U.S. Office Products, who have not made an affirmative decision to invest in School Specialty Common Stock, there can be no assurance that some or all of these shareholders will not sell the shares of School Specialty Common Stock into the market shortly after the School Specialty Distribution. In addition, U.S. Office Products is included in certain broad-based indices tracked by a number of investment companies and other institutional investors, and such investors can be expected to sell the shares of School Specialty Common Stock they receive in the School Specialty Distribution shortly thereafter.

In addition, upon completion of the Offering and the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty will have outstanding (i) 2,125,000 shares of School Specialty Common Stock expected to be issued in the Offering and (ii) 250,000 shares of School Specialty Common Stock issued to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate. Following the Offering and the School Specialty Distribution, in view of the large number of shares freely-tradeable and available for immediate sale, the market for School Specialty's Common Stock could be highly volatile and could adversely affect the trading price of School Specialty Common Stock. See "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements". Certain officers and directors of School Specialty who together will hold an aggregate of 266,374 shares of School Specialty Common Stock have agreed not to sell or otherwise dispose of any School Specialty Common Stock after the Distribution without the prior written consent of the Underwriters for a period of 180 days from the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus (the "Lock-Up Agreements"). The Company intends to register the shares of School Specialty Common Stock reserved for issuance pursuant to its stock option plan as soon as practicable after the closing of the Offering.

POTENTIAL LIABILITY FOR TAXES RELATED TO THE DISTRIBUTIONS

In connection with the Distributions, U.S. Office Products is entering into a tax allocation agreement with School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies (the "Tax Allocation Agreement") which provides that the Spin-Off Companies will jointly and severally indemnify U.S. Office Products for any losses associated with taxes related to the Distributions ("Distribution Taxes") if an action or omission (an "Adverse Tax Act") of any of the Spin-Off Companies materially contributes to a final determination that any or all of the Distributions are taxable. School Specialty is also entering into a tax indemnification agreement with the other Spin-Off Companies (the "Tax Indemnification Agreement") under which the Spin-Off Company that is responsible for the Adverse Tax Act will indemnify the other Spin-Off Companies for any liability to indemnify U.S. Office Products under the Tax Allocation Agreement. As a consequence, School Specialty will be liable for any Distribution Taxes resulting from any Adverse Tax Act by School Specialty and liable (subject to indemnification by the other Spin-Off Companies) for any Distribution Taxes resulting from an Adverse Tax Act by the other Spin-Off Companies. If there is a final determination that any or all of the Distributions are taxable and it is determined that there has not been an Adverse Tax Act by either U.S. Office Products or any of the Spin-Off Companies, U.S. Office Products and each of the Spin-Off Companies will be liable for its pro rata portion of the Distribution Taxes based on the value of each company's common stock after the Distributions. As a result, School Specialty could become liable for a pro rata portion of Distribution Taxes with respect not only to the School Specialty

Distribution, but also any of the other Distributions. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Tax Allocation Agreement and Tax Indemnification Agreement" for a detailed discussion of the Tax Allocation Agreement and the Tax Indemnification Agreement.

RISKS RELATED TO ALLOCATION OF CERTAIN LIABILITIES

Under the Distribution Agreement, School Specialty will be liable for (i) any liabilities arising out of or in connection with the business conducted by it or its subsidiaries, (ii) its liabilities under the Employee Benefits Agreement, Tax Allocation Agreement and related agreements described under "The Spin-Offs From U.S. Office Products", (iii) the U.S. Office Products debt that has been allocated to the Company (see "The Spin-Offs From U.S. Office Products--Distribution Agreement--Debt"), (iv) liabilities under the securities laws relating to the Prospectus in respect of the Offering and portions of this Information Statement/Prospectus distributed to stockholders of U.S. Office

Products in connection with the School Specialty Distribution, as well as other securities law liabilities related to the School Specialty business that arise from information supplied to U.S. Office Products (or that should have been supplied, but was not) by School Specialty, (v) U.S. Office Products' liabilities for earn-outs from acquisitions in respect of School Specialty and its subsidiaries, (vi) School Specialty's costs and expenses related to the Offering and its bank financing, and (vii) $1.0 million of the transaction costs (including legal, accounting, investment banking and financial advisory) and other fees incurred by U.S. Office Products in connection with its Strategic Restructuring Plan. Each of the other Spin-Off Companies will be similarly obligated to U.S. Office Products. School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies have also agreed to bear a pro rata portion of U.S. Office Products' liabilities under the securities laws (other than claims relating solely to a specific Spin-Off Company or relating specifically to the continuing businesses of U.S. Office Products) and U.S. Office Products' general corporate liabilities (other than debt, except for that specifically allocated to the Spin-Off Companies) incurred prior to the Distributions (i.e., liabilities not related to the conduct of a particular distributed or retained subsidiary's business) (the "Shared Liabilities"). If one of the Spin-Off Companies defaults on an obligation owed to U.S. Office Products, the non-defaulting Spin-Off Companies will be obligated on a pro rata basis to pay such obligation ("Default Liability"). As a result of the Shared Liabilities and Default Liability, School Specialty could be obligated to U.S. Office Products in respect of obligations and liabilities not related to its business or operations and over which neither it nor its management has or has had any control or responsibility. The aggregate of the Shared Liabilities and Default Liability for which any Spin-Off Company may be liable is, however, limited to $1.75 million. The Company's pro rata share of Shared Liabilities and Default Liability is described below under "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--The Distribution Agreement--Liabilities." Also see "--Potential Liability for Taxes Related to the Distributions."

RISKS RELATED TO INTEGRATION OF OPERATIONS AND ACQUISITIONS

An important element of School Specialty's business strategy for its distribution divisions is to integrate its acquisitions into its existing operations. There can be no assurance that School Specialty will be able to integrate future acquisitions in a timely manner without substantial costs, delays, or other problems. Once integrated, acquisitions may not achieve sales, profitability, and asset productivity commensurate with School Specialty's existing divisions. In addition to integration risks for distribution divisions, acquisitions of both distribution divisions and specialty brand companies involve a number of special risks, including adverse short-term effects on School Specialty's reported operating results (including those adverse short-term effects caused by severance payments to employees of acquired companies, restructuring charges associated with the acquisitions and other expenses associated with a change of control, as well as non-recurring acquisition costs including accounting and legal fees, investment banking fees, recognition of transaction-related obligations, and various other acquisition-related costs), the diversion of management's time and attention, the dependence on retaining, hiring, and training key personnel, the amortization of acquired intangible assets, and risks associated with unanticipated problems or liabilities, some or all of which could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's operations and financial condition. Furthermore, although School Specialty conducts due diligence and generally requires representations, warranties, and indemnifications from the former owners of acquired companies, there can be no assurance that such owners will have accurately represented the financial and operating conditions of their companies. If an acquired company's financial or operating results were misrepresented, the acquisition could have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial condition of School Specialty. See "Business--Company Growth Strategy--Pursue Acquisitions Aggressively Strategy".

DEPENDENCE UPON ACQUISITIONS FOR FUTURE GROWTH

One of School Specialty's strategies is to increase its revenues and the markets it serves through the acquisition of additional school supply distribution businesses. There can be no assurance that suitable candidates for acquisitions can be identified or, if suitable candidates are identified, that acquisitions can be completed on acceptable terms, if at all. There can be no assurance that future acquisitions will prove profitable at the time of their acquisition or will achieve sales and profitability that justify the investment therein. The failure to complete acquisitions and continue its expansion could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's financial condition. In addition, prior to the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty's acquisitions were completed with substantial business, legal, and accounting assistance from U.S. Office Products, and some of the acquisitions were paid for with U.S. Office Products Common Stock. The pace of School Specialty's acquisition program may be adversely affected by the absence of U.S. Office Products' support for the acquisitions. Also, School Specialty intends to use School Specialty Common Stock to pay for a portion of the consideration for its acquisitions, and therefore, if the owners of potential acquisition candidates are not willing to receive, or School Specialty is not able to issue, shares of School Specialty Common Stock in exchange for their business, School Specialty's acquisition program could be adversely affected. In addition, School Specialty is subject to limitations on the number of shares it can issue without jeopardizing the tax-free treatment of the School Specialty Distribution. Limitations on School Specialty's ability to issue shares of School Specialty Common Stock could also adversely affect School Specialty's acquisition strategy. See "--Possible Limitations on Issuances of Common Stock," "--Material Amount of Goodwill," and "--Tax Matters" below.

POSSIBLE LIMITATIONS ON ISSUANCES OF COMMON STOCK

Section 355(e) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), which was added in 1997, generally provides that a company that distributes shares of a subsidiary in a spin-off that is otherwise tax-free will incur U.S. federal income tax liability if 50% or more, by vote or value, of the capital stock of either the company making the distribution or the spun-off subsidiary is acquired by one or more persons acting pursuant to a plan or series of related transactions that includes the spin-off. Stock acquired by certain related persons is aggregated in determining whether the 50% test is met. There is a presumption that any acquisition occurring two years before or after the spin-off is pursuant to a plan that includes the spin-off. However, the presumption may be rebutted by establishing that the spin-off and such acquisition are not part of a plan or series of related transactions. As a result of the provisions of Section 355(e), there can be no assurance that issuances of stock by the Company, including issuances in connection with an acquisition of another business by the Company, will not create a tax liability for U.S. Office Products. This limitation could adversely affect the pace of the Company's acquisitions and its ability to issue Company Common Stock for other purposes, including equity offerings.

The Company is entering into a Tax Allocation Agreement and a Tax Indemnification Agreement pursuant to which the Company will be liable to U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies if its actions or omissions materially contribute to a final determination that the School Specialty Distribution is taxable. See "--Potential Liability for Taxes Related to the Distributions" and "The Spin-Offs From U.S. Office Products--Tax Allocation Agreement and Tax Indemnification Agreement."

RISKS RELATED TO INABILITY TO USE POOLING-OF-INTERESTS METHOD TO ACCOUNT FOR FUTURE ACQUISITIONS

Generally accepted accounting principles require that an entity be autonomous for a period of two years before it is eligible to complete business combinations under the pooling-of-interests method. As a result of School Specialty being a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Office Products prior to the Distribution, School Specialty will be unable to satisfy this criterion for a period of two years following the Distribution. Therefore, School Specialty will be precluded from completing business combinations under the pooling-of-interests method for a period of two years and any business combinations completed by School Specialty during such period will be accounted for under the purchase method resulting in the recording of goodwill. See "--Material Amount of Goodwill."

RISKS RELATED TO ACQUISITION FINANCING

School Specialty currently intends to finance some of its future acquisitions by using shares of School Specialty Common Stock, cash, borrowed funds or a combination thereof. If School Specialty Common Stock does not maintain a sufficient market value, the price of School Specialty Common Stock is highly volatile, or potential acquisition candidates are otherwise unwilling to accept School Specialty Common Stock as part of the consideration for the sale of their businesses, School Specialty may be required to use more of its cash resources or more borrowed funds in order to initiate and maintain its acquisition program. Such limitations also may cause School Specialty to rely more heavily on cash or borrowed funds to support its acquisition program. If School Specialty does not have sufficient cash resources, its growth could be limited unless it is able to obtain additional capital through debt or equity offerings. The use of equity offerings in connection with the School Specialty Distribution will also be subject to certain limitations on the number of shares that School Specialty can issue without jeopardizing the tax-free treatment of the School Specialty Distribution. See "--Possible Limitations on Issuances of Common Stock" and "--Tax Matters." Prior to the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty was not responsible for obtaining external sources of funding. The Company has entered into credit facilities with one or more lenders to obtain financing to be used in connection with future acquisitions. There can be no assurance that School Specialty, as a stand-alone company, will be able to obtain such financing if and when it is needed or that any such financing will be available on terms it deems acceptable.

ADDITIONAL DILUTION

School Specialty will have 150 million authorized shares of School Specialty Common Stock, a portion of which could be available (subject to the rules and regulations of federal and state securities laws, limitations under U.S. federal income tax laws and rules, and rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market), to finance acquisitions without obtaining stockholder approval for such issuances. Existing stockholders may suffer dilution if School Specialty uses School Specialty Common Stock as consideration for future acquisitions. Moreover, the issuance of additional shares of School Specialty Common Stock may have a negative impact on earnings per share and may negatively impact the market price of School Specialty Common Stock.

SEASONALITY: FLUCTUATIONS IN QUARTERLY OPERATING RESULTS

School Specialty's business is subject to seasonal influences, with sales and profitability substantially higher from May to October due to increased school orders during these months. As a result of this seasonality, historically, School Specialty has earned more than 100% of its annual net income in the first six months of its fiscal year and has historically operated at a loss in its third fiscal quarter. Also, quarterly results may be materially affected by the timing of acquisitions and the timing and magnitude of acquisition assimilation costs. Therefore, operating results for any quarter are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be achieved for any subsequent fiscal quarter or full fiscal year. Fluctuations caused by variations in quarterly results may adversely affect the market price of the School Specialty Common

RELIANCE ON KEY PERSONNEL

School Specialty's operations depend on the continued efforts of Daniel P. Spalding, its Chief Executive Officer, its other executive officers, and the senior management of certain of its subsidiaries. Furthermore, School Specialty's operations will likely depend on the senior management of certain of the companies that may be acquired in the future. If any of these people become unable to continue in his or her present role, or if School Specialty is unable to attract and retain other skilled employees, its business could be adversely affected. School Specialty does have employment contracts with some Named Officers, as defined herein, but most of the Companies' executive officers and senior management do not have employment contracts with School Specialty. See "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements." School Specialty does not have and does not intend to obtain key man life insurance covering any of its executive officers or other members of senior management of its subsidiaries. In addition, Jonathan J. Ledecy will serve as a director and an employee of School Specialty and is expected to provide services to School Specialty after the School Specialty Distribution pursuant to an agreement entered into between Mr. Ledecy and U.S. Office Products which provides that the Company and the other Spin-Off Companies will succeed to certain rights of, and obligations under, such agreement following the Distribution and an expected employment agreement with School Specialty. See "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements." Mr. Ledecy will also serve as a director of each of the other Spin-Off Companies, and is the director or an officer of other public companies. Mr. Ledecy may be unable to devote substantial time to the activities of School Specialty.

DEPENDENCE ON SYSTEMS

School Specialty believes that one of the competitive advantages of its distribution divisions is its information systems, including its proprietary PC-based customer Order Management System ("OMS"). School Specialty's operations in each of its converted divisions under School Specialty are generally dependent on these systems, which are run on a host system located at School Specialty's headquarters in Appleton, Wisconsin. Each division of School Specialty is linked to School Specialty's host system and disruption or unavailability of these links could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's business and results of operations.

None of School Specialty's subsidiaries has a redundant computer system or a redundant dedicated communication line. School Specialty has taken precautions to protect itself from events that could interrupt its operations. Notwithstanding these precautions, there can be no assurance that a fire, flood, or other natural disaster affecting School Specialty's system or its communication lines would not disable the system or prevent the system from communicating with School Specialty's divisions or the specialty brand subsidiaries. The occurrence of any of these events would have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's operations and financial condition.

School Specialty does not expect that it will incur any material costs and expenses to meet information standards for Year 2000 compliance; however, there is no assurance that School Specialty's customers or vendors meet information standards for Year 2000 compliance, and their failure to meet such standards could adversely affect School Specialty's revenues and product costs.

RISK OF RAPID GROWTH; ABSENCE OF HISTORY AS A STAND-ALONE COMPANY

Since 1991, School Specialty and U.S. Office Products have significantly expanded the scope of School Specialty's operations by acquiring sixteen regional distributors of educational supplies in different regions of the United States and four specialty brand school supply companies. All of School Specialty's specialty brand acquisitions and eleven of its regional distribution acquisitions have occurred since June 1996. There can be no assurance that School Specialty's management and financial controls, personnel, computer systems, and other corporate support systems will be adequate to manage the increased size and scope of School Specialty's operations as a result of School Specialty's recently completed acquisitions.

Prior to the School Specialty Distribution, certain general and administrative functions relating to School Specialty's business (including legal, accounting, purchasing and management information services) were handled by U.S. Office Products. School Specialty's future performance will depend on its ability to function as a stand-alone entity, to finance and manage its expanding operations and to adapt its information systems to changes in its business. As a result, School Specialty's expenses are likely to be higher than when it was a part of U.S. Office Products, and School Specialty may experience disruptions of general and administrative functions that it would not have encountered as a part of U.S. Office Products. Furthermore, the financial information included herein may not necessarily reflect what the results of operations and financial condition would have been had School Specialty been a separate, stand-alone entity during the periods presented or be indicative of future results of operations and financial condition of School Specialty.

DEPENDENCE ON KEY SUPPLIERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS

School Specialty is dependent on (i) a limited number of suppliers for certain of its product lines, particularly its franchise furniture lines and (ii) a limited number of service providers, such as delivery service from United Parcel Service. Any interruption of supply from current vendors or any material increased costs, particularly in the peak season of June through September, could cause significant delays in the shipment of such products and could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's business, financial condition, and results of operations. Increases in freight costs charged to School Specialty or inability to ship products, whether real or perceived, could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty's business, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, as part of its business strategy, School Specialty strives to reduce its number of suppliers and minimize duplicative lines, which may have the effect of increasing its dependence on remaining vendors. The United Parcel Service strike during August 1997 had an adverse effect on School Specialty due to the perceived inability of School Specialty to ship products.

COMPETITION

The market for school supplies is highly competitive and fragmented. School Specialty estimates that over 3,400 companies distribute educational materials to grade pre-K-12 schools as a primary focus of their business. In addition, School Specialty competes with alternate channel distributors such as office product contract stationers and superstores, which may continue to broaden their product lines in school supplies. Some of these competitors have greater financial resources and buying power than School Specialty. School Specialty believes that the educational supplies market will consolidate over the next several years, which may make School Specialty's general and specialty supply businesses more competitive. In addition, there may be increasing competition for acquisition candidates and there can be no assurance that acquisitions will continue to be available to School Specialty on favorable terms, if at all. See "Business-- Competition."

POTENTIAL CONFLICTS OF INTEREST IN THE DISTRIBUTIONS

School Specialty currently operates as a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Office Products. School Specialty, the other Spin-Off Companies and U.S. Office Products are entering into the Distribution Agreement, the Tax Allocation Agreement and the Employee Benefits Agreement, and the Spin-Off Companies are entering into a Tax Indemnification Agreement. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products." These agreements provide, among other things, for U.S. Office Products and School Specialty to indemnify each other from tax and other liabilities relating to their respective businesses prior to and following the School Specialty Distribution.

Certain indemnification obligations of School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies to U.S. Office Products are joint and several. Therefore, if one of the other Spin-Off Companies fails to indemnify U.S. Office Products when such a loss occurs, School Specialty may be required to reimburse U.S. Office Products for all or a portion of the losses that otherwise would have been allocated to such other Spin-Off Company. In addition, the agreements will allocate certain liabilities, including general corporate and securities liabilities of U.S. Office Products not specifically related to the specific businesses to be conducted by the Spin-Off Companies and post-Distribution U.S. Office Products, among U.S. Office Products and each of the Spin-Off Companies. Adverse developments or material disputes with U.S. Office Products following the School Specialty Distribution could have a material adverse effect on School Specialty.

The terms of the agreements that will govern the relationship among School Specialty, U.S. Office Products, and the other Spin-Off Companies were established by U.S. Office Products in consultation with the management of School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies prior to the Distributions and while School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies were wholly-owned subsidiaries of U.S. Office Products. The terms of these agreements, including the allocation of general corporate and securities liabilities among U.S. Office Products, School Specialty, and the other Spin-Off Companies may not be the same as they would be if the agreements were the result of arm's length negotiations. In addition, the agreements must contain certain terms specified in U.S. Office Products' agreement with CD&R relating to the Equity Investment and must otherwise be reasonably acceptable to CD&R. CD&R will not be a stockholder in any of the Spin-Off Companies and its interests may be adverse to those of the Spin-Off Companies. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products." Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the terms and conditions of the agreements are not more or less favorable to School Specialty than those that might have been obtained from unaffiliated third parties.

As of June 10, 1998, Jonathan J. Ledecy, Chairman of the U.S. Office Products Board of Directors, is receiving options for shares of each of the Spin-Off Companies exercisable for up to 7.5% of the common stock of each Spin-Off Company. See "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements". As a result, Mr. Ledecy has interests in the Distributions that differ in certain respects from, and may conflict with, the interests of other stockholders of U.S. Office Products and School Specialty.

TAX MATTERS

Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion (the "Tax Opinion") stating that for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Distributions (including the School Specialty Distribution) will qualify as tax-free spin-offs under Section 355 of the Code and will not be taxable under Section 355(e). The Tax Opinion is based on the accuracy as of the time of the Distributions of factual representations made by U.S. Office Products, the Spin-Off Companies and CD&R, and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials as Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has deemed necessary. See "The School Specialty Distribution--U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the School Specialty Distribution."

The Tax Opinion represents Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering's best judgment of how a court would rule. However, the opinion is not binding upon either the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") or any court. A ruling has not been, and will not be, sought from the IRS with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the School Specialty Distribution. Accordingly, the IRS and/or a court could reach a conclusion that differs from the conclusions in the Tax Opinion.

If the School Specialty Distribution fails to qualify under Section 355 as a tax-free spin-off, each holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock on the Record Date will be treated as having received a taxable corporate distribution in an amount equal to the fair market value (on the Distribution Date) of the Company Common Stock distributed to such holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock including fractional shares. In addition, U.S. Office Products will recognize gain equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Company Common Stock (on the Distribution Date) and U.S. Office Products' adjusted tax basis in the Company Common Stock (on the Distribution Date). If U.S. Office Products were to recognize gain on the School Specialty Distribution, such gain would likely be substantial.

If the School Specialty Distribution is taxable under Section 355(e), but otherwise satisfies the requirements for a tax-free spin-off, U.S. Office Products will recognize gain equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Company Common Stock (on the Distribution Date) and U.S. Office Products' adjusted tax basis in the Company Common Stock (on the Distribution Date). If U.S. Office Products were to recognize gain on the School Specialty Distribution, such gain would likely be substantial. However, no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares).

MATERIAL AMOUNT OF GOODWILL

Approximately $97.5 million, or 47.7%, of School Specialty's pro forma total assets as of January 24, 1998 represents intangible assets, the significant majority of which is goodwill. Goodwill represents the excess of cost over the fair market value of net assets acquired in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method. School Specialty generally amortizes goodwill on a straight line method over a period of 40 years with the amount amortized in a particular period constituting a non-cash expense that reduces School Specialty's net income. Amortization of goodwill resulting from certain past acquisitions, and additional goodwill recorded in certain acquisitions may not be deductible for tax purposes. In addition, School Specialty will be required to periodically evaluate the recoverability of goodwill by reviewing the anticipated undiscounted future cash flows from the operations of the acquired companies and comparing such cash flows to the carrying value of the associated goodwill. If goodwill becomes impaired, School Specialty would be required to write down the carrying value of the goodwill and incur a related charge to its income. A reduction in net income resulting from the amortization or write down of goodwill could have a material and adverse impact upon the market price of School Specialty Common Stock.

ABSENCE OF PUBLIC MARKET

Prior to the School Specialty Distribution and the Offering there has been no public market for the Company Common Stock. The initial public offering price of the Company Common Stock in the Offering is being determined through negotiations among the Company and the underwriters of the Offering and may not be indicative of the market price for the Company Common Stock after the Offering and the School Specialty Distribution. The trading price of the Company Common Stock also could be subject to wide fluctuations in response to variations in the Company's quarterly operating results, changes in earnings estimates by analysts, conditions in the Company's businesses, general market or economic conditions or other factors. In addition, in recent years the stock market has experienced extreme price and volume fluctuations. These fluctuations have had a substantial effect on the market prices for many companies, often unrelated to the operating performance of the specific companies. Such market fluctuations could have a material adverse effect on the market price of the Company Common Stock. See "-- Potential Volatility of Stock Price; Risks Associated With Shares Eligible for Immediate Sale."

NO DIVIDENDS

School Specialty does not expect to pay cash dividends on School Specialty Common Stock in the foreseeable future. In addition, School Specialty's ability to pay dividends may be restricted from time to time by financial covenants in its credit agreements. See "Dividend Policy".

THE SCHOOL SPECIALTY DISTRIBUTION

GENERAL

Each holder of shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock of record as of 5:00 p.m. E.D.T. on June 9, 1998 (the "Record Date"), will receive one share of School Specialty Common Stock for every nine shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock held on the Record Date. School Specialty Common Stock will be distributed on behalf of U.S. Office Products by American Stock Transfer & Trust Company as the Distribution Agent. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of School Specialty Common Stock will be issued. Fractional share interests will be aggregated and sold by the Distribution Agent at such time or times as it shall determine in open market transactions effected through broker-dealers selected by it. The cash proceeds will be distributed to those stockholders entitled to a fractional interest with the distribution of payment for the tendered shares or as soon thereafter as practicable. Certificates representing shares of School Specialty Common Stock are expected to be distributed as soon as practicable after the Distribution Date.

School Specialty is a newly formed subsidiary of U.S. Office Products that holds substantially all of the businesses and assets of, and will be responsible for substantially all of the liabilities associated with, U.S. Office Products Educational Supplies and Products Division. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Distribution Agreement." School Specialty includes the businesses of the following wholly-owned subsidiaries of U.S. Office Products: School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation and predecessor to School Specialty, The Re-Print Corporation, American Academic Suppliers, Inc., Childcraft Education Corp., Sax Arts & Crafts, Inc. and Don Gresswell, Ltd. Immediately prior to the School Specialty Distribution, U.S. Office Products will hold all the issued and outstanding shares of School Specialty Common Stock. Approximately 12,187,723 shares of School Specialty Common Stock will be distributed to stockholders of U.S. Office Products in the School Specialty Distribution.

THE STRATEGIC RESTRUCTURING PLAN

The School Specialty Distribution is part of the Strategic Restructuring Plan. The principal elements of the Strategic Restructuring Plan are:

- Pursuant to the Tender Offer, U.S. Office Products is purchasing 37,037,037 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (including shares that may be issued on exercise of vested and unvested options for U.S. Office Products Common Stock) at $27.00 per share (or in the case of stock options, at $27.00 minus the exercise price of the options) and is incurring incur additional indebtedness to pay a substantial portion of the purchase price for these shares.

- Pursuant to the Distributions, U.S. Office Products is distributing the shares of the Spin-Off Companies to U.S. Office Products stockholders based on the shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock outstanding after acceptance of shares in the Tender Offer. Each U.S. Office Products stockholder will receive such stockholder's pro rata share of the stock of each Spin-Off Company.

- Following the Record Date, CD&R will make the Equity Investment in U.S. Office Products. CD&R will not acquire any interests in the Spin-Off Companies.

Following completion of the Distributions, U.S. Office Products will retain its North American Office Products Group, (including its office supply, office furniture, and office coffee and beverage services businesses), Mail Boxes, Etc., its New Zealand and Australia operations, and its 49% interest in Dudley Stationery Limited (a U.K. contract stationer). U.S. Office Products print management, technology solutions, educational supplies and corporate travel services businesses will be operated by the Spin-Off Companies.

In conjunction with the Strategic Restructuring Plan, U.S. Office Products is undertaking the following transactions:

- Pursuant to the 2003 Note Tender, U.S. Office Products is purchasing $222.2 million principal amount of its 2003 Notes for a purchase price of 94.5% of the principal amount and accrued interest.
- Pursuant to the 2001 Note Offer, U.S. Office Products exchanged approximately $131.0 million principal amount of its 2001 Notes for 8,100,741 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock at an exchange rate of 61.483 shares per $1,000 principal amount, which effectively reduced the conversion price on the 2001 Notes from $19.00 to $16.71 while the offer was open.
- U.S. Office Products is entering into a new $1.225 billion senior credit facility pursuant to an agreement dated the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus.
- U.S. Office Products has entered into an agreement to issue and sell $400.0 million in 9 3/4% Senior Subordinated Notes in a private placement.

REASONS FOR THE DISTRIBUTIONS

The Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products has approved the Strategic Restructuring Plan, including the Distributions. The U.S. Office Products Board of Directors determined that separation of the businesses of the Spin-Off Companies and the continuing business of U.S. Office Products as part of the Strategic Restructuring Plan would have advantages for the Spin-Off Companies and U.S. Office Products. The Distributions will allow U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies to adopt strategies and pursue objectives that are more appropriate to their respective industries and geographic territories. After the Distributions, U.S. Office Products will be focused on a more narrow group of businesses that involve primarily the distribution of office products and business services. School Specialty and each of the other Spin-Off Companies will be focused primarily on their individual businesses.

The Distributions will allow the Spin-Off Companies to pursue independent acquisition programs with a more focused use of resources and, where stock is used as consideration, provide stock of a public company that is in the same industry as the businesses being acquired. Before the Distributions, U.S. Office Products acquired companies in, for example, the school supplies business using U.S. Office Products Common Stock. Sellers were thus required to accept stock in a business that included office products, corporate travel services, technology solutions and print management businesses, as well as other businesses. Following the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty will be able to offer stock in its own business, which will be substantially the same as the businesses School Specialty expects to acquire.

The Distributions will enable the financial community to evaluate U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies as distinct businesses and compare them more easily to industry peers. U.S. Office Products believes that this will allow the financial community to better understand the businesses carried on by U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies and more accurately value those businesses.

The Distributions will also allow U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies to offer their employees more focused incentive compensation packages. The incentive compensation packages (which are expected to consist primarily of stock options) will offer the officers and other key employees of each Spin-Off Company equity interests in a company whose performance is tied directly to the business for which they work. The Company's ability to issue stock options (as well as other equity) will be subject to certain limitations in order to avoid triggering certain adverse federal income tax consequences. See "U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the School Specialty Distribution."

The Equity Investment is conditioned on completion of all of the Distributions (as well as completion of the Tender Offer). U.S. Office Products' Board of Directors recognized that U.S. Office Products was making a transition from an acquisition-oriented company to a business more focused on growth through improvement and expansion of existing operations. U.S. Office Products' Board of Directors concluded that the investment by CD&R in U.S. Office Products, and support of the management of U.S. Office Products by CD&R, Inc., would contribute to U.S. Office Products development. CD&R, Inc. has substantial experience in providing companies in which its affiliates invest with financial and managerial advisory services aimed at building value and improving operational, marketing, and financial performance. CD&R Inc. is also experienced in advising and assisting companies in managing high levels of debt.

OTHER ELEMENTS OF THE STRATEGIC RESTRUCTURING PLAN

TENDER OFFER. Pursuant to the Tender Offer, U.S. Office Products is repurchasing 37,037,037 shares (including shares that may be issued on exercise of vested and unvested stock options of U.S. Office Products Common Stock) at a price of $27.00 per share (or, in the case of stock options, at $27.00 minus the exercise price of the options).

U.S. Office Products is financing the aggregate tender price through a combination of a new senior credit facility for $1.225 billion (the "USOP Credit Facility"), the net proceeds of the Equity Investment and issuance of $400.0 million of 9 3/4% senior subordinated debt securities in a private placement. U.S. Office Products anticipates that the foregoing borrowings will increase its outstanding debt by approximately $454.2 million. Approximately $377.4 million was outstanding under U.S. Office Products' existing bank credit facility as of May 23, 1998. U.S. Office Products has entered into a commitment for the USOP Credit Facility.

The Record Date for the Distributions is occurring after acceptance of shares in the Tender Offer. Accordingly, U.S. Office Products stockholders who tendered their shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock in the Tender Offer will not receive the Distributions to the extent their U.S. Office Products shares have been accepted in the Tender Offer. Because the Tender Offer was for only 37,037,037 shares (including shares that may be issued on exercise of vested and unvested stock options of U.S. Office Products Common Stock) and 160.0 million shares were validly tendered in the Tender Offer, approximately 23.2% of the shares tendered by any U.S. Office Products stockholder has been accepted. U.S. Office Products stockholders who tendered their shares and do not otherwise dispose of shares that are not accepted before the Distribution will receive shares of the Spin-Off Companies in the Distributions with respect to approximately 76.8% of their shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock.

EQUITY INVESTMENT. Pursuant to the Investment Agreement dated as of January 12, 1998, as amended, between U.S. Office Products and CD&R (the "Investment Agreement"), U.S. Office Products will issue and sell approximately 36,368,426 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock and warrants to purchase additional shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (as described below) to CD&R for a purchase price of $270.0 million. As a result of the Equity Investment, CD&R will acquire (a) shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock representing 24.9% of the outstanding shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock after giving effect to the issuance of such shares; (b) rights ("Special Warrants") to receive for nominal consideration additional shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock equal to 24.9% (after giving effect to issuance of such additional shares upon exercise of the Special Warrants) of the additional shares that are issuable upon the conversion of certain outstanding convertible debentures of U.S. Office Products and of shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock that are actually issued pursuant to certain contingent rights under existing acquisition agreements; and (c) warrants ("Common Stock Warrants") representing the right to purchase one share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for each share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock purchased by CD&R at the date of the closing under the Investment Agreement (the "Closing Date") and for each share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock into which the Special Warrants become exercisable. The Special Warrants are exercisable from and after the Closing Date until the 12th anniversary thereof, subject to certain limitations, and the Common Stock Warrants are exercisable from and after the second anniversary of the Closing Date until such 12th anniversary. The aggregate exercise price of the Common Stock Warrants is $405.0 million.

CD&R has contracted to purchase a 24.9% equity interest in U.S. Office Products, including the shares issued to CD&R (the "Initial CD&R Acquisition"). CD&R's percentage ownership of U.S. Office Products will not increase or decrease depending on the actual number of shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock outstanding on the closing date of the Initial CD&R Acquisition. The Special Warrants will be issued to allow CD&R to maintain its 24.9% ownership interest if (i) 2001 Notes that remained outstanding after the 2001 Note Offer were converted into U.S. Office Products Common Stock at the conversion price in effect after adjusting for the Tender Offer and the Distributions, or (ii) additional shares are issued under certain contracts for acquisitions completed by U.S. Office Products.

Assuming (i) exercise of all options outstanding after the Tender Offer, and (ii) all 2003 Notes that remain outstanding following the 2003 Note Tender were converted in accordance with their existing terms, in each case, without any adjustment for the restructuring transactions, and (a) exercise of the Special Warrants in full, and (b) exercise of the Common Stock Warrants in full, CD&R could own approximately 37.0% of outstanding U.S. Office Products Common Stock on a fully-diluted basis. U.S. Office Products expects to make adjustments to the number and exercise price of outstanding options, and the conversion price of 2001 Notes and 2003 Notes remaining after the 2001 Note Offer and the 2003 Note Tender, on account of the restructuring transactions, and these adjustments will result in a greater number of shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock that may be issued upon exercise of the options and conversion of such notes. Although the amount of these adjustments will not be known until after the completion of the Strategic Restructuring Plan, the effect of these adjustments will be to reduce CD&R's fully diluted ownership interest in U.S. Office Products from the amounts set forth above. If no outstanding options are exercised, exercise of the Special Warrants and Common Stock Warrants could give CD&R approximately 39.9% of outstanding U.S. Office Products Common Stock after implementation of the Strategic Restructuring Plan.

Because the Record Date for the Distributions is before the closing of the Equity Investment, CD&R will not receive any shares of the Spin-Off Companies in the Distributions.

Prior to the closing of the Initial CD&R Acquisition, the Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products will consist of nine persons, including the chief executive officer of U.S. Office Products, three designees of CD&R, three designees the U.S. Office Products' Board and two persons who are satisfactory to both CD&R and the U.S. Office Products' Board. After the closing of the Initial CD&R Acquisition, the existing members of the U.S. Office Products Board will have the right to nominate six directors, which will include the chief executive officer. CD&R will have the right to nominate three directors. So long as CD&R has the right to nominate two or more directors, one of CD&R's nominees will serve as Chairman of the Board. CD&R can nominate one additional person to the U.S. Office Products' Board, if the directors of U.S. Office Products do not nominate its chief executive officer to the Board.

In addition, three-fourths of the directors of U.S. Office Products must approve the following transactions: (i) the sale by U.S. Office Products of equity securities, other than (A) a specified amount made available under employee benefit plans, such as option plans, or (B) a specified amount issued to acquire companies or issued in public offerings; (ii) any merger, tender offer involving U.S. Office Products' equity securities or sale, lease or disposition of all or substantially all of U.S. Office Products assets or other business combination involving U.S. Office Products, unless the consideration for such sale is all cash or is freely tradeable common stock of a public company with a specified level of market capitalization; (iii) any major recapitalization; (iv) certain amendments to stockholder rights plans; (v) any dissolution or partial liquidation of U.S. Office Products; or (vi) any modification to U.S. Office Products' organization documents or by-laws that is inconsistent with CD&R's rights under the Investment Agreement or any other agreements between U.S. Office Products and CD&R. The effect of this provision is so long as CD&R can nominate three directors, at least one of them must vote in favor of any of the above actions for it to be approved.

The following table summarizes the right of CD&R to nominate directors of U.S. Office Products and shows when the three-fourths super-majority voting requirement will apply:

PERCENTAGE OF SHARES OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMMON STOCK RETAINED BY CD&R(1) (2)	NUMBER OF DIRECTORS CD&R IS ENTITLED TO NOMINATE (OUT OF NINE) (3) (4)	RIGHT TO DESIGNATE CHAIRMAN	THREE-FOURTHS BOARD APPROVAL FOR CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS (2)
66 2/3% to 100%.....	Three	Yes	Yes
33 1/3% to 66 2/3%.....	Two	Yes	Yes
Less than 33 1/3% (but CD&R holds at least 5% of U.S. Office Products' then voting stock.....	One	No	No
Less than 5% of the then outstanding U.S. Office Products voting stock.....	None	No	No

(1) Includes shares acquired by CD&R in the Initial CD&R Acquisition and Shares

CD&R can acquire by exercising the Special Warrants.

- (2) All of CD&R's corporate governance rights will expire on the earlier of the fifth anniversary of the closing of the Initial CD&R Acquisition or if CD&R ever acquires more than 50% of the voting power represented by U.S. Office Products' then outstanding voting securities.
- (3) CD&R can approve one additional nominee if the Chief Executive Officer of U.S. Office Products is not a member of the Board or is not a Board nominee.
- (4) The size of the Board can be increased up to a total of 12 members, in which case the number of directors that CD&R has the right to nominate will increase proportionately.

CD&R's obligation to consummate the Equity Investment is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of various conditions. These include, among others: (i) accuracy of U.S. Office Products' representations and warranties and compliance by U.S. Office Products' with its obligations under the Investment Agreement; (ii) receipt of necessary antitrust and other regulatory clearance; (iii) absence of material litigation; (iv) U.S. Office Products stockholder approval of the issuance of shares in the Equity Investment; (v) consummation of the Distributions in accordance with the Distribution Agreements containing certain terms specified in the Investment Agreement and otherwise as reasonably approved by CD&R; (vi) execution and delivery of the Tax Allocation Agreement containing certain terms specified in the Investment Agreement and otherwise as reasonably approved by CD&R; (vii) execution of documents relating to financing of the Tender Offer satisfactory in form and substance to CD&R; (viii) consummation of the Tender Offer; (ix) execution of a consulting agreement with CD&R Inc. providing for payment of an annual consulting fee of $500,000 and registration rights agreement with CD&R; (x) absence of any development since October 25, 1997 that would have a material adverse effect on U.S. Office Products after giving effect to the distributions; (xi) no person or group (other than CD&R or its affiliates) having entered into an agreement with U.S. Office Products with respect to a tender or exchange offer for any shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock, or a merger, consolidation, or other business combination with or involving the Company; and (xii) U.S. Office Products' debt immediately following completion of the transactions contemplated by the Strategic Restructuring Plan shall not exceed $1.4 billion (assuming conversion of certain convertible debt) and outstanding debt of the Spin-Off Companies shall be at least $130.0 million plus expenditures by such entities for acquisitions after the date of the Investment Agreement. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Distribution Agreement" and "--Tax Allocation Agreement." If U.S. Office Products does not proceed with the Distributions, or if the Equity Investment does not occur for certain other reasons, CD&R can terminate the Investment Agreement and CD&R would receive a termination fee of $25.0 million plus CD&R's reasonable fees and expenses. If the Equity Investment is completed, CD&R, Inc. will receive a transaction fee of $15.0 million and reimbursement for expenses it incurred in connection with the transaction. For additional information concerning the Equity Investment, investors should refer to U.S. Office Products' proxy statement for its special meeting held to consider issuance of shares in the Equity Investment. See "Additional Information."

RELATED TRANSACTIONS. Jonathan J. Ledecy, the founder, Chairman of the Board and former Chief Executive Officer of U.S. Office Products, will resign as Chairman of the Board of U.S. Office Products upon completion of the Distributions. In connection with the adoption of the Strategic Restructuring Plan, U.S. Office Products' Board of Directors and Mr. Ledecy concluded that it was important to the achievement of the objectives of the plan that the Spin-Off Companies obtain the benefit of Mr. Ledecy's skills and experience. Accordingly, U.S. Office Products entered into a services agreement with Mr. Ledecy (the "Ledecy Services Agreement"). It is expected that the Company will enter into an employment agreement with Mr. Ledecy to implement its assigned portion of the Ledecy Services Agreement. The Ledecy Services Agreement provides for non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions that will continue for four years after the School Specialty Distribution has been completed. U.S. Office Products will assign to School Specialty the ability to enforce the non-competition provisions described above as to its own business, which will then constitute part of Mr. Ledecy's employment agreement with the Company. School Specialty will have the right to enforce the non-competition provision with respect to its respective business. In consideration of this agreement by Mr. Ledecy and his serving as a director and an employee of School Specialty and each of the other Spin-Off Companies following the Distribution, the Ledecy Services Agreement provides that he will receive options to purchase up to 7.5% of the outstanding common stock of each Spin-Off Company as of the Distribution Date without regard to the Offering. For additional information on the terms of the Ledecy Services Agreement and the options to be granted by School Specialty to Mr. Ledecy, see "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements."

School Specialty has filed a Registration Statement with the Commission for the issuance of shares of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering. The Offering is expected to be for 2,125,000 shares (plus 318,750 shares subject to the underwriters' option to purchase shares to cover over-allotments). A preliminary prospectus dated May 18, 1998 estimated that the initial public offering price will be between $14.00 and $16.00 per share. School Specialty expects that the initial public offering price in the Offering will be determined after the close of markets on the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that the initial public offering price will be set at that time, that the price will be within the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus, or that the Offering will be completed. Information regarding the initial public offering price, and "as adjusted" pro forma financial statements based on that price, will be set forth in the final prospectus related to the Offering, which will be publicly available within two business days after the price is determined. See "Additional Information."

U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE SCHOOL SPECIALTY DISTRIBUTION

Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion (the "Tax Opinion") on the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the School Specialty Distribution to U.S. Office Products and holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock on the Record Date. The Tax Opinion is based on the Code, and regulations, rulings, and judicial decisions as of the date thereof, all of which may be repealed, revoked, or modified so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those described below. Such changes could be applied retroactively in a manner that could adversely affect a holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock. In addition, the authorities on which the Tax Opinion is based are subject to various interpretations. It is therefore possible that the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the School Specialty Distribution and of the holding, and disposition of the School Specialty Common Stock may differ from the treatment described below.

The Tax Opinion applies only to holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock who are U. S. persons and who hold U.S. Office Products Common Stock as a capital asset (generally, property held for investment) within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. A U.S. person is the beneficial owner of U.S. Office Products Common Stock that is (i) for U.S. federal income tax purposes a citizen or resident of the United States (including certain former citizens and former long-term residents), (ii) a corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof, (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source or (iv) a trust with respect to the administration of which a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust. The Tax Opinion does not address tax considerations applicable to a holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock's particular circumstances or to a holder that may be subject to special tax rules (such as holders subject to the alternative minimum tax) or other special situations, such as those of dealers in securities or currencies, financial institutions, insurance companies, persons holding U.S. Office Products Common Stock as part of a hedging or conversion transaction or a straddle, persons whose "functional currency" is not the U.S. dollar, and certain U.S. expatriates.

The Tax Opinion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock in light of their particular circumstances, nor will it address any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local, or foreign taxing jurisdiction. Holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock should consult their tax advisors about the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences to them of the School Specialty Distribution, or the holding and disposition of the School Specialty Common Stock, as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, local, or foreign taxing jurisdiction.

EFFECT ON U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS AND HOLDERS OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMMON STOCK. Subject to the foregoing, the Tax Opinion states Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering's opinion that for U.S. federal income tax purposes the Distributions (including the School Specialty Distribution) will qualify as tax-free spin-offs under Section 355 of the Code, and will not be taxable under Section 355(e) of the Code. The Tax Opinion is based on the accuracy as of the time of the Distributions of factual representations made by U.S. Office Products, School Specialty, the Spin-Off Companies and CD&R and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials that Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has deemed necessary.

The Tax Opinion represents Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering's best judgment of how a court would rule. However, the Tax Opinion is not binding upon either the IRS or any court. A ruling has not been, and will not be, sought from the IRS with respect to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the School Specialty Distribution.

Assuming the School Specialty Distribution qualifies as a tax-free spin-off under Section 355 and is not taxable under to Section 355(e) of the Code:

1. No gain or loss will be recognized by holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock as a result of their receipt of School Specialty Common Stock in the School Specialty Distribution. Holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares (as discussed below).
2. No gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. Office Products as a result of the School Specialty Distribution.
3. A stockholder's tax basis in such stockholder's U.S. Office Products Common Stock immediately before the School Specialty Distribution will be allocated among the U.S. Office Products Common Stock and the Spin-Off Companies Common Stock (including any fractional shares) received with respect to such U.S. Office Products Common Stock in proportion to their relative fair market values on the Distribution Date of School Specialty. Such allocation must be calculated separately for each block of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (shares purchased at the same time and at the same cost) with respect to which the Spin-Off Companies' common stock is received.

4. The holding period of the School Specialty Common Stock (including any fractional shares) received in the School Specialty Distribution will include the holding period of the U.S. Office Products Common Stock with respect to which it was distributed.

Treasury regulations governing Section 355 require that each holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock who receives shares of School Specialty Common Stock pursuant to the School Specialty Distribution attach a statement to the U.S. federal income tax return that will be filed by such stockholder for the taxable year in which the stockholder receives School Specialty Common Stock in the School Specialty Distribution. The regulations require that the statement show the applicability of Section 355 to the School Specialty Distribution. U.S. Office Products will provide each U.S. Office Products stockholder of record on the record date with information necessary to comply with this requirement.

CONSEQUENCES OF FAILURE TO QUALIFY AS A TAX-FREE DISTRIBUTION As noted above, the Tax Opinion is not binding on the IRS or the courts. Holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock should be aware that the requirements of Section 355 pertaining to business purpose, active trade or business, and absence of a device of distribution of earnings and profits, as well as the requirements of Section 355(e) pertaining to a plan or series of related transactions to acquire 50% or more by vote or value of a company, are highly dependent on factual interpretations, are to a significant extent subjective in nature, and have a relative absence of authority addressing their application to the particular facts presented by the School Specialty Distribution. Accordingly, the IRS and/or a court reach a conclusion that differs from the conclusions in the Tax Opinion.

BUSINESS PURPOSE. In order for the School Specialty Distribution to qualify as a tax-free spin-off under Section 355, it must be motivated, in whole or substantial part, by one or more corporate business purposes. U.S. Office Products has represented that the School Specialty Distribution was motivated, in whole or substantial part, to allow U.S. Office Products and the Company to adopt strategies and pursue objectives that are more appropriate to their respective industries and stages of growth; to allow the Company to pursue an independent acquisition program with a more focused use of resources and, where stock is used as consideration, to allow the Company to provide stock of a public company that is in the same industry as the business being acquired; to allow U.S. Office Products and the Company to offer their respective employees more focused compensation packages; and to make possible the Equity Investment, which the Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products concluded would contribute to U.S. Office Products' development, based on the skills and experience of CD&R, Inc. Based on these representations and certain other information, data, documentation and other materials, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion that the School Specialty Distribution satisfies the business purpose requirement of Section 355 of the Code. However, although similar rationales have been accepted by the IRS in other circumstances as sufficient to meet the business purpose requirement of Code Section 355, there can be no assurances that the IRS will not assert that the business purpose requirement is not satisfied.

ACTIVE TRADE OR BUSINESS. In order for the School Specialty Distribution to qualify as a tax-free spin-off under Section 355, both the Company and U.S. Office Products must be engaged in an active trade or business that has been actively conducted for the five-year period preceding the School Specialty Distribution, taking into account only businesses that have been acquired in transactions in which no gain or loss was recognized. Whether current and historical business activity constitutes an active trade or business, and whether any gain or loss should have been recognized in an acquisition structured and reported as a nontaxable transaction, turn in some instances on the application of subjective legal standards and on factual determinations, such as intentions of the parties involved. Based on the representations of U.S. Office Products and the Company, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion that the School Specialty Distribution satisfies the active trade or business requirement. However, because of the inherently subjective nature of important elements of the active trade or business requirement, and because the IRS may challenge the representations upon which Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering relies, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert that the active trade or business requirement is not satisfied.

ABSENCE OF A DEVICE FOR DISTRIBUTION OF EARNINGS AND PROFITS. The School Specialty Distribution will not qualify as a tax-free spin-off under Section 355 if the School Specialty Distribution was used principally as a device for the distribution of the earnings and profits of U.S. Office Products or the Company. Treasury regulations provide that this test is applied based on all the facts and circumstances, including the presence or absence of factors described in the Regulations as "device factors" and "nondevice factors." Application of this test is uncertain in part because of its subjective nature. Based on the representations of U.S. Office Products and the Company, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion that the School Specialty Distribution is not a transaction used principally as a device for the distribution of earnings and profits of either U.S. Office Products or the Company. However, because of the inherently subjective nature of the device test (including the subjectivity involved in assigning weight to various factors), and because the IRS may challenge the representations upon which Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering relies, there can be no assurance that the IRS will assert that the School Specialty Distribution is a transaction used principally as a device for the distribution of earnings and profits of U.S. Office Products or the Company.

If the School Specialty Distribution fails to qualify as a tax-free spin-off under Section 355:

1. U.S. Office Products will recognize gain equal to the difference between the fair market value of the School Specialty Common Stock on the Distribution Date and U.S. Office Products adjusted tax basis in the School Specialty Common Stock on the Distribution Date. If U.S. Office Products were to recognize gain on the School Specialty Distribution, such gain would likely be substantial.

2. Each holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock will be treated as having received a taxable corporate distribution in an amount equal to the fair market value (on the Distribution Date) of the School Specialty Common Stock distributed to such stockholder, including fractional shares. The distribution would generally be treated as ordinary dividend income to a U.S. Office Products stockholder to the extent of such U.S. Office Products stockholder's pro rata share of U.S. Office Products' accumulated and current earnings and profits. To the extent the amount of the distribution exceeds such U.S. Office Products stockholder's pro rata share of U.S. Office Products' accumulated and current earnings and profits, such excess would be treated first as a basis-reducing, tax-free return of capital to the extent of the stockholder's tax basis in his or her U.S. Office Products Common Stock and then as capital gain, provided that the U.S. Office Products Stock is held as a capital asset. For corporate stockholders, the portion of the taxable distribution that constitutes a dividend would be eligible for the dividends-received deduction (subject to certain limitations in the Code) and could be subject to the Code's extraordinary dividend provisions which, if applicable, would require a reduction in a corporate stockholder's basis in its U.S. Office Products Common Stock to the extent of such deduction and the recognition of gain to the extent the deduction exceeds the corporate stockholder's tax basis in the U.S. Office Products Common Stock.

3. Each U.S. Office Products stockholder's tax basis in the School Specialty Common Stock would equal the fair market value on the Distribution

Date of the School Specialty Common Stock (including fractional shares) distributed to such stockholder.

4. The holding period of the School Specialty Common Stock (including fractional shares) received in the School Specialty Distribution would begin with, and include, the day after the Distribution Date.

Whether or not the School Specialty Distribution is taxable, cash received by a holder of U.S. Office Products Common Stock in lieu of a fractional share of School Specialty Common Stock will be treated as received in exchange for such fractional share and the stockholder will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the stockholder's tax basis in the fractional share. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss to the stockholder.

EFFECT OF POST-DISTRIBUTION TRANSACTION. Section 355(e) which was added in 1997, generally provides that a company that distributes shares of a subsidiary in a spin-off that is otherwise tax-free will incur U.S. federal income tax liability if 50% or more, by vote or value, of the capital stock of either the company making the distribution or the subsidiary is acquired by one or more persons acting pursuant to a plan or series of related transactions that includes the spin-off. Stock acquired by certain related persons is aggregated in determining whether this 50% test is met. There is a presumption that any acquisition of 50% or more, by vote or value, of the capital stock of the company or the subsidiary occurring two years before or after the spin-off is pursuant to a plan that includes the spin-off. However, the presumption may be rebutted by establishing that the spin-off and the acquisition are not part of a plan or series of related transactions. Based on the representations of U.S. Office Products, the Company and CD&R, and the assumption that the School Specialty Distribution is not part of a plan that is outside the knowledge of U.S. Office Products and the Company pursuant to which one or more persons will acquire directly or indirectly 50% or more by vote or value of the capital stock of U.S. Office Products or the Company, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering has delivered an opinion that the School Specialty Distribution will not be Section 355(e). However, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert that the School Specialty Distribution is taxable under Section 355(e).

If the School Specialty Distribution is taxable under Section 355(e) of the Code, U.S. Office Products will recognize gain, equal to the difference between the fair market value of the School Specialty Common Stock on the Distribution Date and U.S. Office Products' adjusted tax basis in the School Specialty Common Stock on the Distribution Date. If U.S. Office Products were to recognize gain on the School Specialty Distribution, such gain would likely be substantial. However, no gain or loss will be recognized by holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares). If U.S. Office Products were to recognize gain on the School Specialty Distribution, such gain would likely be substantial.

LIABILITY FOR DISTRIBUTION TAXES. Under the Tax Allocation Agreement, School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies will jointly and severally indemnify U.S. Office Products for any Distribution Taxes assessed against U.S. Office Products if an Adverse Tax Act of any of the Spin-Off Companies materially contributes to a final determination that any or all of the Distributions are taxable. School Specialty is also entering into the Tax Indemnification Agreement with the other Spin-Off Companies under which the Spin-Off Company that is responsible for the Adverse Tax Act will indemnify the other Spin-Off Companies for any liability to U.S. Office Products under the Tax Allocation Agreement. As a consequence, School Specialty will be liable for any Distribution Taxes resulting from any adverse Tax Act by School Specialty and liable (subject to indemnification by the other Spin-Off Companies) for any Distribution Taxes resulting from an Adverse Tax Act by the other Spin-Off Companies. Additionally, U.S. Office Products and each of the Spin-Off Companies will be liable for its pro rata portion of any Distribution Taxes, based on the value of each company's common stock after the Distributions, if it is determined that there has not been Adverse Tax Act by either U.S. Office Products or any of the other Spin-Off Companies. As a result, the Company could become liable for a pro rata portion of any Distribution Taxes with respect not only to the School Specialty Distribution, but also to any of the other Distributions. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Tax Allocation Agreement and Tax Indemnification Agreement" for a detailed discussion of the Tax Allocation Agreement and Tax Indemnification Agreement.

WILMER, CUTLER & PICKERING'S OPINION OF THE MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO HOLDERS OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMMON STOCK DOES NOT PURPORT TO COVER ALL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MIGHT APPLY TO EVERY HOLDER OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMMON STOCK. ALL HOLDERS OF U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS COMMON STOCK SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE PARTICULAR U.S. FEDERAL, FOREIGN, STATE AND LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE SCHOOL SPECIALTY DISTRIBUTION TO THEM.

EFFECT ON OUTSTANDING U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS OPTIONS HELD BY SCHOOL SPECIALTY EMPLOYEES

All or substantially all vested and unvested options ("U.S. Office Products Options") to acquire U.S. Office Products Common Stock that are held by School Specialty employees on the Distribution Date are being replaced with options ("School Specialty Options") to acquire shares of School Specialty Common Stock. School Specialty anticipates that the replacement options will be issued under a stock option plan to be adopted on or prior to the Distribution Date. As of the Distribution Date, approximately 375,895 U.S. Office Products Options are held by employees of School Specialty (assuming all option holders tendered all of the shares underlying their options in the Tender Offer). The number of School Specialty Options that will be outstanding after the Distributions will depend on the trading prices of U.S. Office Products Common Stock around the time of the Distributions and the public offering price of the Company Common Stock in the Offering. For those reasons, the number of School Specialty Options into which the U.S. Office Products Options will convert is not yet determinable. The exercise price for U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

29

$$\text{Exercise Price (New)} = \text{Exercise Price (Old)} \times \frac{\text{Initial Public Offering Price of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering}}{\text{Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution}}$$

The number of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

$$\text{Option Share (New)} = \text{Option Shares (Old)} \times \frac{\text{Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution}}{\text{Initial Public Offering Price of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering}}$$

For all optionees, the "Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution" will be the average closing price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for the lesser of (a) ten business days preceding the Distributions or (b) the number of business days falling between the expiration of the Tender Offer and the completion of the Distributions. If the initial public offering price cannot be determined at the time of the adjustment, the closing price on June 10, 1998 will be substituted for the initial public offering price in the formula. The foregoing formula adjustments are intended to preserve for the holder of U.S. Office Products Options the intrinsic value per option, measured as the difference between the market value of one share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock at the time of the School Specialty Distribution and the exercise price of such option. The intrinsic value of the School Specialty Options will be no greater than the intrinsic value of the U.S. Office Products Options immediately before the Distributions, and the ratio of exercise price to market price will not be less than the ratio immediately before the Distributions.

Replacement options will be issued under a stock option plan adopted prior to the Distribution Date. It is anticipated that all other terms of the School Specialty Options will be the same as the terms of the U.S. Office Products options they replace. As a result of the adjustment of the U.S. Office Products Options described above, the options held by the School Specialty employees after the School Specialty Distribution would represent a greater percentage interest in School Specialty than the percentage interest in U.S. Office Products that such options represented before the Distributions.

RESTRICTIONS ON TRANSFER

Shares of School Specialty Common Stock distributed to the U.S. Office Products Stockholders pursuant to School Specialty Distribution will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for shares received by any persons who may be deemed to be "affiliates" of School Specialty as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of School Specialty after School Specialty Distribution generally include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with, School Specialty and may include certain officers and directors of School Specialty as well as principal stockholders of School Specialty. Persons who are affiliates of School Specialty will be permitted to sell their shares of School Specialty Common Stock only pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, such as the exemptions provided for private transactions or Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

EXPENSES OF THE DISTRIBUTIONS

U.S. Office Products estimates that the direct legal, financial advisory, investment banking, financing, accounting, printing, mailing and other expenses (including the fees of U.S. Office Products' and the Spin-Off Companies' transfer agents) of the Strategic Restructuring Plan (including CD&R's fees and expenses), including the Distributions, will total approximately $75.0 million. Upon request, U.S. Office Products will pay the reasonable expenses of brokerage firms, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries who are record holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for forwarding this Information Statement/Prospectus to the beneficial owners of such shares. The foregoing expenses will be allocated among U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies pursuant to a formula to be determined. See "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Distribution Agreement."

THE SPIN-OFFS FROM U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS

Following the School Specialty Distribution, U.S. Office Products and School Specialty will operate independently, and (except for interests U.S. Office Products may retain pursuant to certain pledge agreements) neither will have any stock ownership, beneficial or otherwise, in the other. For the purposes of governing certain of the ongoing relationships among U.S. Office Products, School Specialty and the Other Spin-Off Companies after the Distributions, and to provide mechanisms for an orderly transition, U.S. Office Products, School Specialty and the Other Spin-Off Companies are entering into the Distribution Agreement, the Tax Allocation Agreement, and the Employee Benefits Agreement and the Spin-Off Companies are entering into the Tax Indemnification Agreement. The terms of the Distribution Agreement, the Tax Allocation Agreement, the Tax Indemnification Agreement and the Employee Benefits Agreement have been determined while School Specialty is a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Office Products. In addition, the Investment Agreement specifies certain terms of those agreements and provides that they are subject to CD&R's reasonable approval. Therefore, they will not be the result of arm's-length negotiations between independent parties.

DISTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

TRANSFER OF SUBSIDIARIES AND ASSETS. The Distribution Agreement provides for the transfer from U.S. Office Products to School Specialty of substantially all of the equity interests in the U.S. Office Products subsidiaries that are engaged in the business of School Specialty as well as the transfer, in certain instances, of other assets related to the business of School Specialty. It also provides that the recovery on any claims under applicable acquisition agreements that U.S. Office Products may have against the persons who sold businesses to U.S. Office Products that became part of School Specialty in connection with the Distributions (the "School Specialty Acquisition Indemnity Claims") will be shared between U.S. Office Products and School Specialty. In addition, to the extent that the School Specialty Acquisition Indemnity Claims are currently secured by the pledge of stock of U.S. Office Products, the pledged shares will be used, subject to the final resolution of the claim, to reimburse U.S. Office Products and School Specialty for their respective damages and expenses in accordance with an agreed upon allocation of recovery rights, which will be determined prior to the School Specialty Distribution.

DEBT. The Distribution Agreement allocates a specified amount of U.S. Office Products' debt outstanding under its credit facilities to each Spin-Off Company and requires each Spin-Off Company, on or prior to the Distribution, to obtain credit facilities, to borrow funds under such facilities and to use the proceeds of such borrowings to pay off the U.S. Office Products' debt so allocated plus any additional debt incurred by U.S. Office Products after January 12, 1998 (the date of the Investment Agreement) in connection with the acquisition of an entity that has become or will become a subsidiary of such Spin-Off Company. Under the Distribution Agreement, $80 million of U.S. Office Products' debt has been allocated to School Specialty, and since January 12, 1998, U.S. Office Products has incurred an additional $3.3 million of debt in connection with School Specialty's acquisition of Education Access. Prior to the Distribution, School Specialty is entering into the credit facility described under "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of School Specialty--Liquidity and Financial Resources" and is borrowing $83.3 million under the facility to pay off debt of U.S. Office Products.

School Specialty's historical balance sheets reflect payables to U.S. Office Products, which arose primarily as a result of U.S. Office Products' funding of the cash portions of acquisitions, paying the acquisition costs and repaying outstanding debt of acquired companies, as well as an allocation of U.S. Office Products' corporate expenses. The amount of such payables to U.S. Office Products at January 24, 1998 in excess of the $80 million of U.S. Office Products' debt allocated to School Specialty under the Distribution Agreement was forgiven by U.S. Office Products. Accordingly, School Specialty's historical balance sheet as of January 24, 1998 includes aggregate payables to U.S. Office Products of $80 million and a capital contribution by U.S. Office Products equal to such excess. School Specialty's pro forma balance sheet as of January 24, 1998 reflects the $3.3 million of debt incurred by U.S. Office Products in School Specialty's acquisition of Education Access as an additional payable to U.S. Office Products and the refinancing of the payable to U.S. Office Products with the proceeds of the $83.3 million borrowing under the new credit facility.

LIABILITIES. Under the Distribution Agreement, School Specialty will be liable for (i) any liabilities arising out of or in connection with the business conducted by it or its subsidiaries, (ii) its liabilities under the Employee Benefits Agreement, Tax Allocation Agreement and related agreements described below, (iii) the U.S. Office Products debt that has been allocated to the Company as described above, (iv) liabilities under the securities laws relating to the Prospectus in respect of the Offering and portions of this Information Statement/Prospectus distributed to stockholders of U.S. Office Products in connection with the School Specialty Distribution, as well as other securities law liabilities related to the School Specialty business that arise from information supplied to U.S. Office Products (or that should have been supplied, but was not) by School Specialty, (v) U.S. Office Products' liabilities for earn-outs from acquisitions in respect of School Specialty and its subsidiaries, (vi) School Specialty's costs and expenses related to the Offering and its new credit facility, and (vii) $1.0 million of the transaction costs (including legal, accounting, investment banking and financial advisory) and other fees incurred by U.S. Office Products in connection with its Strategic Restructuring Plan. Each of the other Spin-Off Companies will be similarly obligated to U.S. Office Products. School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies have also agreed to bear a pro rata portion of U.S. Office Products' liabilities under the securities laws (other than claims relating solely to a specific Spin-Off Company or relating specifically to the continuing businesses of U.S. Office Products) and U.S. Office Products' general corporate liabilities (other than debt, except for that specifically allocated to the Spin-Off Companies) incurred prior to the Distributions (i.e., liabilities not related to the conduct of a particular distributed or retained subsidiary's business) (the "Shared Liabilities"). If one of the Spin-Off Companies defaults on an obligation owed to U.S. Office Products, the non-defaulting Spin-Off Companies will be obligated on a pro rata basis to pay such obligation ("Default Liability"). The aggregate of the Shared Liabilities and Default Liability for which any Spin-Off Company may be liable is, however, limited to $1.75 million.

The Spin-Off Companies' pro rata share of Shared Liabilities will be, based upon the fiscal year ended April 25, 1998, the average of (a) their revenues relative to those of U.S. Office Products and (b) their operating income relative to that of U.S. Office Products; the residual will be U.S. Office Products' pro rata share. Based upon financial data for the nine-month period ended January 24, 1998, the Company's pro rata share of Shared Liabilities would have been 11.9%, the other Spin-Off Companies' pro rata share would have aggregated 22.5%, and U.S. Office Products' pro rata share would have been 65.6%. As to any Default Liability, each non-defaulting company's pro rata share will be increased to include a portion of the defaulting Spin-Off Company's pro rata share.

The Distribution Agreement will provide that each party will indemnify and hold all of the other parties harmless from any and all liabilities for which the former assumed liability under the Distribution Agreement. All indemnity payments will be subject to adjustment upward or downward to take account of tax costs or tax benefits as well as insurance proceeds. If there are any claims made under U.S. Office Products' existing insurance policies, the amount of any deductible or retention will be allocated by U.S. Office Products among the claimants in a fair and reasonable manner.

OTHER PROVISIONS. The Distribution Agreement will have other customary provisions including provisions relating to mutual release, access to information, witness services, confidentiality and alternative dispute resolution.

TAX ALLOCATION AGREEMENT AND TAX INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

The Tax Allocation Agreement provides that each Spin-Off Company will be responsible for its respective share of U.S. Office Products' consolidated tax liability for the years that each such corporation was included in U.S. Office Products' consolidated U.S. federal income tax return. The Tax Allocation Agreement also provides for sharing, where appropriate, of state, local and foreign taxes attributable to periods prior to the Distributions.

The Tax Allocation Agreement further provides that the Spin-Off Companies will jointly and severally indemnify U.S. Office Products for any Distribution Taxes assessed against U.S. Office Products if an Adverse Tax Act of any of the Spin-Off Companies materially contributes to a final determination that any or all of the Distributions are taxable. School Specialty is also entering into the Tax Indemnification Agreement with the other Spin-Off Companies under which the Spin-Off Company that is responsible for the Adverse Tax Act will indemnify the other Spin-Off Companies for any liability to U.S. Office Products under the Tax Allocation Agreement. As a consequence, School Specialty will be liable for any Distribution Taxes resulting from any Adverse Tax Act by School Specialty and liable (subject to indemnification by the other Spin-Off Companies) for any Distribution Taxes resulting from an Adverse Tax Act by the other Spin-Off Companies. If there is a final determination that any or all of the Distributions are taxable and it is determined that there has not been an Adverse Tax Act by either U.S. Office Products or any of the Spin-Off Companies, each of U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies will be liable for its pro rata portion of such Distribution Taxes based on the value of each company's common stock after the Distributions. As a result, School Specialty could become liable for a pro rata portion of Distribution Taxes with respect not only to the School Specialty Distribution but also any of the other Distributions. The liabilities of School Specialty under the Tax Allocation Agreement and the Tax Indemnification Agreement are not subject to any limits.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS AGREEMENT

In connection with the Distributions, U.S. Office Products is entering into the Employee Benefits Agreement with School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies to provide for an orderly transition of benefits coverage between U.S. Office Products and the Spin-off Companies. Pursuant to this agreement, the respective Spin-Off Companies will retain or assume liability for employment-related claims and severance for persons currently or previously employed by the respective Spin-Off Companies and their subsidiaries, while U.S. Office Products and its post-Distribution subsidiaries will retain or assume responsibility for their current and previous employees. The Employee Benefits Agreement reflects U.S. Office Products' expectation that each of the Spin-Off Companies will establish 401(k) plans for their respective employees effective as of, or shortly after, the Distribution Date and that U.S. Office Products will transfer 401(k) accounts to those plans as soon as practicable. The agreement also provides for spinning off portions of the U.S. Office Products' cafeteria plan that relate to employees of the Spin-Off Companies (and their subsidiaries) and having those spun-off plans assume responsibilities for claims submitted on or after the Distribution.

DIVIDEND POLICY

School Specialty does not anticipate declaring and paying cash dividends on School Specialty Common Stock in the foreseeable future. The decision whether to apply any legally available funds to the payment of dividends on School Specialty Common Stock will be made by the Board of Directors of School Specialty (the "School Specialty Board") from time to time in the exercise of its business judgment, taking into account School Specialty's financial condition, results of operations, existing and proposed commitments for use of School Specialty's funds and other relevant factors. School Specialty's ability to pay dividends may be restricted from time to time by financial covenants in its credit agreements.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth the capitalization of School Specialty at January 24, 1998 (i) on a historical basis, (ii) on a pro forma basis to reflect the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products, the purchase acquisition completed subsequent to January 24, 1998 and the Distribution and (iii) on such pro forma basis as adjusted to give effect to the Offering, the direct sale by the Company of 250,000 shares of Common Stock to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate and the application of the net proceeds therefrom to the payment of debt (assuming an initial public offering price of $15.00 per share (which is equal to the mid-point of the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus dated May 18, 1998 related to the Offering) and no exercise of the Underwriter's overallotment option, after deducting the estimated offering expenses). This table should be read in conjunction with the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of School Specialty," the historical consolidated financial statements and the pro forma combined financial statements of School Specialty, and the related notes to each thereof, included elsewhere in this Information Statement/ Prospectus.

(1) Outstanding shares do not include shares authorized for issuance upon exercise of stock options granted or to be granted. See "Management of School Specialty--Replacement of Outstanding U.S. Office Products' Options" and "--1998 Stock Incentive Plan". School Specialty expects that the initial public offering price in the Offering will be determined after the close of markets on the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that the initial public offering price will be set at that time, that the price will be within the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus, or that the Offering will be completed. Information regarding the initial public offering price, and "as adjusted" pro forma financial statements based on that price, will be set forth in the final prospectus related to the Offering, which will be publicly available within two business days after the price is determined. See "Additional Information."

The approximately 14.6 million shares of Common Stock outstanding on a pro forma basis, as adjusted, was calculated by adding to the approximately 12.2 million shares issued in the Distribution (a) the 2,125,000 shares offered hereby and (b) the 250,000 shares to be sold to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate.

SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

The Selected Financial Data provided herein should be read in conjunction with the historical financial statements, including the notes thereto, the pro forma financial information, including the notes thereto, and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations of School Specialty", all of which appear elsewhere in this Information Statement/Prospectus.

The historical Selected Financial Data for the years ended December 31, 1994 and 1995, the four months ended April 30, 1996 and the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 (except pro forma amounts) have been derived from School Specialty's consolidated financial statements that have been audited and are included elsewhere in the Prospectus/Information Statement. The historical Selected Financial Data for the years ended December 31, 1992 and 1993 have been derived from unaudited consolidated financial statements and are not included elsewhere in this Information Statement/Prospectus. The Selected Financial Data for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998 (except pro forma amounts) have been derived from unaudited consolidated financial statements that appear elsewhere in this Information Statement/Prospectus. These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the same basis as the audited consolidated financial statements and, in the opinion of management, contain all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the results of operations for the periods presented.

The pro forma income statement data, which have been derived from School Specialty's unaudited pro forma financial statements included elsewhere in this Prospectus, give effect, as applicable, to the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and the acquisitions completed by the Company since May 1, 1996 as if all such transactions had been consummated by May 1, 1996. The unaudited pro forma combined financial data discussed herein do not purport to represent the results that the Company would have obtained had the transactions which are the subject of the pro forma adjustments occurred at the beginning of the applicable periods, as assumed, or the future results of the Company. See additional disclosure regarding pro forma results in the Financial Statements section.

- (1) The historical financial information of the Pooled Companies have been combined on a historical cost basis in accordance with GAAP to present this financial data as if the Pooled Companies had always been members of the same operating group. The financial information of the Purchased Companies is included from the dates of their respective acquisitions.
  - (2) The pro forma financial data give effect to the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and the purchase acquisitions completed by School Specialty since May 1, 1996 as if all such transactions had occurred on May 1, 1996. The pro forma statement of income data are not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have been achieved had these events actually then occurred and should not be construed as representative of future operating results.

- (3) Results for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and the 12 months ended January 24, 1998 (historical and pro forma) include benefit from income taxes of $2.4 million primarily arising from the reversal of a $5.3 million valuation allowance in the quarter ended April 26, 1997. The valuation allowance had been established in fiscal 1995 to offset the tax benefit from net operating loss carryforwards included in the Company's deferred tax assets, because at the time it was not likely that such tax benefit would be realized. The valuation allowance was reversed subsequent to the Company's being acquired by U.S. Office Products, because it was deemed "more likely than not", based on improved results, that such tax benefit would be realized.
- (4) For calculation of the pro forma weighted average shares outstanding for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 and January 25, 1997, see Note (k) of Notes to Pro Forma Combined Financial Statements included herein. The pro forma weighted average shares outstanding (basic and diluted), as further adjusted to give effect to the sales of shares to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate, and in the Offering, would have been 14.6 million shares for all periods for which pro forma data are given, and the pro forma net income per share, as so adjusted further and to give effect to the use of proceeds from such sales to reduce debt, would have been:

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY

OVERVIEW

School Specialty is the largest U.S. distributor focusing on non-textbook educational supplies and furniture for grades pre-K-12. The Company provides a comprehensive offering of high quality educational supplies and furniture to school districts, school administrators and teachers through the broad distribution of its catalogs. Specialty brands, which target specific curriculum disciplines, include Childcraft, which sells to the early childhood market; Sax Arts & Crafts, which distributes a broad line of art supplies and materials; and Gresswell, which distributes library-related products in the United Kingdom.

Revenues have increased from $65.0 million in the fiscal year ended December 31, 1992 to $279.6 million for the twelve months ended January 24, 1998. This increase resulted primarily from 15 acquisitions, 13 of which occurred during fiscal 1997 and the first nine months of fiscal 1998, as well as internally generated growth.

School Specialty's gross profit margins have improved by achieving increased buying power and by acquiring specialty companies which usually have higher gross margins than the Company's general products divisions. The Company expects gross profit margins to be further enhanced by acquiring additional specialty companies and continuing to improve its purchasing power.

School Specialty's operating margin has improved significantly over the last several years. This improvement reflects the Company's acquisition of specialty companies which have higher operating margins than the Company's general products divisions. In addition, operating margins have increased as the Company has reduced selling, general and administrative expenses of acquired companies by eliminating redundant administrative functions. Currently, nine of the ten general school supply companies acquired since May 1996 have been integrated. However, the Company believes that the full benefit of the integrations has not yet been realized as there continue to be opportunities for the Company to eliminate redundant costs.

The benefit from income taxes in Fiscal 1997 of $2.4 million reflects the reversal of a $5.3 million deferred tax valuation allowance in the fourth quarter. The Company believes the effective income tax rate of 46%, which is reflected in the pro forma financial statements for the most recent interim period, is more representative of future effective income tax rates. See "--Consolidated Historical Results of Operations".

School Specialty's business and working capital needs are highly seasonal with peak sales levels occurring from May through October. During this period, the Company receives, ships and bills the majority of its orders so that schools and teachers receive their merchandise by the start of each school year. School Specialty's inventory levels increase in April through July in anticipation of the peak selling season. The majority of cash receipts are collected from September through December.

In the past, the Company has recorded restructuring costs associated with consolidation of warehouse facilities. These costs typically include: costs to exit the facility, such as rent under remaining lease terms, occupancy, relocation costs and facility restoration; employee costs, such as severance; and asset impairment costs. The Company expects to incur such costs in the future as it continues to integrate acquired companies. Based on the additional time and resources expected to be involved in the development, review and approval of any such restructuring plans, the Company cannot presently predict the timing or overall magnitude of such a charge.

The Company anticipates recording in the fourth quarter of fiscal 1998 $2.0 to $2.5 million of one-time non-recurring costs, primarily consisting of a write-down of deferred catalog costs and employee severance and asset impairment costs and $1.0 million of the transaction costs allocated to the Company under the Distribution Agreement. In the first quarter of fiscal 1999, the Company will record a compensation charge of approximately $263,000, representing the difference between the amount which Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate will pay for the 250,000 shares of Common Stock to be purchased directly from the Company and the amount which they would have paid for such shares if they had purchased such shares from the Underwriters.

School Speciality is a Delaware corporation formed in February 1998 to hold the Educational Supplies and Products Division of U.S. Office Products, which acquired School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation ("Old School"), in May 1996 and Re-Print in July 1996. The Company's consolidated financial statements give retroactive effect to these two business combinations under the pooling-of-interests method (Old School and Re-Print are referred to as the "Pooled Companies") and include the results of companies acquired in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method from their respective dates of acquisition. Prior to their respective dates of acquisition by U.S. Office Products, the Pooled Companies reported results on years ending on December 31. Upon acquisition by U.S. Office Products and effective for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 ("fiscal 1997"), the Pooled Companies changed their year-ends from December 31 to conform to U.S. Office Products' fiscal year, which ends on the last Saturday in April.

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto and pro forma financial statements and related notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this Information Statement/Prospectus.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following table sets forth various items as a percentage of revenues on a historical basis for the years ended December 31, 1994 and 1995, fiscal 1997 and for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998, and on a pro forma basis for fiscal 1997 and for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998, reflecting the refinancing of the amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and the results of the companies acquired since May 1, 1996 in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method as if such transactions had occurred on May 1, 1996.

CONSOLIDATED HISTORICAL RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

NINE MONTHS ENDED JANUARY 24, 1998 COMPARED TO NINE MONTHS ENDED JANUARY 25, 1997

Consolidated revenues increased 54.9%, from $160.0 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997, to $247.9 million for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. This increase was primarily due to the inclusion of revenues from the seven companies acquired in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method during the nine months ended January 24, 1998 (the "Fiscal 1998 Purchased Companies") from their respective dates of acquisition and revenues from the six companies acquired during fiscal 1997 in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method ("the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies") for the entire nine month period. Revenues also increased due to sales to new accounts, increased sales to existing customers and higher pricing on certain products in response to increased product costs. Product cost is the most significant element in cost of revenues. Inbound freight, occupancy and delivery charges are also included in cost of revenues.

Gross profit increased 56.5%, from $45.6 million, or 28.5% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $71.4 million, or 28.8% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to an increase in revenues from higher margin products, primarily as a result of the purchase acquisitions of three companies selling higher margin specialty product lines during the nine months ended January 24, 1998, and as a result of improved purchasing power and rebate programs negotiated with vendors. These factors were partly offset by an increase in the cost of revenues as a result of the increased freight costs caused by the UPS strike in the summer of 1997 and an increase in the portion of revenues represented by lower margin bid revenues.

Selling, general and administrative expenses include selling expenses (the most significant component of which is sales wages and commissions), catalog costs, general administrative overhead (which includes information systems and customer service), and accounting, legal, human resources and purchasing expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 52.7%, from $33.4 million, or 20.9% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $51.0 million, or 20.6% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to efficiencies generated from the elimination of certain redundant administrative functions, including purchasing, accounting, finance and information systems, of the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies and the consolidation of two warehouses into one regional facility in the Northeastern U.S during the third quarter of fiscal 1997. School Specialty has established a 24-month integration process in which a transition team is assigned to (i) sell or discontinue incompatible business units, (ii) reduce the number of SKUs, (iii) eliminate redundant administrative functions, (iv) integrate the acquired entity's MIS system, and (v) improve buying power. However, the length of time it takes the Company to fully implement its strategy for assimilating an acquired company can vary depending on the nature of the company acquired and the season in which it is acquired.

The Company incurred non-recurring acquisition costs of $1.8 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997, in conjunction with the acquisition of the Pooled Companies. These non-recurring acquisition costs included accounting, legal, investment-banking fees, real estate and environmental assessments and appraisals and various regulatory fees. Generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") require the Company to expense all acquisition costs (both those paid by the Company and those paid by the sellers of the acquired companies) related to business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method of accounting. In accordance with GAAP, the Company will be unable to utilize the pooling-of-interests method to account for acquisitions for a period of two years following the completion of the Strategic Restructuring Plan. During this period, the Company will not reflect any non-recurring acquisition costs in its results of operations, as all costs incurred of this nature would be related to acquisitions accounted for under the purchase method and would, therefore, be capitalized as a portion of the purchase consideration. See "Risk Factors--Risks Related to Inability to Use Pooling-of-Interests Method to Account for Future Acquisitions".

Since U.S. Office Products' acquisition of its Pooled Companies, interest has been allocated to the Company based upon the Company's average outstanding payable balance with U.S. Office Products at U.S. Office Products' weighted average interest rate during such period. Interest expense, net of interest income, increased 22.5%, from $3.3 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $4.0 million for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. The increase is due primarily to higher amounts payable to U.S. Office Products incurred as a result of the acquisition of the seven companies acquired in fiscal year 1998.

Provision for income taxes increased from $3.8 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $7.1 million for the nine months ended January 24, 1998, reflecting effective income tax rates of 51.0% and 44.6%, respectively. The high effective income tax rates for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998, compared to the federal statutory rate of 35.0%, was primarily due to state income taxes and non-deductible goodwill amortization.

Consolidated revenues increased 27.4%, from $150.5 million in 1995, to $191.7 million in fiscal 1997. This increase was primarily due to the inclusion, for fiscal 1997, of revenues from the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies from their respective dates of acquisition, sales to new accounts, increased sales to existing customers and higher pricing on certain products in response to increased product costs.

Gross profit increased 23.4%, from $44.7 million, or 29.7% of revenues, in 1995 to $55.2 million, or 28.8% of revenues, in fiscal 1997. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to a shift in revenue mix, resulting from the acquisition of the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies, which traditionally had lower gross profits as a percentage of revenues. This decrease was partially offset by improved purchasing and rebate programs negotiated with vendors and the Company's ability to take advantage of term discounts due to improved cash flows.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 9.0%, from $39.9 million, or 26.5% of revenues, in 1995 to $43.5 million, or 22.7% of revenues, in fiscal 1997. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to the consolidation of two warehouses into one regional facility in the Northeastern U.S. during third quarter of fiscal 1997, the elimination of certain redundant administrative functions of a company acquired during 1995 in a business combination accounted for under the purchase method (the "1995 Purchased Company") and reduced executive compensation expense at one of the Pooled Companies after being acquired by U.S. Office Products in July 1996.

The Company has historically utilized grants of employee stock options as a method of incentivizing employees by increasing their ownership interests in the Company, which also has the effect of more closely aligning their interests with the interests of stockholders of the Company. As a result, if the Company had recorded compensation expense based upon the fair market value of the stock options on the dates of grant under the methodology prescribed by SFAS 123, the Company's income from continuing operations for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 would have been reduced by approximately $0.7 million or 7.7%.

The Company incurred non-recurring acquisition costs of $1.8 million in fiscal 1997, in conjunction with business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method. These non-recurring acquisition costs included accounting, legal, investment-banking fees, real estate and environmental assessments and appraisals and various regulatory fees.

The Company incurred restructuring costs of $2.5 million and $194,000 during 1995 and fiscal 1997, respectively. These costs represent the external costs and liabilities to close redundant Company facilities, severance costs related to the Company's employees and other costs associated with the Company's restructuring plans. The Company expects to incur similar costs in the future as the Company continues to review its operations, with the intention of continuing to eliminate redundant facilities. See "Business--Cost Reduction and Other Efficiencies".

Interest expense, net of interest income, decreased 24.2%, from $5.5 million in 1995 to $4.2 million in fiscal 1997. The decrease was due primarily to the repayment of substantially all of the Company's debt in conjunction with the acquisition of the Pooled Companies by U.S. Office Products and lower interest rates being charged on the Company's short-term and long-term debt with U.S. Office Products.

Provision for income taxes decreased from a tax expense of $173,000 in 1995 to a tax benefit of $2.4 million in fiscal 1997. The Company incurred a tax expense in 1995, notwithstanding the fact that it reported a pre-tax loss, because one of the Pooled Companies' earnings were not offset by the other Pooled Companies' loss. In 1995, the Company recorded a full valuation allowance of $5.3 million on the deferred tax asset resulting from the net operating loss carryforwards created during 1995. The valuation allowance had been established by one of the Pooled Companies prior to its acquisition by U.S. Office Products to offset the tax benefit from such loss carryforwards, because at the time it was not likely that such tax benefit would be realized. The benefit from income taxes in Fiscal 1997 of $2.4 million arose from the reversal of the $5.3 million deferred tax asset valuation allowance in the fourth quarter. The valuation allowance was reversed subsequent to the Company's being acquired by U.S. Office Products, because it was deemed "more likely than not", based on improved results, that the tax benefit from such operating loss carryforwards would be realized. The Company believes that the effective income tax rate of 46% reflected in the pro forma interim financial statements is more representative of future effective income tax rates.

Consolidated revenues increased 25.9%, from $119.5 million in 1994, to $150.5 million in 1995. This increase was primarily due to the inclusion in 1995 of the 1995 Purchased Company from its date of acquisition and revenues from one company acquired in a business combination accounted for under the purchase method of accounting during 1994 (the "1994 Purchased Company") for the entire year.

Gross profit increased 40.8%, from $31.8 million, or 26.6% of revenues, in 1994 to $44.7 million, or 29.7% of revenues, in 1995. The increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to a shift in revenue mix, primarily attributed to the acquisition of the 1995 Purchased Company, which had a higher gross profit as a percentage of revenues and a reduction in lower margin bid revenues.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 46.1%, from $27.3 million, or 22.8% of revenues, in 1994 to $39.9 million, or 26.5% of revenues, in 1995. The increase in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues was due primarily to the 1994 and 1995 Purchased Companies, which operated with higher levels of selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues.

Interest expense, net of interest income, increased 84.1%, from $3.0 million in 1994 to $5.5 million in 1995. The increase was due primarily to additional borrowings to finance the acquisition of the 1995 Purchased Company, a full year of interest expense on debt incurred to finance the acquisition of the 1994 Purchased Company and higher average borrowings on the Company's revolving credit facility resulting from financing the operations of the 1994 and 1995 Purchased Companies.

Provision for income taxes decreased from $218,000 in 1994 to $173,000 in 1995. The Company incurred a tax expense in 1995, notwithstanding the fact that it reported a pre-tax loss, because one of the Pooled Companies' earnings were not offset by the other Pooled Companies' loss. The low effective income tax rate of 14% in 1994 is due to the Company's utilization of a net operating loss carryforward the benefit of which had not been reflected as income in prior years.

CONSOLIDATED PRO FORMA RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The unaudited pro forma combined financial data does not purport to represent the results that the Company would have obtained had the transactions which are the subject of pro forma adjustments occurred May 1, 1996, as assumed, and are not necessarily representative of the Company's results of operations in any future period.

Pro forma revenues increased 9.0%, from $292.2 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997, to $318.7 million for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. This increase was primarily due to sales to new accounts, increased sales to existing customers, and higher pricing on certain products in response to increased product costs.

Gross profit increased 3.0%, from $88.5 million, or 30.3% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $91.2 million, or 28.6% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. The decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenues was primarily due to higher freight costs as a result of the UPS strike in the summer of 1997 and an increase in the portion of revenues represented by lower margin bid revenues and the discontinuation of higher margin retail operations at some of the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies.

Selling, general and administrative expenses were $65.0 million, or 22.2% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and $64.7 million, or 20.3% of revenues, for the nine months ended January 24, 1998. The decrease in selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of revenues reflects the elimination of certain redundant administrative functions, including purchasing, accounting, finance and information systems of the Fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies and the consolidation of two warehouses into one regional facility in the Northeastern U.S. during the third quarter of fiscal 1997. The Company has a 24-month integration strategy to consolidate operations of purchased businesses; however, the length of time it takes for the Company to fully implement its strategy for assimilating an acquired company can vary depending on the nature of the company acquired and the season in which it is acquired. See "Business--Company Strengths--Ability to Integrate Acquisitions." The decrease in selling, general and administrative expense as a percentage of revenues was partly offset by the inclusion of the pro forma results of Education Access, which the Company acquired out of a bankruptcy proceeding in March 1998.

Provision for income taxes increased 28.0% from $6.7 million for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 to $8.5 million for the nine months ended January 24, 1998, reflecting an effective income tax rate of 46.0% in both periods. The high effective income tax rate, compared to the federal statutory rate of 35.0%, was primarily due to state income taxes and non-deductible goodwill amortization.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Subsequent to the acquisition by U.S. Office Products of the Pooled Companies and prior to the Distribution, U.S. Office Products funded the cash portions of School Specialty's acquisitions, paid the acquisition costs, repaid outstanding debt of acquired companies, allocated a portion of U.S. Office Products' corporate expenses to School Specialty and made daily advances or sweeps of cash to keep School Specialty's cash balance at or near zero on a daily basis. The net amount of such transactions was recorded as a payable from School Specialty to U.S. Office Products. At January 24, 1998, the Company had working capital of $43.6 million. The Company's capitalization, defined as the sum of long-term debt, long-term payable to U.S. Office Products and stockholders' equity, at January 24, 1998 was $161.3 million. On a pro forma basis at January 24, 1998, the Company had working capital of $60.6 million and capitalization of $181.5 million.

During the nine months ended January 24, 1998, net cash provided by operating activities was $15.4 million. Net cash used in investing activities was $96.5 million, including $92.1 million for acquisitions and $4.1 million for additions to property and equipment. Net cash provided by financing activities was $81.1 million, including $89.2 million provided by U.S. Office Products to fund the cash portion of the purchase price and the repayment of debt assumed with the acquisition of the fiscal 1998 Purchased Companies, $69.8 million of which was considered a contribution of capital by U.S. Office Products, partially offset by $8.0 million used to repay indebtedness.

During the nine months ended January 25, 1997, net cash provided by operating activities was $4.2 million. Net cash used in investing activities was $14.7 million, including $7.6 million for acquisitions, $5.3 million for additions to property and equipment and $1.7 million to pay non-recurring acquisition costs. Net cash provided by financing activities was $11.2 million, including $55.0 million provided by U.S. Office Products to fund the cash portion of the purchase price and the repayment of debt associated with 1997 Purchased Companies acquired during the nine months ended January 25, 1997, partially offset by $46.9 million used for the repayment of indebtedness, primarily at the 1997 Purchased Companies acquired during the nine months ended January 25, 1997.

During fiscal 1997, net cash provided by operating activities was $918,000. Net cash used in investing activities was $16.7 million, including $7.7 million for acquisitions, $7.2 million for additions to property and equipment and $1.8 million to pay non-recurring acquisition costs. Net cash provided by financing activities was $15.8 million, including $59.9 million provided by U.S. Office Products to fund the cash portion of the purchase price and the repayment of debt associated with the fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies and the payment of debt of the Pooled Companies, partially offset by $46.9 million used for the net repayment of indebtedness, primarily at the fiscal 1997 Purchased Companies.

During 1995, net cash provided by operating activities was $4.8 million. Net cash used in investing activities was $6.0 million, including $5.4 million for acquisitions and $881,000 for additions to property and equipment. Net cash provided by financing activities was $1.2 million, including net proceeds from the issuance of debt of $2.4 million and $500,000 received from the issuance of common stock partially offset by payments of indebtedness of $1.5 million.

During 1994, net cash used in operating activities was $268,000. Net cash used in investing activities was $2.9 million, including $2.1 million for acquisitions and $630,000 for additions to property and equipment. Net cash provided by financing activities was $3.2 million, consisting of proceeds from the issuance of debt of $5.1 million, partially offset by payments of indebtedness of $2.0 million.

The Company's anticipated capital expenditures budget for the next twelve months is approximately $3.0 million. The largest items include operational and financial reporting software, computer hardware and warehouse equipment.

Under the Distribution Agreement, the Company is required, on or prior to the Distribution, to obtain a credit facility, to borrow funds under such facility and to use the proceeds of such borrowings to pay off $83.3 million of U.S. Office Products' debt, as described under "The Spin-Offs from U.S. Office Products--Distribution Agreement--Debt". The Company has received a commitment letter for a secured $250.0 million revolving credit facility from NationsBank, N.A. as administrative agent. NationsBanc Montgomery Securities LLC, one of the Underwriters and an affiliate of NationsBank, N.A., is the Arranger and Syndication Agent. The credit facility will terminate five years from the Distribution Date. Interest on borrowings under the credit facility will accrue interest at a rate of, at the Company's option, either LIBOR plus 1.00% or the lender's base rate, plus a margin of 0% to .25% for up to the first 6 months under the agreement. Thereafter, interest will accrue at a rate of (i) LIBOR plus a range of .625% to 1.625%, or (ii) the lender's base rate plus a range of .125% to .250% (depending on the Company's leverage ratio of funded debt to EBITDA). Indebtedness will be secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company. The credit facility will be subject to terms and conditions typical of facilities of such size and will include certain financial covenants. The Company will borrow under the credit facility to repay the U.S. Office Products' debt which it is obligated under the Distribution Agreement to repay. The balance of the credit facility will be available for working capital, capital expenditures and acquisitions, subject to the maintenance of required covenants.

School Specialty intends to use the net proceeds from the Offering and the sale of 250,000 shares of Common Stock to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate to repay a portion of the $83.3 million to be borrowed under a $250 million credit facility to refinance all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products. After such repayment, approximately $200 million will be available under the credit facility (subject to compliance with the financial covenants), which may be used for general corporate purposes, including working capital, and for acquisitions.

On March 6, 1998, School Specialty filed a Registration Statement with the Commission for the issuance of shares of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering. The Offering is expected to be for 2,125,000 shares (plus 318,750 shares subject to the underwriters' option to purchase shares to cover over-allotments). A preliminary prospectus dated May 18, 1998 estimated that the initial public offering price will be between $14.00 and $16.00 per share. School Specialty expects that the initial public offering price in the Offering will be determined after the close of markets on the date of this Information Statement/ Prospectus. There can be no assurance that the initial public offering price will be set at that time, that the price will be within the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus, or that the Offering will be completed. Information regarding the initial public offering price, and "as adjusted" pro forma financial statements based on that price, will be set forth in the final prospectus related to the Offering, which will be publicly available within two business days after the price is determined. See "Additional Information." The Company anticipates that its current cash on hand, cash flow from operations, the net proceeds from the Offering and additional financing under the bank line of credit will be sufficient to meet the Company's liquidity requirements for its operation for the next 12 months. However, the Company intends to pursue acquisitions, which are expected to be funded through cash, stock or a combination thereof. There can be no assurance that additional sources of financing will not be required during the next 12 months or thereafter.

FLUCTUATIONS IN QUARTERLY RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The Company's business is subject to seasonal influences. The Company's historical revenues and profitability have been dramatically higher in the first two quarters of its fiscal year (May-October) primarily due to increased shipments to customers coinciding with the start of each school year.

Quarterly results also may be materially affected by the timing of acquisitions, the timing and magnitude of costs related to such acquisitions, variations in the prices paid by the Company for the products it sells, the mix of products sold and general economic conditions. Moreover, the operating margins of companies acquired by the Company may differ substantially from those of the Company, which could contribute to the further fluctuation in its quarterly operating results. Therefore, results for any quarter are not indicative of the results that the Company may achieve for any subsequent fiscal quarter or for a full fiscal year.

The following table sets forth certain unaudited consolidated quarterly financial data for the year ended December 31, 1995, fiscal 1997 and the first three quarters of fiscal 1998 (in thousands). The information has been derived from unaudited consolidated financial statements that in the opinion of management reflect all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of such quarterly information. This quarterly information is not comparative because of the high degree of seasonability in School Specialty's business. Revenues and profitability are significantly higher in the months of May through October, with the most significant portion of revenue and profit occurring in the months of July through September. On a fiscal year basis (years ending in April) this six-month (May through October) period falls in the first two quarters of the fiscal year. On a calendar year basis, the most profitable three months (July through September) fall in the third quarter.

INFLATION

The Company does not believe that inflation has had a material impact on its results of operations during the years ended December 31, 1994 and 1995 or the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997.

NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

REPORTING COMPREHENSIVE INCOME. In June 1997, FASB issued SFAS No. 130,

"Reporting Comprehensive Income". SFAS No. 130 establishes standards for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components (revenues, expenses, gains, and losses) in a full set of general-purpose financial statements. SFAS No. 130 requires that all items that are required to be recognized under accounting standards as components of comprehensive income be reported in a financial statement that is displayed with the same prominence as other financial statements. SFAS No. 130 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Reclassification of financial statements for earlier periods provided for comparative purposes is required. The Company intends to adopt SFAS No. 130 in fiscal 1999.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The school supply market consists of the sale of non-textbook school supplies, furniture and equipment to school districts, individual schools, teachers and curriculum specialists who purchase products for school and classroom use. The Company believes that sales of educational supplies and equipment (which is defined as educational products sold by dealers for use by educational institutions or as a supplement to learning outside of the classroom) to the school supply market is approximately $6.1 billion, with over $3.6 billion sold to institutions and $2.5 billion sold to consumers.

According to the U.S. Department of Education, in all 50 states, there are 15,996 school districts, 108,577 public and private elementary and secondary schools, and 3.1 million teachers. School supply procurement decisions are made at the school district level by administrators and curriculum specialists, at the school level by principals and at the classroom level by teachers. Some school supplies are purchased directly from manufacturers while others are purchased through distributors. The Company believes that there are over 3,400 distributors of school supplies. The majority of these distributors are family- or employee-owned companies with revenues under $20 million that operate in a single region. In addition to School Specialty, only two other companies have a measurable presence in the market, with annual revenues in excess of $130 million. School Specialty believes the demand for timely order fulfillment at competitive prices, combined with the need to invest in automated inventory management systems and electronic ordering systems, is accelerating the trend toward consolidation in the industry.

The volume of school supplies is directly influenced by the size of the student population. According to the U.S. Department of Education, student enrollment in grades K-12 began growing in 1986, reaching an all-time peak in 1996 with 51.5 million students (1997 data not yet available). Current projections by the U.S. Department of Education indicate that student enrollment will continue to grow to 54.3 million by the year 2006. As a result of these trends, the U.S. Department of Education projects that expenditures in public elementary and secondary schools will rise through the year 2007. In current dollars, expenditures of $272.4 billion in 1997 are projected to increase to $340.7 billion by the year 2001. These projected increases in expenditures include a projected increase in total per pupil spending in current dollars from $5,961 per pupil in 1997 to $7,179 by the year 2001.

BUSINESS

School Specialty is a Delaware corporation formed in February 1998 to hold the Educational Supplies and Products Division of U.S. Office Products. School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation ("Old School") formed in October 1959, was acquired by U.S. Office Products in May 1996. U.S. Office Products' Educational Supplies and Products Division also includes Re-Print, which it acquired in July 1996, and which has been in operation since 1921. The specialty product lines, Childcraft, Sax Arts & Crafts and Gresswell, were all acquired by U.S. Office Products in 1997, and have been in operation since 1946, 1945, and 1938, respectively. School Specialty has 1,322 employees in the United States and the United Kingdom, providing service to all 50 states and the United Kingdom. School Specialty's principal offices are located at 1000 North Bluemound Drive, Appleton, Wisconsin 54914, and its telephone number is (920) 734-2756. School Specialty's world wide website is located at <http://www.schoolspecialty.com>. Information contained in this website is not deemed to be a part of this Information Statement/Prospectus.

COMPANY STRENGTHS

School Specialty attributes its strong competitive position to the following key strengths:

LEADING MARKET POSITION. The Company has developed its leading market position over its 38 year history by emphasizing high quality products, superior order fulfillment and exceptional customer service. School Specialty has developed a group of strong brand names including School Specialty, Re-Print, Childcraft, Sax Arts & Crafts and Gresswell. The Company believes its annual revenues exceed those of its next two largest competitors combined and that its large size and brand recognition have resulted in significant buying power, economies of scale and customer loyalty.

BROAD PRODUCT LINE. School Specialty's strategy is to provide a full range of high quality products to meet the complete supply needs of pre-K-12 schools and, as a result, the Company currently offers over 32,000 SKUs ranging from classroom supplies to playground equipment. The Company's specialty brands enrich its general product offering and create opportunities to cross merchandise its specialty school supplies to the customers of its general lines. Specialty brands include Childcraft, which sells materials, classroom furniture and equipment such as library shelving, cubbies, easels, desks and play vehicles to the early childhood market; Sax Arts & Crafts, which distributes art supplies such as paint, brushes, paper, ceramics, leather and wood crafts; and Gresswell, which distributes library-related products including supplies, furniture and media display and storage in the United Kingdom. School Specialty offers customers one source for virtually all of their school supply and furniture needs.

INNOVATIVE TWO-PRONGED DISTRIBUTION. School supply procurement decisions are made at the district and school levels by administrators and principals, and at the classroom level by curriculum specialists and teachers. The Company targets both of these groups, addressing administrative decision makers with a "top down" approach through its 290 person sales force and School Specialty Catalog, and targeting teachers and curriculum specialists with a "bottom up" approach primarily through the 6.3 million Re-Print general supply catalogs, and Childcraft, Sax Arts & Crafts and Gresswell specialty catalogs mailed each year. School Specialty utilizes its customer database across its family of catalogs to maximize their effectiveness and increase the Company's marketing reach.

ABILITY TO INTEGRATE ACQUISITIONS. School Specialty has successfully completed the acquisition of 20 companies since 1991, 15 of which have been acquired since May 1996. School Specialty has established a 24-month integration process in which a transition team is assigned to (i) sell or discontinue incompatible business units, (ii) reduce the number of SKUs, (iii) eliminate redundant administrative functions, (iv) integrate the acquired entity's MIS system, and (v) improve buying power. To date, the Company's integration efforts have focused on acquired general products companies. The Company intends to consolidate certain administrative functions at its specialty divisions. The Company believes that through these processes it can generate significant economies of scale and rapidly improve the margins of acquired entities, as well as increase sales by channeling acquired entities' products through its broad distribution network.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY. The Company believes that through the utilization of technology in areas such as (i) purchasing and inventory management, (ii) customer order fulfillment, and (iii) database management, School Specialty is able to turn inventory more quickly than competitors, offer customers more convenient and cost effective product ordering methods and conduct more precisely targeted sales and marketing campaigns.

COMPANY GROWTH STRATEGY

School Specialty's objective is to further enhance its position as the leading distributor of non-textbook educational supplies through the continued implementation of the following strategies:

PURSUE ACQUISITIONS AGGRESSIVELY. The Company believes that there are extensive acquisition opportunities among the over 3,400 school distributors in the U.S. The Company intends to pursue two types of acquisitions: (i) general school supply and furniture companies in geographic markets in which the Company has a limited presence, and (ii) specialty companies focusing on disciplines such as physical education, science, technology and music. School Specialty believes it can improve the margins of acquired entities through its efficient integration process to achieve economies of scale. Although the Company is the largest distributor in the industry, its share of the $6.1 billion school supply market is less than 6%, giving the Company substantial growth opportunities.

In furtherance of its acquisition strategy, School Speciality routinely reviews and conducts investigations of potential acquisitions of school supply businesses. When School Speciality believes a favorable opportunity exists, it enters into discussion with the owners of such businesses regarding the possibility of an acquisition by School Speciality. As of the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus, School Speciality is currently engaged in discussions on a number of possible acquisitions, provided, however, the Company does not have any agreements for pending acquisitions and no acquisitions are probable.

IMPROVE PROFITABILITY. School Specialty improved its operating margin from 3.7% in 1994 to 7.0% for the twelve months ended January 24, 1998. School Specialty believes that there are substantial opportunities to further improve margins by (i) increasing the efficiency of recent acquisitions, (ii) expanding purchasing power and (iii) improving warehousing and distribution.

PRODUCT LINES

SCHOOL SPECIALTY. The School Specialty Catalog offers a comprehensive selection of classroom supplies, instructional materials, educational games, art supplies, school forms (such as reports, planners and academic calendars), physical education equipment, audio-visual equipment, school furniture, and indoor and outdoor equipment and is targeted to administrative decision makers. School Specialty believes it is the largest school furniture resale source in the United States. School Specialty has been granted exclusive franchises for certain furniture lines in specific territories and School Specialty enjoys significant purchasing power in open furniture lines.

The Company's specialty brands offer product lines for specific educational disciplines.

RE-PRINT. Re-Print offers its customers substantially the same products as the School Specialty Catalog but focuses on reaching teachers and curriculum specialists directly through its mail-order catalogs.

CHILDCRAFT. Childcraft distributes early childhood education products and materials. Childcraft also distributes over 1,000 proprietary or exclusive products manufactured by its Bird-in-Hand Woodworks subsidiary, including wood classroom furniture and equipment such as library shelving, cubbies, easels, desks and play vehicles.

SAX ARTS & CRAFTS. Sax Arts & Crafts is a leading distributor of art supplies and art instruction materials, including paints, brushes, paper, ceramics, art metals and glass, leather and wood crafts. Sax Arts & Crafts offers customers a toll free "Art Savvy Hotline" staffed with 15 professional artists to respond to customer questions.

GRESSWELL. Gresswell distributes library-related products in the U.K. including furniture, and media display and storage. Gresswell's dedicated sales and design team helps customers plan, design and install library projects using Computer Assisted Design equipment.

EDUCATION ACCESS. Education Access is a catalog reseller of technology solutions for the K-12 education market. This product line offers curriculum software, productivity software, peripherals, networking products, and other related products. Education Access publishes a 110-page catalog twice a year and mails interim Technology Flash Updates to the K-12 education market in the United States.

School Specialty employs merchandising managers who continually review and update the product lines for each operating division. The merchandising managers convene customer focus groups and advisory panels to ascertain whether current offerings are well-received and to anticipate future demand. The merchandising managers also travel to product fairs and conventions seeking out new product lines. This annual review process results in an organic reshaping and expansion of the educational materials being offered by School Specialty.

OPERATIONS

SALES AND MARKETING

School Specialty believes it has developed a substantially different sales and marketing model from that of traditional school supply and school furnishings distribution companies in the United States. School Specialty's strategy is to use its position of owning two distribution platforms with which it can approach the school market. School Specialty's 290 sales representatives focus on "top down" selling (through districts, school purchasing authorities and schools), while School Specialty's Re-Print Division uses the "bottom up" approach through its direct mail catalog selling directly to teachers. To further strengthen its position in the market, School Specialty also owns premier specialty education brands (Childcraft, Sax Arts & Crafts, and Gresswell) that have the potential to enrich the general product offering through cross-merchandising.

School Specialty has a broad customer base and no single customer accounted for more than 2% of sales during fiscal 1997. Schools typically purchase school supplies and furniture based on an established relationship with relatively few suppliers. School Specialty establishes and maintains its relationship with its customers by assigning accounts within a specific geographic territory to a local area sales representative. Additionally, each account is assigned its designated inside customer service representative.

School Specialty's customer service representatives call on existing customers frequently to ascertain and fulfill their school supply needs. The representatives maintain contact with customers throughout the order cycle and assist in processing orders.

School Specialty's primary compensation program for sales representatives is based on commissions as a percentage of gross profit on sales. For new and transitioning sales representatives, School Specialty offers salary and expense reimbursement until the representative is moved to a full commission compensation structure.

School Specialty utilizes direct mail catalogs to reach its broader customer base. School Specialty distributes five major catalogs, one for each of its School Specialty general supply, Re-Print, Childcraft, Gresswell, and Sax Arts & Crafts lines. The catalog distribution calendar is generally the same across all product lines. A major catalog containing all product offerings is distributed toward the end of the calendar year so that it is available for school buyers at the beginning of the year. During the year, various catalog supplements are distributed to coincide with the peak school buying season in June through September and following the return of students to school in the fall.

The approximate number of catalogs distributed for School Specialty, Re-Print, Childcraft, Gresswell and Sax Arts & Crafts for each of the past three calendar years and projected catalog distribution for 1998 is set out below. The figures set forth below include all books of over 32 pages sent out (or, with respect to 1998, expected to be sent out) during the calendar year but do not include catalogs that were distributed by discontinued operations.

Pricing for School Specialty's general and specialty product offerings varies by product and channel of distribution. The Company generally offers a negotiated discount from catalog prices for supplies and responds to quote and bid requests for furniture and equipment. In addition, local sales representatives work with the Company's corporate sales force and school supply buyers to achieve an acceptable pricing structure based upon the mix of products being procured.

School Specialty distributes products through its distribution centers as well as placing customer orders directly with School Specialty's suppliers. Furniture is generally shipped directly from the manufacturer to the user, bypassing School Specialty's distribution centers.

PURCHASING AND INVENTORY MANAGEMENT

School Specialty manages its inventory by continually reviewing daily inventory levels compared to a running 90-day inventory for the previous year, adjusted for incoming orders. School Specialty constantly refines the focus of inventory products through its automated inventory management system to pursue the optimum level of scope and depth of product offered. Every item in each of the various distribution regions is forecasted on a daily basis to account for the anticipated demand curve, current order activity, and available stock as well as the expected lead time from the supplier. The forecast allows inventory purchases to respond quickly to the high seasonal demand while keeping off-season inventory to a minimum. The information systems for all of School Specialty's distribution centers are interconnected to allow transfer of inventory between facilities to fill regional demand. In addition, all orders can be redirected to the distribution center which is the primary stocking location for a product. School Specialty's inventory management results in inventory turnover that management believes is higher than industry turnover rates and reduces the level of discontinued, excess and obsolete inventory compared to businesses acquired by School Specialty.

School Specialty believes its large size enhances its purchasing power with suppliers and results in lower product costs than most of the Company's competitors. Further, School Specialty believes it can leverage this purchasing power to acquired companies in the future to improve the operating margins for both general supply and specialty businesses. The Company also believes its purchasing power for general supplies should result in improved margins for its specialty businesses.

Market surveys by Krebs and Company have shown that the primary determinants of customer satisfaction in the educational supply industry are the completeness and accuracy of shipments received and the timeliness of delivery. School Specialty continues to invest in sophisticated computer systems to automate the order taking, inventory allocation and management, and order shipment processes. As a result, School Specialty has been able to provide superior order fulfillment to its customers. In addition, School Specialty has developed OMS, which allows schools to customize their orders and enter them electronically with School Specialty and provides historical usage reports to schools useful for their budgeting process. During the academic year, School Specialty seeks to fill orders within twenty-four hours of receipt of the order at a 95.0% fill rate and a 99.5% order accuracy rate. During the summer months, School Specialty shifts to a production environment and schedules shipments to coincide with the start of the school year. During the summer months, School Specialty's objectives are to meet a 100% fill rate at a 99.5% order accuracy rate. In the aggregate, School Specialty's order fill rate for June, July and August 1997 exceeded 97.0%. The Company defines "fill rate" as the percentage of line items in a customer's order that are initially shipped to the customer in response to the order by the requested ship date.

During the peak shipping season between June 1 and September 30, each of School Specialty's distribution centers contracts with local common carriers to deliver its product to schools and school warehouses. Re-Print and Sax Arts & Craft rely on carriers such as Roadway Package Service, United Parcel Service and the U.S. Postal Service for distribution to customers.

INFORMATION SYSTEMS

The Company believes that through the utilization of technology in areas such as (i) purchasing and inventory management, (ii) customer order fulfillment and (iii) database management, School Specialty is able to turn inventory more quickly than competitors, offer customers more convenient and cost effective product ordering methods and conduct more precisely targeted sales and marketing campaigns. School Specialty uses two principal information systems, one for its general distribution and another for its specialty market distribution. In general school supply distribution, School Specialty utilizes a specialized distribution software package used primarily by office products and paper distributors. The software offers a fully integrated process from sales order entry through customer invoicing, and inventory requirements planning through accounts payable. School Specialty's system provides information through daily automatic posting to the general ledger and integrated inventory control. School Specialty has made numerous enhancements to this process that allow greater flexibility in addressing seasonal requirements of the industry and meeting specific customer needs.

The specialty divisions are moving towards a common mail order system provided by Smith-Gardner & Associates. The Mail-order and Catalog System ("MACS") meets the unique needs of the direct marketing approach with extensive list management and tracking of multiple marketing efforts. The system provides complete and integrated order processing, inventory control, warehouse management, and financial applications.

Although School Specialty has two principal information systems, these systems integrate general ledger, purchasing and inventory management functions. The software and hardware allow for continued incremental growth as well as the opportunity to integrate new client-server and other technologies into the information systems. Currently, all acquired School Specialty general distribution companies (except one acquired in December 1997) are on the same computer system. The specialty businesses and Re-Print operate on different systems but intend to implement the common MACS system. School Specialty intends to continue to use two principal information systems in its business.

YEAR 2000 COMPLIANCE

School Specialty's current information systems, as well as those being considered for acquisition by School Specialty's mail order and specialty distribution divisions, currently meet information standards for Year 2000 compliance. School Specialty does not expect that it will incur any material costs and expenses related to bringing its information systems to Year 2000 compliance. See "Risk Factors--Dependence on Systems".

COMPETITION

School Specialty operates in a highly competitive environment. The Company's principal competitors are other national and regional school supply distribution companies. School Specialty is also faced with increasing competition from non-traditional alternate channel competitors, such as office products contract stationers and superstores. Among traditional school supply distributors, School Specialty believes that there are only two other companies with sales in excess of $130 million: Beckley-Cardy and the J.L. Hammett Co. School Specialty believes that it competes favorably with these companies on the basis of service and price.

The market is highly competitive on a regional basis, but School Specialty believes its heaviest competition is coming from alternate channel competitors such as office product contract stationers and superstores. Their primary advantages over School Specialty are size, location, greater financial resources and buying power. Their primary disadvantage is that their product mix covers only 15% to 20% of the school's needs (measured by volume). In addition, the Company's competitors do not offer special order fulfillment software, which School Specialty believes is increasingly important to adequately service school needs. School Specialty believes it competes favorably with these companies on the basis of service and product offering.

EMPLOYEES

As of December 31, 1997, School Specialty had 1,322 full-time employees, 266 of whom were employed primarily in management and administration, 430 in regional warehouse and distribution operations, and 626 in marketing, sales, order processing, and customer service. To meet the seasonal demands of its customers, School Specialty employs many seasonal employees during the late spring and summer seasons. Historically, School Specialty has been able to meet its requirements for seasonal employment. As of January 12, 1998, approximately 27 of School Specialty's employees were members of the Teamsters Labor Union at Sax Arts & Crafts' New Berlin, Wisconsin facility. School Specialty considers its relations with its employees to be very good.

FACILITIES

School Specialty's corporate headquarters are located at 1000 North Bluemound Drive, Appleton, Wisconsin, a combined office and warehouse facility of approximately 120,000 square feet. School

OPTIONS GRANTED IN FISCAL YEAR 1998

The following table sets forth certain information regarding options to acquire U.S. Office Products Common Stock granted to the Named Officers during the year ended April 25, 1998. All options were granted by U.S. Office Products as options to acquire U.S. Office Products Common Stock and are being replaced with options to acquire School Specialty Common Stock in connection with the School Specialty Distribution. See "--Replacement of Outstanding U.S. Office Products' Options." Upon consummation of the School Specialty Distribution, the number of School Specialty Options granted to officers, directors and employees of the Company in respect of U.S. Office Products Options and their exercise price will be determined according to the formula set by U.S. Office Products.

- (1) The options granted are non-qualified stock options, which are exercisable at the market price on the date of grant, beginning one year from the date of grant in cumulative yearly amounts of 25% of the shares and expire ten years from the date of grant. The options become fully exercisable upon a change in control, as defined in the Incentive Plan.
  - (2) The exercise price of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

The number of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

$$\text{Option Shares (New)} = \text{Option Shares (Old)} \times \frac{\text{Trading Price of U.S. Office Products' Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution}}{\text{Initial Public Offering Price of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering}}$$

For all optionees, the "Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution" will be the average closing price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for the lesser of (a) ten business days preceding the Distributions, or (b) the number of business days falling between the expiration of the Tender Offer and the completion of the Distributions. If the initial public offering price cannot be determined at the time of the adjustment, the closing price on June 10, 1998 will be substituted for the initial offering price in the formula. The foregoing formula adjustments are intended to preserve for the holder of U.S. Office Products Options the intrinsic value per option, measured as the difference between the market value of one share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock at the time of the School Specialty Distribution and the exercise price of such option. The intrinsic value of the School Specialty Options will be no greater than the intrinsic value of the U.S. Office Products Options before the Distributions, and the ratio of exercise price to market price will be not less than the ratio before the Distributions.

- (3) Total options granted refers to options to acquire U.S. Office Products Common Stock given to all employees of the Educational Supplies and Products Division of U.S. Office Products during fiscal 1998.
- (4) The dollar amounts under these columns are the results of calculations at assumed annual rates of stock appreciation of 5% and 10%. These assumed rates of growth were selected by the SEC for illustration purposes only. They are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of stock prices. No gain to the optionees is possible without an increase in stock prices, which will benefit all stockholders.

AGGREGATED OPTION EXERCISES IN FISCAL YEAR ENDED APRIL 25, 1998 AND FISCAL YEAR END 1998 OPTION VALUES.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding unexercised options held by the Named Officers at April 25, 1998. All options were granted by U.S. Office Products as options to acquire U.S. Office Products Common Stock and are being replaced with options to acquire shares of School Specialty

Common Stock in connection with the Distribution. See "--Replacement of Outstanding U.S. Office Products Options." Upon consummation of the School Specialty Distribution, the number of School Specialty Options granted to officers, directors and employees of the Company in respect of U.S. Office Products Options and their exercise prices will be determined according to the formula set by U.S. Office Products.

Initial Public Offering Price of School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering

For all optionees, the "Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution" will be the average closing price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for the lesser of (a) ten business days preceding the Distributions, or (b) the number of the business days falling between the expiration of the Tender Offer and the completion of the Distributions. If the initial public offering price cannot be determined at the time of the adjustment, the closing price on June 10, 1998 will be substituted for the initial public offering price in the formula. The exercise price and number of options will be adjusted solely for the Distributions and not for other events such as the Tender Offer. The foregoing formula adjustments are intended to preserve for the holder of U.S. Office Products Options the intrinsic value per option, measured as the difference between the market value of one share of U.S. Office Products Common Stock at the time of the School Specialty Distribution and the exercise price of such option. The intrinsic value of the adjusted options will be no greater than the intrinsic value of the options before the Distributions and the ratio of exercise price to market price will be not less than the ratio before the Distributions.

(2) The value of exercised options represents the difference between the exercise price of such options and the closing market price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock on the date of exercise.

- (3) Options are "in-the-money" if the closing market price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock exceeds the exercise price of the options.
- (4) The value of unexercised options represents the difference between the exercise price of such options and $16.875, the closing market price of U.S. Office Products' Common Stock at April 24, 1998.

REPLACEMENT OF OUTSTANDING U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS' OPTIONS

All or substantially all vested and unvested options ("U.S. Office Products Options") to acquire U.S. Office Products' Common Stock that are held by School Specialty employees on the Distribution Date are being replaced with School Specialty Options. As of the Distribution Date, 375,895 U.S. Office Products Options were held by employees of School Specialty (assuming all option holders tendered all of the shares underlying their options in the Tender Offer). The exercise price and number of School Specialty Options that will be outstanding after the Distributions will depend on the trading prices of U.S. Office Products' common stock around the time of the Distributions and the public offering price of the Company Common Stock in the Offering. For those reasons, the number of School Specialty Options into which the U.S. Office Products Options will convert is not yet determinable. The following formulas will be used to adjust the number and exercise price of U.S. Office Products Options. Such formulas will adjust solely for the Distributions and not for other events such as the Tender Offer. The formulas will not affect when the options vest or when employees can exercise the options.

The exercise price of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formulas:

Trading Price of U.S. Office
Products' Common Stock Pre-School

The number of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

School Specialty Common Stock in the Offering

For all optionees, the "Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution" will be the average closing price of U.S. Office Products' common stock for the lesser of (a) ten business days preceding the Distributions, or (b) the business days falling between the expiration of the Tender Offer and the completion of the Distributions. If the initial public offering price cannot be determined at the time of the adjustment, the closing price on June 10, 1998 will be substituted for the initial public offering price in the formula. The foregoing formula adjustments are intended to preserve for the holder of U.S. Office Products Options the intrinsic value per option, measured as the difference between the market value of one share of U.S. Office

Products Common Stock at the time of the School Special Distribution and the exercise price of such option. The intrinsic value of the adjusted options will be no greater than the intrinsic value of the options immediately before the Distribution and the ratio of exercise price to market price will be not less than the ratio immediately before the Distributions.

1998 STOCK INCENTIVE PLAN

The Company has adopted the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The purpose of the Plan is to promote the long-term growth and profitability of the Company by providing employees with incentives to improve stockholder value and contribute to the growth and financial success of the Company, and by enabling the Company to attract, retain and reward highly motivated and qualified employees. The maximum percentage of shares of Company Common Stock that may be issued with respect to awards granted under the Plan is 20% of the outstanding Common Stock of the Company determined immediately after the grant of the award. The maximum number of shares that may be issued with respect to awards granted under the Plan to an individual in a calendar year may not exceed 1.2 million shares. The Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors. All employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, as well as non-employee directors of the Company, are eligible to receive awards under the Plan. The Plan authorizes the Compensation Committee to make awards of stock options, restricted stock, and other stock-based awards. The Compensation Committee will determine the prices (which may not be less than the fair market value on the date of award), vesting schedules, expiration dates and other material conditions under which such awards may be exercised.

Mr. Ledecy is receiving a stock option for Company Common Stock from School Specialty as of June 10, 1998, pursuant to the Plan, as of the Distribution Date. The option is intended to compensate Mr. Ledecy for his services to School Specialty as an employee. The option covers 7.5% of the outstanding Company Common Stock determined as of the Distribution Date, without regard to the Offering. The option will have a per share exercise price equal to the initial public offering price of the Company Common Stock. If the Offering does not occur, the exercise price of Mr. Ledecy's option will be equal to the closing sale price of the Company Common Stock on NASDAQ on June 10, 1998 (the date of grant). The estimated value of this option depends upon its exercise price. Based on an assumed initial public offering price of $15 (which is equal to the mid-point of the price range set forth in the preliminary prospectus for the Offering) at an assumed trading volatility of 35.0%, the estimated value of the option is approximately $2.5 million, net of taxes at an assumed 40% rate. Mr. Ledecy's option fully vests when granted but will not be exercisable until the 12-month anniversary of the Distribution Date. Mr. Ledecy's option from the Company will be exercisable immediately if Mr. Ledecy dies before the option expires or, if and to the extent that, School Specialty accelerates the exercise schedule of options for substantially all management options. All unexercised portions of the option will expire ten years after its date of grant or, if applicable, as of the date Mr. Ledecy violates his non-competition agreement with School Specialty.

As of June 10, 1998 Daniel P. Spalding will receive an option (the "Spalding Option") pursuant to the Plan for 1.9% of the outstanding Common Stock as of the Distribution Date. The Spalding Option will have the same terms as Mr. Ledecy's option, including an exercise price equal to the initial public offering price of the Common Stock. The estimated value of this option depends upon the initial public offering price of the School Specialty Common Stock. Based on an assumed initial public offering price of $15 (which is equal to the mid-point of the price range set forth in the preliminary prospectus for the Offering) at an assumed trading volatility of 35.0%, the estimated value of the option is approximately $0.6 million, net of taxes at an assumed 40% rate. In addition, management recommended option grants to certain executive officers of the Company for approximately 5.6% of the Common Stock following the School Specialty Distribution, also at an exercise price equal to the initial public offering price.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

School Specialty expects to grant non-employee directors 15,000 options to purchase School Specialty Common Stock upon their initial election as members of the Board of Directors and thereafter, options to acquire 5,000 shares for each additional year of service. Non-employee directors will be paid an annual retainer of $20,000 and $1,000 for each additional special meeting attended and will also be reimbursed for all out-of-pocket expenses related to their service as directors.

Jonathan J. Ledecy entered into a services agreement with U.S. Office Products on January 13, 1998 which agreement has been amended and restated as of June 8, 1998 (the "Ledecy Services Agreement") effective on the Distribution Date and contingent on the consummation of the Distributions. The Ledecy Services Agreement will expire on September 30, 1998 if none of the Distributions has occurred by that date. If the Ledecy Services Agreement becomes effective, it will replace his employment agreement with U.S. Office Products, as amended November 4, 1997. The principal terms of this agreement, as amended, are summarized herein.

The Ledecy Services Agreement governs Mr. Ledecy's continuing obligations to U.S. Office Products. Under the Ledecy Services Agreement, Mr. Ledecy will report to the U.S. Office Products' Board and will provide high-level acquisition negotiation services and strategic business advice. Under the agreement, Mr. Ledecy will remain an employee of U.S. Office Products, at an annual salary of $48,000 through June 30, 2001. As a continuing employee of U.S. Office Products, Mr. Ledecy will also retain his existing U.S. Office Products' Options despite his reduction in services to U.S. Office Products. U.S. Office Products can terminate Mr. Ledecy's employment only for "cause" where cause consists of (i) his conviction of or guilty or nolo contendere plea to a felony demonstrably and materially injurious to U.S. Office Products or (ii) his violation of the noncompetition provision as it relates to U.S. Office Products. If Mr. Ledecy resigns or is terminated, he will cease to vest in his U.S. Office Products Options and will have 90 days to exercise any vested options.

The Company is entering into an employment agreement with Mr. Ledecy, effective as of June 10, 1998 that implements its assigned portion of the Ledecy Services Agreement. Under the employment agreement, Mr. Ledecy will report to the Board of Directors and senior management of the Company. In such capacity, Mr. Ledecy will provide high-level acquisition negotiation services and strategic business advice. The Company can require Mr. Ledecy's performance of such services, consistent with his other contractual obligations to Consolidation Capital Corporation, U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies. As an employee, Mr. Ledecy will also be subject to the generally applicable personnel policies of the Company and will be eligible for such benefit plans in accordance with their terms. The Company will pay Mr. Ledecy an annual salary of $48,000, for up to two years. The Company may terminate Mr. Ledecy's employment with "cause" (as defined as in the Ledecy Services Agreement).

The Ledecy Services Agreement provides for non-competition and non-solicitation restrictions that continue until the end of a specified restricted period, which, for School Specialty, means the later of June 10, 2000 or one year after Mr. Ledecy leaves School Specialty's employ. These provisions generally restrict Mr. Ledecy from, among other things, investing in or working for or on behalf of any business selling any products or services in direct competition with U.S. Office Products or the Spin-Off Companies (collectively, the "U.S. Office Products Companies"), within 100 miles of any location where the relevant U.S. Office Products Company regularly maintains an office with employees. (For this purpose, "products or services" are those that U.S. Office Products offered on January 13, 1998.) Notwithstanding this prohibition, Mr. Ledecy may serve in a policy making role (but not engage in direct personal competition) with respect to the following businesses: (i) certain businesses acquired by Consolidation Capital Corporation that are potentially competitive with Aztec Technology Partners, Inc. if those businesses (A) relate to computer installation and servicing, (B) information technology, or (C) telecommunications, and if, when acquired, the businesses met certain revenue limits and had their principal place of business in the same metropolitan area as that of the acquiring electrical contracting and services business; (ii) businesses selling, supplying, or distributing janitorial or sanitary products or services; (iii) businesses managing or servicing office equipment (other than computers); (iv) businesses providing internet access services; (v) UniCapital Corporation's current businesses (which include equipment leasing); or (vi) U.S. Marketing Services' shelf stocking and merchandising and point-of-purchase display creation businesses. The Ledecy Services Agreement prohibits Mr. Ledecy from trying to hire away managerial employees of the U.S. Office Products Companies or from calling upon customers of the U.S. Office Products Companies to solicit or sell products or services in direct competition with the U.S. Office Products Companies. Mr. Ledecy also may not hire away for Consolidation Capital Corporation any person then or in the preceding one year employed by the U.S. Office Products Companies. U.S. Office Products will assign to the Company the ability to enforce the non-competition provisions described above as to its own business without regard to the offering, which will then constitute part of Mr. Ledecy's employment agreement with the Company.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS AND RELATED MATTERS

School Specialty has entered into employment agreements with the following three of its Named Officers that will continue after the School Specialty Distribution: Daniel P. Spalding (Chairman and Chief Executive Officer), Donald Ray Pate, Jr. (Executive Vice President and President of Re-Print), and Richard H. Nagel (Executive Vice President and President of Sax Arts & Crafts). After the School Specialty Distribution, the Company intends to enter into an employment agreement with David J. Vander Zanden who became President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company in March 1998.

Daniel P. Spalding, Chief Executive Officer of School Specialty, entered into an employment contract with Old School on April 29, 1996. The contract has an initial term of four years but, unless terminated, is automatically extended at the end of each of the last three years of the initial term for another year. Mr. Spalding receives a base salary of at least $180,000 and participates in an incentive bonus plan which provides for an annual bonus up to 100% of base salary upon the attainment of profit and revenue objectives. Following the termination of his employment for any reason, Mr. Spalding has agreed not to compete with School Specialty for a period equal to the longer of two years or, in the case of early termination, the years remaining on his contract. If Mr. Spalding is terminated without cause, as defined in the contract, he is entitled to his entire base salary for the years remaining on the contract. In addition, Mr. Spalding may terminate his contract for good cause (e.g., a material adverse change in his position or responsibilities or any material breach on the part of School Specialty) or within five days of a change in control of School Specialty. The contract defines a change of control to mean: (i) the acquisition of beneficial ownership of 50% or more of voting securities of School Specialty by any person other than U.S. Office Products; (ii) a loss of majority status by the combination of members of U.S. Office Products' Board at the time of its initial public offering and any Board members installed by a two-thirds vote of the then-present initial Directors or any Directors subsequently installed by them; (iii) any reorganization of U.S. Office Products unless 75% of the beneficial ownership of U.S. Office Products voting securities remains in the same hands; or (iv) U.S. Office Products or more than 49% of its assets are liquidated. Following the completion of the Offering, the Company expects to enter into an amendment to Mr. Spalding's agreement in respect of the change of control provisions to reflect the Company's public status.

Donald Ray Pate, Jr., serves as President of Re-Print and entered into an employment contract with Re-Print on July 26, 1996 to serve as its President. The contract runs for four years but provides for two automatic one-year extensions unless Re-Print gives 60 days written notice of its intent not to renew. Mr. Pate's annual base salary is $125,000, and he participates in an executive compensation program developed by U.S. Office Products. Following the termination of his employment for any reason, Mr. Pate has agreed not to compete with Re-Print for the longer of two years or until the end of the contractual term. If Mr. Pate is terminated without cause, he is entitled to receive his base salary for three months or until the end of the initial contractual term, whichever period is greater.

Richard H. Nagel, President of Sax Arts & Crafts, entered into a four-year employment contract with Sax Arts & Crafts on June 27, 1997 to serve as its President. Mr. Nagel's annual base salary is at least $125,000, and he participates in School Specialty's management bonus program. Following the termination of his employment for any reason, Mr. Nagel has agreed not to compete with Sax Arts & Crafts for one year. If Mr. Nagel is terminated without cause, he is entitled to receive his base salary for one year or until the end of the contractual term, whichever period is lesser.

David J. Vander Zanden became President and Chief Operating Officer in March 1998. After the School Specialty Distribution, School Specialty expects to enter into an employment contract with Mr. Vander Zanden with an initial term of two years, with automatic two-year extensions unless School Specialty or Mr. Vander Zanden gives 90 days written notice of either party's intent not to renew. School Specialty expects that Mr. Vander Zanden's employment contract will provide for a base salary of $225,000 and participation in an incentive bonus plan based upon the attainment of profit and revenue objectives. School Specialty also expects that Mr. Vander Zanden's employment contract will contain a covenant not to compete upon termination of the agreement, and provide Mr. Vander Zanden the right to terminate the agreement upon a change of control in School Specialty, with change of control to be defined in the agreement. School Specialty also expects to grant options to Mr. Vander Zanden on or shortly after the Distribution.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The School Specialty Board will create a Compensation Committee prior to the Offering. The Compensation Committee will be charged with determining the compensation of all executive officers. Until the Compensation Committee of the School Specialty Board is created, decisions regarding compensation of the executive officers will be made by the School Specialty Board. No member of the School Specialty Board has ever been an officer of School Specialty or any of its subsidiaries, except that Mr. Spalding is the Chief Executive Officer of School Specialty and Mr. Vander Zanden is the President and Chief Operating Officer of School Specialty. In addition, Mr. Leducky was the Chief Executive Officer of U.S. Office Products until November 5, 1997 and will be the Chairman of U.S. Office Products until the Distribution Date.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS

On April 29, 1996, U.S. Office Products acquired Old School in a business combination accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method in which 2,307,693 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock were issued as consideration. Current officers of School Specialty who received shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock in the transaction include Daniel P. Spalding (309,766 shares, and an additional 30,018 through an IRA for his benefit), Michael J. Killoren (27,018 shares), and Donald J. Noskowiak (27,018 shares). In addition, John S. Spalding (Daniel P. Spalding's father) received 661 shares and an additional 60,034 through an IRA for his benefit, the Patricia M. Spalding Revocable Trust received 70,923 shares, Joanne Lee Killoren received 60,304 shares, Donald Killoren (Michael J. Killoren's father) received 60,778 shares and Leo C. McKenna received 278,005 shares. The other parties to the foregoing transactions had no relationship to the Company or U.S. Office Products Company at the time such transactions were entered into, and accordingly, the Company believes that these transactions are as favorable as could be negotiated with third parties.

U.S. Office Products acquired Re-Print on July 26, 1996 in a business combination accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method in which it issued 1,950,000 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock as consideration. In that transaction, Donald Ray Pate, Jr., President of Re-Print, received 1,076,028 shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for his interest in Re-Print. Other shareholders related to Mr. Pate who received shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock in the merger were Celita Pate Carmichael (30,240 shares), Phillip S. Pate (85,351 shares), Richard K. Pate (73,921 shares), and Mary K. Pate (116,505 shares). The other parties to the foregoing transactions had no relationship to the Company or U.S. Office Products Company at the time such transactions were entered into, and accordingly, the Company believes that these transactions are as favorable as could be negotiated with third parties.

On March 20, 1998, School Specialty acquired substantially all of the assets of the catalog division of Education Access, Inc., a debtor in possession under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. In this transaction, the secured creditors of Education Access received all of the consideration paid by School Specialty. Lillian R. Kellogg, President of School Specialty's Education Access Division, owns approximately 40% of the capital stock of Education Access. This transaction was the subject of arm's length negotiation between School Specialty and the secured creditors of Education Access, Inc.

School Specialty's main office and warehouse facility, a 120,000 square foot building located in Appleton, Wisconsin, is leased from Bluemound Corporation. John S. Spalding, a former member of the Board of Old School and the father of Daniel P. Spalding, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of School Specialty, holds a one-third stake in Bluemound. Donald Killoren, father of Michael J. Killoren, an officer of School Specialty, also holds a one-third stake in Bluemound. The lease provides for annual payments of $196,000 through December 31, 2001. The Company believes that the terms of this transaction are as favorable as could be negotiated with third parties.

For a discussion of matters related to the spin-off of the Company from U.S. Office Products, see "The School Specialty Distribution".

For a discussion of transactions between the Company and Mr. Ledecy, see "Management of School Specialty--Director Compensation and Other Arrangements".

PRINCIPAL STOCKHOLDERS OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY

The following table sets forth the number and percentage of School Specialty Common Stock beneficially owned by the following persons, after giving effect to the School Specialty Distribution, the Offering and the sale of 250,000 shares of School Specialty Common Stock to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate, based on their beneficial ownership of U.S. Office Products common stock on May 15, 1998 (assuming that each person (other than Mr. Pate) tendered his pro rata share of the 37,037,037 shares of U.S. Office Products common stock tendered for as part of its Strategic Restructuring Plan and that the Underwriters' overallotment option is not exercised): (i) all persons known by School Specialty to own beneficially more than 5% of U.S. Office Products Common Stock, (ii) each director and each Named Officer who is a stockholder, and (iii) all directors and executive officers as a group. All persons listed below have sole voting and investment power with respect to their shares, unless otherwise indicated. Except as otherwise indicated, the business address of each of the following is 1000 North Bluemound Drive, Appleton, Wisconsin 54914.

- (1) Does not include shares underlying U.S. Office Products Options which are exercisable within 60 days following the School Specialty Distribution. The number of such shares will be adjusted as described under "Management of School Specialty--Replacement of U.S. Office Products Options."
- (2) Does not include shares underlying Mr. Ledecy's options described under "Management of School Specialty--1998 Stock Incentive Plan" none of which are exercisable within the next twelve months.
- (3) Mr. Pate has entered into hedging arrangements that place a ceiling and a floor on the price of his shares of U.S. Office Products Common Stock.
- (4) Based upon a Schedule 13G filed for U.S Office Products with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

- (5) In respect of U.S. Office Products Options, the option exercise price will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

The number of U.S. Office Products Options will be adjusted by applying the following formula:

For all optionees, the "Trading Price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock Pre-School Specialty Distribution" will be the average closing price of U.S. Office Products Common Stock for the lesser of (a) ten business days preceding the Distributions, or (b) the number of business days falling between the expiration of the Tender Offer and the completion of the Distributions. If the initial public offering price cannot be determined at the time of the adjustment, the closing price on June 10, 1998 will be substituted for the initial public offering price in the formula. The exercise price and number of options will be adjusted solely for the Distributions and not for other events such as the Tender Offer. The foregoing formula adjustments are intended to preserve for the holder of U.S. Office Products Options the intrinsic value per option, measured as the difference between the market value of one share of U.S. Office Products common stock and the exercise price of such option. The intrinsic value of the School Specialty Options will be no greater than the intrinsic value of the U.S. Office Products Options before the Distributions, and the ratio of exercise price to market price will be not less than the ratio before the Distributions.

DESCRIPTION OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY CAPITAL STOCK

GENERAL

Set forth below is a summary of the terms of School Specialty's Capital Stock. At the time of the Distribution and the Offering, School Specialty's authorized capital stock will consist of 150,000,000 shares of School Specialty Common Stock, par value $.001 per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $.001 per share (the "Preferred Stock"). Immediately following the Distribution and the Offering, School Specialty is expected to have outstanding approximately 14,562,723 shares of School Specialty Common Stock and no shares of Preferred Stock.

COMMON STOCK

The holders of School Specialty Common Stock are entitled to one vote for each share on all matters voted upon by stockholders, including the election of directors.

Subject to the rights of any then outstanding shares of Preferred Stock, the holders of School Specialty Common Stock are entitled to such dividends as may be declared in the discretion of the Board of Directors out of funds legally available therefor. See "Dividend Policy." The holders of School Specialty Common Stock are entitled to share ratably in the net assets of School Specialty upon liquidation after payment or provision for all liabilities and any preferential liquidation rights of any Preferred Stock then outstanding. The holders of School Specialty Common Stock have no preemptive rights to purchase shares of stock of School Specialty. Shares of School Specialty Common Stock are not subject to any redemption provisions and are not convertible into any other securities of School Specialty. All of the shares of School Specialty Common Stock to be distributed pursuant to the Distribution will be fully paid and nonassessable.

PREFERRED STOCK

The Preferred Stock may be issued from time to time by the School Specialty Board of Directors as shares of one or more classes or series. Subject to the provisions of School Specialty's Certificate of Incorporation and limitations prescribed by law, the School Specialty Board of Directors is expressly authorized to adopt resolutions to issue the shares, to fix the number of shares and to change the number of shares constituting any series, and to provide for or change the voting powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, including dividend rights (including whether dividends are cumulative), dividend rates, terms of redemption (including sinking fund provisions), redemption prices, conversion rights and liquidation preferences of the shares constituting any class or series of the Preferred Stock, in each case without any further action or vote by the stockholders. School Specialty has no current plans to issue any shares of Preferred Stock of any class or series.

One of the effects of undesignated Preferred Stock may be to enable the School Specialty Board of Directors to render more difficult or to discourage an attempt to obtain control of School Specialty by means of a tender offer, proxy contest, merger or otherwise, and thereby to protect the continuity of School Specialty's management. The issuance of shares of the Preferred Stock pursuant to the School Specialty Board of Directors' authority described above may adversely affect the rights of the holders of School Specialty Common Stock. For example, Preferred Stock issued by School Specialty may rank prior to School Specialty Common Stock as to dividend rights, liquidation preference or both, may have full or limited voting rights and may be convertible into shares of School Specialty Common Stock. Accordingly, the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock may discourage bids for School Specialty Common Stock or may otherwise adversely affect the market price of School Specialty Common Stock.

STATUTORY BUSINESS COMBINATION PROVISION

School Specialty is subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law ("Section 203"). Section 203 provides, with certain exceptions, that a Delaware corporation may not engage in any of a broad range of business combinations with a person or an affiliate, or associate of such person, who is an "interested stockholder" for a period of three years from the date that such person became an interested stockholder unless: (i) the transaction resulting in a person becoming an interested stockholder, or the business combination, is approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the person becomes an interested stockholder; (ii) the interested stockholder acquired 85% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation in the same transaction that makes such person an interested stockholder (excluding shares owned by persons who are both officers and directors of the corporation, and shares held by certain employee stock ownership plans); or (iii) on or after the date the person becomes an interested stockholder, the business combination is approved by the corporation's board of directors and by the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the corporation's outstanding voting stock at an annual or special meeting, excluding shares owned by the interested stockholder. Under Section 203, an "interested stockholder" is defined as any person who is: (i) the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation; or (ii) an affiliate or associate of the corporation if such affiliate or associate was the owner of 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether such person is an interested stockholder.

A corporation may, at its option, exclude itself from the coverage of Section 203 by amending its certificate of incorporation or bylaws, by action of its stockholders, to exempt itself from coverage, provided that such bylaws or certificate of incorporation amendment shall not become effective until 12 months after the date it is adopted. School Specialty has not adopted such an amendment to its Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws. Under the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors is required to approve an interested stockholder transaction except for certain statutory business combinations governed by Section 203, which require the affirmative vote of 66 2/3% of the directors to approve such transactions.

PROVISIONS OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY'S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS AFFECTING CHANGE OF CONTROL

The Board of Directors of School Specialty has adopted certain amendments to the Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws that may provide the School Specialty Board with more negotiating leverage by delaying or making more difficult unsolicited acquisitions or changes of control of School Specialty. It is believed that such provisions will enable School Specialty to develop its business in a manner that will foster its long-term growth without disruption caused by the threat of a takeover not deemed by the School Specialty Board to be in the best interests of School Specialty and its stockholders. Such provisions could have the effect of discouraging third parties from making proposals involving an unsolicited acquisition or change of control of School Specialty, although such proposals, if made, might be considered desirable by a majority of School Specialty's stockholders. Such provisions may also have the effect of making it more difficult for third parties to cause the replacement of the management of School Specialty without concurrence of the School Specialty Board. These provisions include: (i) the availability of capital stock for issuance from time to time at the discretion of the School Specialty Board (see "--Preferred Stock" above); (ii) the classification of the School Specialty Board into three classes, each of which serves for a term of three years; (iii) limitation on stockholders calling a special meeting of stockholders; (iv) prohibition on stockholders acting by written consent in lieu of a meeting; (v) requirements for advance notice for raising business or making nominations at stockholders' meetings; and (vi) the requirement of a supermajority vote to amend School Specialty's Bylaws.

CLASSIFIED BOARD

School Specialty's Certificate of Incorporation includes provisions dividing the School Specialty Board's membership into three classes, each of which serves until the third succeeding annual meeting with one class being elected at each annual meeting of stockholders. Under Delaware law, each class will be as nearly equal in number as possible. As a result, at least two annual meetings of stockholders may be required for School Specialty's stockholders to change a majority of the members of the School Specialty Board. School Specialty believes that a classified board of directors will assure continuity and stability of School Specialty's management and policies, without diminishing accountability to stockholders. School Specialty's classified Board will ensure that a majority of directors at any given time will have experience in the business and competitive affairs of School Specialty.

NO STOCKHOLDER ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT; SPECIAL MEETINGS

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that stockholder action can be taken only at an annual or special meeting and cannot be taken by written consent in lieu of a meeting. The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws also provide that special meetings of the stockholders can be called only by the Chairman of the Board, or by holders of at least 33 1/3% of the outstanding shares of School Specialty stock entitled to vote generally for the election of directors.

ADVANCE NOTICE FOR RAISING BUSINESS OR MAKING NOMINATIONS AT MEETINGS

The Bylaws establish an advance notice procedure for stockholder proposals to be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders and for nominations by stockholders of candidates for election as directors at an annual or special meeting at which directors are to be elected. Only such business may be conducted at an annual meeting of stockholders as has been brought before the meeting by, or at the direction of, the School Specialty Board, or by a stockholder who has given to the Secretary of School Specialty timely written notice, in proper form, of the stockholder's intention to bring that business before the meeting. The chairman of such meeting has the authority to make the determination of whether business has been properly brought before such meeting. Only persons who are nominated by, or at the direction of, the School Specialty Board, or who are nominated by a stockholder who has given timely written notice, in proper form, to the Secretary prior to a meeting at which directors are to be elected will be eligible for election as directors of School Specialty. These provisions are intended to establish orderly procedures for the conduct of School Specialty's business and to allow the Board of Directors adequate time to evaluate and respond to stockholder initiatives. They may have the effect of impeding the ability of a stockholder to present proposals or make limitations in a change of control context if the requisite notice provision cannot be satisfied.

AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

The Certificate of Incorporation requires a vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding School Specialty common Stock for the stockholders to amend the Bylaws. This super-majority requirement could make it more difficult for stockholders to compel Board action by the School Specialty Board by amending the Bylaws to require actions not presently permitted by the Bylaws.

RIGHTS PLAN

After the offering, School Specialty intends to consider adoption of a shareholder rights plan or "poison pill." As with the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaw provisions discussed above, if such a plan is adopted, it could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of School Specialty. However, such a plan might also provide the School Specialty Board with more negotiating leverage by delaying or making more difficult unsolicited acquisition of changes of control of School Specialty.

LIMITATION ON DIRECTORS' LIABILITIES

Pursuant to School Specialty's Certificate of Incorporation and under Delaware law, directors of School Specialty are not liable to School Specialty or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty, except for liability in connection with a breach of duty of loyalty, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, for dividend payments or stock repurchases illegal under Delaware law or any transaction in which a director has derived an improper personal benefit. The Company's By-laws provide that the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law, indemnify its officers and directors against any damages arising out of their actions as officers or directors of the Company.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The Transfer Agent and Registrar for the School Specialty Common Stock will be American Stock Transfer & Trust Company.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheet and the related consolidated statements of operations, of stockholder's equity and of cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of School Specialty, Inc. (the "Company") and its subsidiaries at April 30, 1996 and April 26, 1997, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the four months ended April 30, 1996 and the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for the opinion expressed above.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

BOARD OF DIRECTORS
SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of operations consolidated statement of stockholder's (deficit) equity and cash flows of School Specialty, Inc. (the Company) for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1994. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We did not audit the financial statements of Re-Print Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary, which statements reflect total revenues of $30,798,000 and $24,140,000 for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1994, respectively. Those statements were audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us, and our opinion, insofar as it relates to data included for Re-Print Corporation, is based solely on the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the results of the Company's operations and its cash flows for the years December 31, 1995 and 1994, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

Board of Directors
The Re-Print Corporation
Birmingham, Alabama

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of The Re-Print Corporation as of December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the related statements of income, stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended (not presented separately herein). These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Re-Print Corporation at December 31, 1995 and 1994, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(DOLLARS IN THOUSANDS)

NOTE 1--BACKGROUND

School Specialty, Inc. (the "Company") is a Delaware corporation which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Office Products Company ("U.S. Office Products"). On January 13, 1998, U.S. Office Products announced its intention to spin-off its Educational Supplies and Products Division (the "Education Division") as an independent publicly owned company. This transaction is expected to be effected through the distribution of shares of the Company to U.S. Office Products' shareholders effective on or about June 9, 1998 (the "Distribution"). Prior to the Distribution, U.S. Office Products plans to contribute its equity interests in certain wholly-owned subsidiaries associated with the Education Division to the Company. U.S. Office Products and the Company will enter into a number of agreements to facilitate the Distribution and the transition of the Company to an independent business enterprise. Additionally, concurrently with the Distribution, the Company anticipates selling 2.1 million shares (2.4 million shares if the over-allotment is sold) in an initial public offering ("IPO").

The Education Division was created by U.S. Office Products in May 1996 in connection with the acquisition of School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation ("Old School"). This business combination and the acquisition in July 1996 of The Re-Print Corp. ("Re-Print") were accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method (Old School and Re-Print are herein referred to as the "Pooled Companies"). As a result of these business combinations being accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method, the results of the Company prior to the completion of such business combinations represent the combined results of the Pooled Companies operating as separate autonomous entities.

NOTE 2--BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated financial statements reflect the assets, liabilities, divisional equity, revenues and expenses that were directly related to the Company as it was operated within U.S. Office Products. In cases involving assets and liabilities not specifically identifiable to any particular business of U.S. Office Products, only those assets and liabilities expected to be transferred to the Company prior to the Distribution were included in the Company's separate consolidated balance sheet. The Company's statement of income includes all of the related costs of doing business, including an allocation of certain general corporate expenses of U.S. Office Products which were not directly related to these businesses including certain corporate executives' salaries, accounting and legal fees, departmental costs for accounting, finance, legal, purchasing, marketing, human resources as well as other general overhead costs. These allocations were based on a variety of factors, dependent upon the nature of the costs being allocated, including revenues, number and size of acquisitions and number of employees. Management believes these allocations were made on a reasonable basis.

U.S. Office Products uses a centralized approach to cash management and the financing of its operations. As a result, minimal amounts of cash and cash equivalents and an agreed upon amount of debt will be allocated to the Company at the time of the Distribution. The consolidated statement of income does not include an allocation of interest expense on all debt allocated to the Company. See Note 9 for further discussion of interest expense.

NOTE 3--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

CHANGE IN FISCAL YEAR

Prior to their respective dates of acquisition by U.S. Office Products, the Pooled Companies reported results on years ending on December 31. Upon acquisition by U.S. Office Products and effective for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 ("fiscal 1997"), the Pooled Companies changed their year-ends from December 31 to conform to U.S. Office Products' fiscal year, which ends on the last Saturday in April. A four-month fiscal transition period from January 1, 1996 through April 30, 1996 has been presented for the Company to conform its fiscal year-end.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and accounts are eliminated in consolidation.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers temporary cash investments with original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of trade accounts receivable. Receivables arising from sales to customers are not collateralized and, as a result, management continually monitors the financial condition of its customers to reduce the risk of loss.

INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market with cost determined on a first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis and consist primarily of products held for sale.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment is stated at cost. Additions and improvements are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Depreciation of property and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets. The estimated useful lives range from 25 to 40 years for buildings and its components and 3 to 15 years for furniture, fixtures and equipment. Property and equipment leased under capital leases is being amortized over the lesser of its useful life or its lease terms.

NOTE 3--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED) INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Intangible assets consist primarily of goodwill, which represents the excess of cost over the fair value of assets acquired in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method and non-compete agreements. Substantially all goodwill is amortized on a straight line basis over an estimated useful life of 40 years. Management periodically evaluates the recoverability of goodwill, which would be adjusted for a permanent decline in value, if any, by comparing anticipated undiscounted future cash flows from operations to net book value. Other intangible assets are being amortized over their estimated useful lives ranging from one to four years.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments including cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate fair value.

INCOME TAXES

As a division of U.S. Office Products, the Company does not file separate federal income tax returns but rather is included in the federal income tax returns filed by U.S. Office Products and its subsidiaries from the respective dates that the entities within the Company were acquired by U.S. Office Products. For purposes of the consolidated financial statements, the Company's allocated share of U.S. Office Products' income tax provision was based on the "separate return" method. Certain companies acquired in pooling-of-interests transactions elected to be taxed as Subchapter S corporations, and accordingly, no federal income taxes were recorded by those companies for periods prior to their acquisition by U.S. Office Products.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Revenue is recognized upon the delivery of products or upon the completion of services provided to customers as no additional obligations to the customers exist. Returns of the Company's product are considered immaterial.

COST OF REVENUES

Vendor rebates are recognized on an accrual basis in the period earned and are recorded as a reduction to cost of revenues. Delivery and occupancy costs are included in cost of revenues.

ADVERTISING COSTS

The Company expenses advertising costs when the advertisement occurs. Advertising costs are included in the consolidated statement of income as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses.

DEFERRED CATALOG COSTS

Deferred catalog costs are amortized in amounts proportionate to revenues over the life of the catalog, which is typically one to two years. Amortization expense related to deferred catalog costs is

SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

NOTE 3--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

included in the consolidated statement of income as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses. Such amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 1994 and 1995, the four months ended April 30, 1996, the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and the nine months ended January 24, 1998 was $3,755, $4,395, $832, $3,621 and $4,646 (unaudited), respectively.

INTERNALLY DEVELOPED SOFTWARE

Internal costs related to internally developed software, such as internal salaries and supplies, are expensed as incurred as a component of selling, general and administrative expenses. External costs related to internally developed software, such as fees for outside programmers and consultants, are capitalized and expensed over the expected useful life of the software, normally three to five years.

NON-RECURRING ACQUISITION COSTS

Non-recurring acquisition costs represent acquisition costs incurred by the Company in business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method. These costs include accounting, legal, and investment banking fees, real estate and environmental assessments and appraisals, and various regulatory fees. Generally accepted accounting principles require the Company to expense all acquisition costs (both those paid by the Company and those paid by the sellers of the acquired companies) related to business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method.

RESTRUCTURING COSTS

The Company records the costs of consolidating existing Company facilities into acquired operations, including the external costs and liabilities to close redundant Company facilities and severance and relocation costs related to the Company's employees in accordance with EITF Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity (including Certain Costs Incurred in Restructuring)."

NET INCOME PER SHARE

Net income per share is calculated in accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 128 "Earnings Per Share," which establishes standards for computing and presenting earnings per share ("EPS"). SFAS No. 128 requires dual presentation of basic and diluted EPS on the face of the income statement. Basic EPS excludes dilution and is computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of shares outstanding for the period. Diluted EPS reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock. The difference between the weighted-average number of common shares used for the calculation of basic EPS and the weighted average number of shares of common shares used for the diluted EPS is comprised of the dilutive effect of outstanding common stock options. However, a portion of the Company's employee stock options outstanding during the periods presented were not included in the computation of diluted EPS as they were anti-dilutive.

NOTE 3--SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED) NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENT

In June 1997, the FASB issued SFAS No. 130, "Reporting Comprehensive Income." SFAS No. 130 establishes standards for reporting and display of comprehensive income and its components (revenues, expenses, gains, and losses) in a full set of general-purpose financial statements. SFAS No. 130 requires that all items that are required to be recognized under accounting standards as components of comprehensive income be reported in a financial statement that is displayed with the same prominence as other financial statements. SFAS No. 130 is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 1997. Reclassification of financial statements for earlier periods provided for comparative purposes is required. The Company intends to adopt SFAS No. 130 in fiscal 1999.

UNAUDITED INTERIM FINANCIAL DATA

In the opinion of management, the Company has made all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial condition of the Company as of January 24, 1998 and the results of operations and of cash flows for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998, as presented in the accompanying unaudited consolidated financial data.

DISTRIBUTION RATIO

On May 14, 1998, the U.S. Office Products Board of Directors approved the distribution ratio for the Company in connection with the Distribution. At the date of Distribution, the Company will issue approximately 12.2 million shares of its common stock to U.S. Office Products, which will then distribute such shares to its shareholders in the ratio of one share of Company common stock for every nine shares of U.S. Office Products common stock held by each shareholder. The share data reflected in the accompanying financial statements represents the historical share data for U.S. Office Products for the period or as of the date indicated, retroactively adjusted to give effect to the one for nine distribution ratio.

NOTE 4--BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

POOLING-OF-INTERESTS METHOD

In fiscal 1997, the Company issued 4,257,693 shares of U.S. Office Products common stock to acquire the Pooled Companies. The Pooled Companies and the number of shares issued are as follows:

COMPANY NAME	NUMBER OF SHARES ISSUED
School Specialty, Inc.....	2,307,693
Re-Print.....	1,950,000
Total shares issued.....	4,257,693

The Company's consolidated financial statements give retroactive effect to the acquisitions of the Pooled Companies for all periods presented. Prior to being acquired by U.S. Office Products, the Pooled Companies reported on years ending on December 31. Upon completion of the acquisitions of the Pooled Companies, their year-ends were changed to U.S. Office Products' year-end of the last Saturday in April.

PURCHASE METHOD

In 1994, one of the Pooled Companies made one acquisition accounted for under the purchase method for an aggregate cash purchase price of $2,106. The total assets related to the acquisition were $22,377. The results of the acquisition have been included in the Company's results from its date of acquisition.

In 1995, one of the Pooled Companies made one acquisition accounted for under the purchase method for an aggregate cash purchase price of $5,389. The total assets related to the acquisition were $11,874, including goodwill of $3,268. The results of the acquisition have been included in the Company's results from its date of acquisition.

In fiscal 1997, the Company made six acquisitions accounted for under the purchase method for an aggregate purchase price of $18,219, consisting of $7,734 of cash and U.S. Office Products common stock with a market value of $10,485. The total assets related to these six acquisitions were $30,106, including goodwill of $14,248. The results of these acquisitions have been included in the Company's results from their respective dates of acquisition.

The following presents the unaudited pro forma results of operations of the Company for the year ended December 31, 1995 and the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and includes the Company's

PAYABLE TO U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS

The short-term payable to U.S. Office Products was incurred by the Company primarily as a result of U.S. Office Products repaying short-term debt outstanding of the businesses acquired by U.S. Office Products at or soon after the respective dates of acquisition and through the centralized cash management system, which involves daily advances or sweeps of cash to keep the cash balance at or near zero on a daily basis.

The long-term payable to U.S. Office Products primarily represents payments made by U.S. Office Products on behalf of the Company and a reasonable allocation by U.S. Office Products of certain general corporate expenses. An analysis of the activity in this account is as follows:

NOTE 12--COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

LITIGATION

The Company is, from time to time, a party to litigation arising in the normal course of its business. Management believes that none of this litigation will have a material adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations or cash flows of the Company.

POSTEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

The Company has entered into employment agreements with several employees that would result in payments to these employees upon a change of control or certain other events. No amounts have been accrued at April 30, 1996 or April 26, 1997 related to these agreements, as no change of control has occurred.

DISTRIBUTION

Under the Distribution Agreement, the Company is required, on or prior to the Distribution, to obtain a credit facility, to borrow funds under such facility and to use the proceeds of such borrowings to pay off $83,300 of U.S. Office Products' debt. See additional discussion in Note 16.

On or before the date of the Distribution, School Specialty, U.S. Office Products and the other Spin-Off Companies will enter into the Distribution Agreement, the Tax Allocation Agreement, and the Employee Benefits Agreement and the Spin-Off Companies will enter into the Tax Indemnification Agreement and may enter into other agreements, including agreements relating to referral of customers to one another. These agreements are expected to provide, among other things, for U.S. Office Products and School Specialty to indemnify each other from tax and other liabilities relating to their respective businesses prior to and following the Distribution. Certain of the obligations of School Specialty and the other Spin-Off Companies to indemnify U.S. Office Products are joint and several. Therefore, if one of the other spin-off companies fails to satisfy its indemnification obligations to U.S. Office Products when such a loss occurs, School Specialty may be required to reimburse U.S. Office Products for all or a portion of the losses that otherwise would have been allocated to other spin-off companies. In addition, the agreements will allocate liabilities, including general corporate and securities liabilities of U.S. Office Products not specifically related to the school supplies business, between U.S. Office Products and the Company and the other Spin-Off Companies. The terms of the agreements that will govern the relationship between School Specialty and U.S. Office Products will be established by U.S. Office Products in consultation with School Specialty's management prior to the Distribution while School Specialty is a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Office Products.

NOTE 13--EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Effective September 1, 1996, the Company implemented the U.S. Office Products 401(k) Retirement Plan (the "401(k) Plan") which allows employee contributions in accordance with Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Company matches a portion of employee contributions and all full-time employees are eligible to participate in the 401(k) Plan after one year of service.

Certain subsidiaries of the Company have, or had prior to implementation of the 401(k) Plan, qualified defined contribution benefit plans, which allow for voluntary pre-tax contributions by the employees. The subsidiaries paid all general and administrative expenses of the plans and in some cases made matching contributions on behalf of the employees. For the years ended December 31, 1994 and 1995 and the four months ended April 30, 1996, the subsidiaries incurred expenses totaling $175, $105 and $6, respectively, related to these plans.

NOTE 14--STOCKHOLDER'S EQUITY

CAPITAL CONTRIBUTION BY U.S. OFFICE PRODUCTS

During the nine months ended January 24, 1998, U.S. Office Products contributed $69,762 of capital to the Company. The contribution reflects the forgiveness of intercompany debt by U.S. Office Products, as it was agreed that the Company would be allocated only $80,000 of debt plus the amount of any additional debt incurred after January 12, 1998 in connection with the acquisition of entities that will become subsidiaries of School Specialty.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PLANS

Prior to the Distribution, certain employees of the Company participated in the U.S. Office Products 1994 Long-Term Compensation Plan covering employees of U.S. Office Products. The Company expects to adopt an employee stock option plan at approximately the time of the Distribution. The Company expects to replace the options to purchase shares of common stock of U.S. Office Products held by employees with options to purchase shares of common stock of the Company. U.S. Office Products granted 249,600 options to Company employees under the Plan during fiscal 1997; and the Company accounted for these options in accordance with APB Opinion No. 25. Accordingly, because the exercise prices of the options have equaled the market price on the date of grant, no compensation expense was recognized for the options granted. Had compensation expense been recognized based upon the fair value of the stock options on the grant date under the methodology prescribed by SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company's net income and basic net income per share for the year ended April 26, 1997 would have been reduced by $749 and $0.01, respectively.

Under a services agreement entered into with Jonathan J. Ledecy, the Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products has agreed that Jonathan J. Ledecy will receive a stock option for School Specialty Common Stock from School Specialty as of the date of the Distribution. The U.S. Office Products Board intends the option to be compensation for Mr. Ledecy's services as a director of the Company, and certain services as an employee of the Company. The option will cover 7.5% of the outstanding Company common stock determined as of the date of the Distribution, with no anti-dilution provisions in the event of issuance of additional shares of common stock (other than with respect to stock splits or reverse stock splits). The option will have a per share exercise price equal to the IPO price.

Immediately following the effective date of the registration statements filed in connection with the IPO and the Distribution, the Company's Board of Directors is expected to grant options covering 7.5% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, immediately following the Distribution and prior to the IPO to certain executive management personnel (excluding the 7.5% granted to Mr. Ledecy). The options granted will be granted under the 1998 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") and will have a per share exercise price equal to the IPO price, with other terms to be determined by the Company's Board of Directors. Total options available for grant under the Plan will be 20.0% of the outstanding shares of the

NOTE 16--SUBSEQUENT EVENTS (UNAUDITED)

DISTRIBUTION AND ACQUISITIONS PRO FORMA

On January 13, 1998, U.S. Office Products announced its intention to complete the Distribution described in Note 1. In addition, subsequent to April 26, 1997, the Company has completed eight business combinations accounted for under the purchase method for an aggregate purchase price of $98,892, consisting of $95,326 of cash and U.S. Office Products Common Stock with a market value of $3,566. The total assets related to these eight acquisitions were $123,222, including goodwill of $77,541. The results of operations for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 include the results of the acquired companies from their respective dates of acquisition.

NOTE 16--SUBSEQUENT EVENTS (UNAUDITED) (CONTINUED)

The following presents the unaudited pro forma results of operations of the Company for fiscal 1997 as if the acquisitions described above and the six acquisitions accounted for under the purchase method completed in fiscal 1997 (see Note 4) had been consummated as of the beginning of fiscal 1997. The results presented below include certain pro forma adjustments to reflect the amortization of intangible assets and adjustments in executive compensation of $124 for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 and the nine months ended January 25, 1997:

	FISCAL YEAR ENDED APRIL 26, 1997	NINE MONTHS ENDED
		JANUARY 25, 1997	JANUARY 24, 1998
Revenues.....	$ 350,760	$ 292,244	$ 318,667
Net income.....	11,714	7,809	9,991

The unaudited pro forma results of operations are prepared for comparative purposes only and do not necessarily reflect the results that would have occurred had the acquisitions occurred at the beginning of fiscal 1997 or the results which may occur in the future.

The Distribution Agreement allocates a specified amount of U.S. Office Products' debt outstanding under its credit facilities to each Spin-Off Company and requires each Spin-Off Company, on or prior to the Distribution, to obtain credit facilities, to borrow funds under such facilities and to use the proceeds of such borrowings to pay off the U.S. Office Products' debt so allocated plus any additional debt incurred by U.S. Office Products after January 12, 1998 (the date of the Investment Agreement) in connection with the acquisition of an entity that has become or will become a subsidiary of such Spin-Off Company. Under the Distribution Agreement, $80,000 of U.S. Office Products' debt has been allocated to School Specialty, and since January 12, 1998, U.S. Office Products has incurred an additional $3,300 of debt in connection with School Specialty's acquisition of Education Access. Prior to the Distribution, School Specialty will enter into the credit facility and will borrow $83,300 under the facility to pay off debt of U.S. Office Products.

PROPOSED CREDIT FACILITY

The Company has received a commitment letter for a secured $250,000 revolving credit facility from NationsBank, N.A. as administrative agent. NationsBank Montgomery Securities LLC, one of the Underwriters and an affiliate of NationsBank, N.A., is the Arranger and Syndication Agent. The credit facility will terminate five years from the Distribution Date. Interest on borrowings under the credit facility will accrue interest at a rate of, at the Company's option, either LIBOR plus 1.00% or the lender's base rate, plus a margin of 0% to .25% for up to the first 6 months under the agreement. Thereafter, interest will accrue at a rate of (i) LIBOR plus a range of .625% to 1.625% (depending on the Company's leverage ratio of funded debt to EBITDA), or (ii) the lender's base rate plus a range of .125% to .250%. Indebtedness will be secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company. The credit facility will be subject to terms and conditions typical of facilities of such size and will include certain financial covenants. The Company will borrow under the credit facility to repay the U.S. Office Products' debt which it is obligated under the Distribution Agreement to repay. The balance of the credit facility will be available for working capital, capital expenditures and acquisitions, subject to compliance with financial covenants.

PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

The unaudited pro forma financial statements give effect to the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and acquisitions completed through May 1, 1998 and the Distribution. The pro forma offering adjustments further adjust such pro forma financial statements to give effect to the Offering and the sale of 250,000 shares of Common Stock to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate and the use of the proceeds therefrom to repay a portion of the debt incurred to refinance the amounts payable to U.S. Office Products.

The pro forma combined balance sheet gives effect to (i) the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products, (ii) the acquisition completed after January 24, 1998, and (iii) the Distribution as if such transaction had occurred as of the Company's most recent balance sheet date, January 24, 1998.

The pro forma combined statement of income for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 gives effect to (i) the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products; (ii) the acquisitions of six individually insignificant companies in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method completed during the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 (the "Fiscal 1997 Purchase Acquisitions"); and (iii) the acquisitions of Childcraft Education Corp., Sax Arts & Crafts, Inc. ("Sax Arts & Crafts"), American Academic and four other individually insignificant companies in business combinations accounted for under the purchase method completed during the fiscal year ending April 25, 1998 (the "Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions"), as if all such transactions had occurred on May 1, 1996. The pro forma combined statement of income for the year ended April 26, 1997 includes (i) the audited financial information of the Company for the year ended April 26, 1997; (ii) the unaudited financial information of the Fiscal 1997 Purchase Acquisitions for the period from May 1, 1996 through their respective dates of acquisition; and (iii) the unaudited financial information of the Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions for the period from May 1, 1996 through April 26, 1997.

The pro forma combined statement of income for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 gives effect to the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products and the Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions, as if all such transactions had occurred on April 27, 1997. The pro forma combined statement of income for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 includes the unaudited financial information of the Company for the nine months ended January 24, 1998 and the unaudited financial information of the Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions for the period from April 27, 1997 through the earlier of their respective dates of acquisition or January 24, 1998.

The pro forma combined statement of income for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 gives effect to (i) the refinancing of all amounts payable to U.S. Office Products; (ii) the Fiscal 1997 Purchase Acquisitions; and (iii) the Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions, as if all such transactions had occurred on May 1, 1996. The pro forma combined statement of income for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 includes (i) the unaudited financial information of the Company for the nine months ended January 25, 1997; (ii) the unaudited financial information of the Fiscal 1997 Purchase Acquisitions for the period from May 1, 1996 through the earlier of their respective dates of acquisition or January 25, 1997; and (iii) the unaudited financial information of the Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions for the period from May 1, 1996 through January 25, 1997.

The historical financial statements of the Company give retroactive effect to the results of School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin corporation, and The Re-Print Corporation, which were acquired by the Education Division during the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 in business combinations accounted for under the pooling-of-interests method of accounting.

SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

(UNAUDITED)

The historical financial statements of the Company also reflect an allocated portion of general and administrative costs and interest expense incurred by U.S. Office Products. The allocated costs include expenses such as: certain corporate executives' salaries, accounting and legal fees, departmental costs for accounting, finance, legal, purchasing, marketing and human resources, as well as other general overhead costs. These corporate overheads have been allocated to the Company using one of several factors, dependent on the nature of the costs being allocated, including, revenues, number and size of acquisitions and number of employees. Interest expense has been allocated to the Company based upon the Company's average outstanding intercompany balance with U.S. Office Products at U.S. Office Products' weighted average interest rate during such period.

In the first quarter of fiscal 1999, the Company will record a compensation charge of approximately $263,000, representing the difference between the amount which Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate will pay for the 250,000 shares of Common Stock to be purchased directly from the Company and the amount which they would have paid for such shares if the purchase price per share had been the initial public offering price of the shares offered in the Offering. Because this charge is non-recurring, it has not been reflected in the pro forma statements of income.

The pro forma adjustments are based upon preliminary estimates, available information and certain assumptions that management deems appropriate. The unaudited pro forma combined financial data presented herein does not purport to represent what the Company's financial position or results of operations would have been had the transactions which are the subject of pro forma adjustments occurred on those dates, as assumed, and are not necessarily representative of the Company's financial position or results of operations in any future period. The pro forma combined financial statements should be read in conjunction with the other financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere in this Prospectus.

SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

NOTES TO PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

(DOLLARS AND SHARE AMOUNTS IN THOUSANDS)

1. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS

- (a) Adjustment to reflect purchase price adjustments associated with acquisition of Education Access for $3,250 of cash provided by U.S. Office Products. The portion of the consideration assigned to goodwill ($2,800) in the transaction accounted for under the purchase method represents the excess of the cost over the fair market value of the net assets acquired. The Company amortizes goodwill over a period of 40 years. The recoverability of the unamortized goodwill will be assessed on an ongoing basis by comparing anticipated undiscounted future cash flows from operations to net book value.

- (b) Adjustment to reflect the refinancing of the payable to U.S. Office Products with the proceeds received from expected borrowings under the revolving credit facility with a third party.
- (c) Adjustment to reflect the reclassification of divisional equity to common stock and additional paid in capital as a result of the Distribution. The Distribution will result in the issuance of 12,188 shares of common stock.
- (d) Adjustment to reflect $31,631 of proceeds (net of expenses and underwriting discount) from the sale of 2,375 shares of Common Stock as part of the Offering (assuming an initial public offering price of $15 per share, which is the mid-point of the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus dated May 18, 1998 related to the offering) and the utilization of the proceeds to repay long-term debt. School Specialty expects that the initial public offering price in the Offering will be determined after the close of markets on the date of this Information Statement/Prospectus. There can be no assurance that the initial public offering price will be set at that time, that the price will be within the range set forth in the preliminary prospectus, or that the Offering will be completed.

2. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED STATEMENT OF INCOME ADJUSTMENTS

- (e) Adjustment to reflect reductions in executive compensation as a result of the elimination of certain executive positions and the renegotiations of executive compensation agreements resulting from certain acquisitions. The Company believes that these reductions are expected to remain in place for the foreseeable future and are not reasonably likely to affect the operating performance of the Company.
- (f) Adjustment to reflect additional corporate overhead expenses to be incurred as a stand-alone, publicly traded entity, rather than as a division of U.S. Office Products.
- (g) Adjustment to reflect the increase in amortization expense relating to goodwill recorded in purchase accounting related to the Fiscal 1997 and Fiscal 1998 Purchase Acquisitions for the periods prior to the respective dates of acquisition. The Company has recorded goodwill amortization in the historical financial statements from the respective dates of acquisition forward. The goodwill is being amortized over an estimated life of 40 years.
- (h) Adjustment to reflect the increase in interest expense. Interest expense is being calculated on the average pro forma debt outstanding during the applicable periods at a weighted average interest rate of approximately 8.0%. The adjustment also reflects a reduction in interest income to zero as the Company generally expects to use available cash to repay debt. Pro forma interest expense will fluctuate $65 on an annual basis for each 0.125% change in interest rates.

2. UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED STATEMENT OF INCOME ADJUSTMENTS (CONTINUED)

- (i) Adjustment to calculate the provision for income taxes on the combined pro forma results. The difference between the effective tax rate of 46% and the statutory tax rate of 35% for the nine months ended January 25, 1997 and January 24, 1998 relates primarily to state income taxes and non-deductible goodwill. The difference between the effective pro forma tax rate and the statutory tax rate for the fiscal year ended April 26, 1997 relates primarily to state taxes and nondeductible goodwill, offset by the reversal of a $5.3 million deferred tax valuation allowance.

- (j) Adjustment to reflect a decrease in interest expense as a result of the utilization of the net proceeds from the Offering and sale of shares to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate of $31,631 to repay long-term debt at an interest rate of 8%.

- (k) The approximately 12,188 weighted average shares outstanding used to calculate pro forma earnings per share is calculated based upon approximately 109,690 shares of U.S. Office Products common stock outstanding on the date of the School Specialty Distribution divided by nine, which is the Distribution Ratio.

- (l) The approximately 14,563 weighted average shares outstanding used to calculate pro forma as adjusted earnings per share is based upon the approximately 12,188 shares of common stock to be issued as a result of the School Specialty Distribution and 2,125 shares to be sold in the Offering and 250 shares to be sold to Messrs. Spalding, Vander Zanden and Pate.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of American Academic Suppliers Holding Corporation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of AMERICAN ACADEMIC SUPPLIERS HOLDING CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARY as of December 31, 1995 and 1996, and the related consolidated statements of operations, changes in shareholders' equity and of cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of American Academic Suppliers Holding Corporation and Subsidiary as of December 31, 1995 and 1996, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

AMERICAN ACADEMIC SUPPLIERS HOLDING CORPORATION

AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1--NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

American Academic Suppliers Holding Corporation ("AASHC") and its wholly owned subsidiary, American Academic Suppliers, Inc. ("AASI") (collectively referred to as the "Company"), is a direct distributor of school supplies, supplementary educational materials, furniture, and equipment to educational institutions, school systems and administrative offices located throughout the United States. Operations are conducted from owned and leased premises located in Cary, Illinois and from leased premises located in Mt. Laurel, New Jersey (Note 7).

On February 28, 1993, AASHC acquired all of the outstanding common stock of AASI for $8,000,000. The acquisition was accounted for using the purchase method of accounting. Since the former shareholders of AASI acquired an equity interest in AASHC, the purchase price allocation has been adjusted by $1,576,751 to reflect the excess of the purchase price over the predecessor basis in the net assets acquired which, under generally accepted accounting principles, may not be recognized as an asset. Such excess of purchase price over predecessor basis was recorded as a reduction of the excess of cost over the fair value of net assets acquired and as a decrease in shareholders' equity as of the date of acquisition.

The Company primarily sells its products to separate schools or school systems. As such, the majority of trade accounts receivable relate primarily to these customers. Management believes that the recorded allowance for doubtful accounts is adequate to cover potential losses associated with these customers.

In the opinion of management, the Company has made all adjustments consisting only of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial condition of the Company as of September 30, 1997 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 1996 and 1997, as presented in the accompanying unaudited interim financial statements.

In preparing financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

A summary of significant accounting policies is as follows:

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION--The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of AASHC and its wholly owned subsidiary, AASI. All intercompany accounts and balances have been eliminated in the consolidation.

INVENTORIES--Inventories are valued at the lower of cost or market, with cost determined under the first-in, first-out ("FIFO") basis.

DEPRECIATION AND AMORTIZATION--Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is computed under both accelerated and straight-line methods for financial reporting purposes, based on the estimated useful lives of the assets. For income tax reporting purposes, provisions for depreciation are computed principally under accelerated methods, as permitted by the Internal Revenue Code.

The excess of cost over fair value of net assets acquired is being amortized under the straight-line method over a period of 40 years.

F-39

AMERICAN ACADEMIC SUPPLIERS HOLDING CORPORATION

NOTE 1--NATURE OF ACTIVITIES AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

Costs incurred in connection with obtaining long-term financing are amortized, on a straight-line basis, over the term of the financing commitment.

INCOME TAXES--The Company accounts for income taxes under the provisions of Financial Accounting Standard No. 109. Under this standard, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

NOTE 2--PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT:

Property, plant and equipment, at December 31, 1995 and 1996, stated at acquisition cost, consisted of the following:

	1995	1996

NOTE 4--LONG-TERM DEBT:

Long-term debt, at December 31, 1995 and 1996, consisted of the following:

	1995	1996
	-----	-----
Borrowings from Harris Trust and Savings Bank ("Harris") pursuant to a Credit Agreement ("Agreement") (see below):
Revolving credit loan borrowings.....	$ 5,787,922	$ 4,481,987
Term loan borrowings.....	521,422	467,231
Mortgage note payable to Harris Bank Barrington, N.A. (secured by real estate occupied by the Company; payable in monthly installments, inclusive of interest at prime plus 1 1/2%, of $16,600; final maturity on December 16, 1999. Fully paid subsequent to year-end).....	1,510,032	1,456,917
Promissory note payable to Pflingsten Executive Fund, L.P. (bearing interest at 10% per annum; paid in full during 1996).....	53,836	0
Capitalized lease obligation (payable in monthly installments of $291, inclusive of interest at 10%; final maturity June 7, 1998).....	7,648	4,152
	-----	-----
	7,880,860	6,410,287
	168,673	3,135
	-----	-----
Less current portion.....
Long-term portion, due in 1998.....	$ 7,712,187	$ 6,407,152

At December 31, 1996, the Harris Agreement provided maximum aggregate borrowings of $12,077,500. Interest on outstanding borrowings was payable monthly, at the prime rate (8.25% at December 31, 1996) plus 1%. The Company had availability under the Agreement of $1,100,000 at December 31, 1996. Pflingsten Executive Fund, L.P. (the Company's majority shareholder) had guaranteed $1,500,000 of the borrowings (reduced from $3,000,000 effective December 31, 1995) under the Agreement. Guarantee fees are charged to the Company at 10% per annum, which amounted to $305,384 and $148,996 for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1996. The guarantees were released by Harris on October 31, 1996.

On February 4, 1997, the Agreement with Harris was amended ("Amended Agreement") to provide maximum aggregate borrowings of $16,800,000 from June 1 through October 31, and $11,800,000 at all other times. Revolving credit loan borrowings, under the Amended Agreement which expires March 31, 1998, are limited to a computed "Borrowing Base" amount and bear interest at the Company's option at the prime rate or LIBOR plus 1.75%. The Amended Agreement requires the Company to pay .25% per annum on the average daily unused portion of the Revolving Credit Commitment and to pay a prepayment penalty in certain situations.

The Amended Agreement contains covenants restricting certain corporate acts, such as restricting dividend and management fee payments, and requiring the maintenance of net worth levels and a financial ratio.

Borrowings under the agreement with Harris are secured by all of the Company's assets.

On February 4, 1997, the Company repaid the mortgage note and term loan from borrowings under the revolving credit loan.

NOTE 4--LONG-TERM DEBT: (CONTINUED)

Borrowings under the revolving credit, term loan and mortgage note at December 31, 1996 have been reported as long-term liabilities at December 31, 1996 as a result of the Amended Agreement and repayment of the mortgage note and term loan.

NOTE 5--INCOME TAXES:

AASHC and its wholly owned subsidiary file a consolidated federal income tax return.

The primary differences between the statutory and effective tax rates for 1995 and 1996 relate to the use of net operating loss carryforwards not previously recognized.

Gross deferred income tax assets consist primarily of (a) net operating loss carryforwards, (b) accrued expenses not paid within two and one-half months after the end of the Company's year which are deductible for tax reporting purposes when paid, and (c) uniform capitalization rules (for additional inventory costs) reflected for tax reporting purposes only. The gross deferred income tax liability consists of the variation in the book and tax bases of property, plant and equipment.

At December 31, 1995 and 1996, the Company's net deferred income tax asset and related valuation allowance consisted of:

	-----	-----
Gross deferred tax asset.....	$ 828,000	$ 262,000
Less valuation allowance.....	517,000	84,000
	-----	-----
Deferred tax asset, net of valuation allowance.....	311,000	178,000
Less deferred tax liability.....	311,000	178,000
	-----	-----
	$ 0	$ 0
	-----	-----

The valuation allowance decreased by $112,799 and $433,000 during 1995 and 1996, respectively.

At December 31, 1996, the Company has available, as a carryforward to future years, a federal net operating loss carryforward of approximately $560,000, expiring in 2008 and 2009.

NOTE 6--EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLAN:

The Company is a participant in a Pfingsten Partners, L.P. master employee benefit plan. The plan, established under the provisions of Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code provides, among other things, for the Company to make discretionary contributions. Such employer contributions to the plan, for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1996, amounted to $43,427 and $24,534, respectively.

Certain professionals of Pfingsten Partners, L.P. (Note 8) serve as the trustees of the plan.

NOTE 7--LEASES:

The Company leases an office building and a warehouse under various operating agreements which expire in 1998. The office building lease is renewable at the Company's option for 36 additional months with an escalated monthly payment. Rent expense incurred under these leases, for the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1996, totalled approximately $253,000 and $251,000, respectively.

1998.....	73,000
	$ 331,000
	-----

NOTE 8--SHAREHOLDERS' EQUITY AND RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

During the year ended December 31, 1996, the Company issued 23 shares of common stock to certain officers for $120,000 in cash.

For the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1996, the Company incurred $112,000 and 182,000, respectively, in fees pursuant to a management agreement with Pfingsten Partners, L.P., which entity is an affiliate of the Company's majority shareholder, Pfingsten Executive Fund, L.P.

During the years ended December 31, 1995 and 1996, approximately $15,300 and $6,900, respectively, in consulting services were paid by Pfingsten Partners, L.P., on behalf of the Company, and charged to the Company. Additionally, at December 31, 1995, $12,000 was owed to a shareholder of the Company for services rendered during 1995.

See Notes 3 and 4 for additional related-party transactions.

NOTE 9--SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS:

During December 1995, the Company terminated its employment agreement with its president and recognized a $168,750 charge to operations to cover the cost associated with this termination. The related amount owed pertaining to the aforementioned charge, as well as a 1993 termination, at December 31, 1995, was $170,442. There were no outstanding amounts at December 31, 1996.

NOTE 10--SUBSEQUENT EVENT (UNAUDITED):

Effective December 15, 1997, the Company and its stockholders entered into a definitive agreement with U.S. Office Products Company ("U.S. Office Products") pursuant to which U.S. Office Products acquired all outstanding shares of the Company's common stock in exchange for cash.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

of Sax Arts and Crafts, Inc.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of operations, of shareholder's equity and of cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Sax Arts and Crafts, Inc. at December 16, 1995 and December 25, 1996, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 25, 1996 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the accounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for the opinion expressed above.

SAX ARTS AND CRAFTS, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Sax Arts and Crafts, Inc. (the "Company") is a national mail order distributor of art and craft supplies to schools and educational institutions. Sax Arts and Crafts, Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Day-Timers, Inc. (the "Parent"). The Parent is owned by ACCO World Corporation ("ACCO"), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortune Brands International ("Fortune Brands"). On June 30, 1997, the Company and its shareholder entered into a definitive agreement with U.S. Office Products Company ("U.S. Office Products") pursuant to which the Company was acquired by U.S. Office Products. All outstanding shares of the Company were exchanged for cash.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

FISCAL YEAR

The Company's fiscal year ends on the third Saturday in December. Fiscal year 1994 ended on December 17, 1994 and fiscal year 1995 ended on December 16, 1995. In 1996, the Company's fiscal year end was changed to December 25, 1996 in order to comply with the closing date of the Parent. As a result, fiscal 1996 has 53 weeks.

UNAUDITED INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In the opinion of management, the Company has made all adjustments consisting only of normal recurring accruals, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial condition of the Company as of June 29, 1997 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 1996 and June 29, 1997, as presented in the accompanying unaudited interim financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company recognizes revenue upon shipment of the product as obligations subsequent to delivery are not significant.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk consist principally of accounts receivable. The Company provides products to a wide range of customers who primarily operate in the education sector. The Company does not believe it is exposed to any undue concentration of credit risk based on the strong credit history of the Company's customer base.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

INCOME TAXES

The Company is part of a consolidated tax group with its Parent. For purposes of these financial statements, income taxes have been provided as if the Company filed a separate tax return. Income taxes are calculated in accordance with the liability method of accounting for income taxes as provided by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes." Deferred taxes are provided on temporary differences between book and tax basis of assets and liabilities which will have a future impact on taxable income.

3. INVENTORIES

Inventories are recorded at cost (not in excess of market value) as determined by the weighted average cost method. Inventories are comprised as follows:

	DECEMBER 16, 1995	DECEMBER 25, 1996
Finished goods.....	$5,647,290	$5,493,859
Less--Reserves.....	55,733	52,195
Total inventory.....	$5,591,557	$5,441,664

4. PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

The major classes are:

	DECEMBER 16, 1995	DECEMBER 25, 1996
Buildings and improvements.....	$ 129,302	$ 120,045
Automobiles.....	251,382	245,403
Machinery and equipment.....	1,463,156	1,482,480
Computer hardware and software.....	806,755	982,415
Construction in progress.....	157,534	58,544
Total cost.....	2,808,129	2,888,887
Less--Accumulated depreciation.....	(1,773,481)	(2,068,060)
Net property, plant and equipment.....	$1,034,648	$ 820,827

Depreciation is generally computed on a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets including assets acquired by capital leases. Accelerated depreciation is used for income tax purposes where permitted. Depreciation expense recorded for the years ended December 17, 1994, December 16, 1995 and December 25, 1996 was $327,489, $340,556 and $371,516, respectively.

8. RETIREMENT PLAN

Nonunion employees of the Company participate in a noncontributory defined benefit plan established by the Parent. Benefits for the plan are based primarily on years of service and employees' average monthly earnings. The Parent's funding policy is consistent with the funding requirements of federal law and regulations. Plan assets consist principally of listed equity securities. Participants are fully vested in the plan after completing five years of service.

As of the most recent actuarial valuation, the total pension costs for the Parent for the year ended December 25, 1996 consisted of the following:

	TOTAL PARENT'S PLAN
	-----
Service cost--benefits earned during the period.....	$ 1,479,787
Interest cost on projected benefit obligation.....	1,640,620

8. RETIREMENT PLAN (CONTINUED)

As of the most recent actuarial valuation, the funded status of the plan for the Parent as of December 25, 1996 is as follows:

	-----
Actuarial present value of benefit obligations:
Vested benefits.....	$ 17,629,613
Non-vested benefit.....	1,458,142

Unrecognized net gain.....	(60,338)
Accrued pension costs.....	$ (2,428,989)
	-----

The accrued pension costs at December 16, 1995 and December 31, 1996 attributed to the Company were $183,000 and $177,000, respectively.

9. OTHER POSTRETIREMENT PLAN

The Parent provides health care and life insurance benefits for eligible retired employees and their eligible dependents. The cost of these benefits was determined by application of actuarial assumptions and healthcare trend rates. Based on the actuarial valuations performed for the years ended December 17, 1994, December 16, 1995 and December 25, 1996, the total net periodic postretirement costs (benefit) allocated by the Parent to the Company were $10,000, $2,000 and $(1,000), respectively.

The accrued other postretirement costs as of the years ended December 16, 1995 and December 25, 1996 attributed to the Company were $141,000 and $129,000, respectively.

ITEM 14. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Article Nine of School Specialty's Certificate of Incorporation provides that School Specialty shall indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware permits a corporation, under specified circumstances, to indemnify its directors, officers, employees or agents against expenses (including attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlements actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding brought by third parties by reason of the fact that they were or are directors, officers, employees or agents of the corporation, if such directors, officers, employees or agents acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reason to believe their conduct was unlawful. In a derivative action, i.e., one by or in the right of the corporation, indemnification may be made only for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by directors, officers, employees or agents in connection with the defense or settlement of an action or suit, and only with respect to a matter as to which they shall have acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made if such person shall have been adjudged liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that the defendant directors, officers, employees or agents are fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses despite such adjudication of liability.

Article Eight of School Specialty's Certificate of Incorporation states that directors of School Specialty will not be liable to School Specialty or its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to School Specialty or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, which makes directors liable for unlawful dividends or unlawful stock repurchases or redemptions or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Article IV of School Specialty's Bylaws provides that School Specialty shall indemnify its officers and directors (and those serving at the request of School Specialty as an officer or director of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise), and may indemnify its employees and agents (and those serving at the request of School Specialty as an employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise), against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred, if such officer, director, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of School Specialty, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In a derivative action, indemnification shall be limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such officer, director, employee or agent in the defense or settlement of such action or suit, and no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to School Specialty unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Delaware Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

Unless the Board of Directors of School Specialty otherwise determines in a specific case, expenses incurred by an officer or director in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding shall be paid by School Specialty in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the officer or director to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by School Specialty.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described in Item 14, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Attn: Daniel P. Spalding,
Chief Executive Officer

Gentlemen:

As special counsel for School Specialty, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), we are familiar with the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1, first filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Act"), on February 19, 1998, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Registration Statement filed with the Commission on May 6, 1998, Amendment No. 2 to the Registration Statement filed with the Commission on May 18, 1998, Amendment No. 3 to the Registration Statement filed with the Commission on June 4, 1998 and Amendment No. 4 to the Registration Statement filed with the Commission on June 9, 1998, as may be further amended or supplemented (collectively, the "Registration Statement"), with respect to the distribution or supplemented (collectively, the "Registration Statement"), with respect to the distribution (the "Distribution") of up to 12,180,161 shares of the Company's Common Stock, $.001 par value, by U.S. Office Products Company (the "Shares") in a spin-off transaction.

In connection with the foregoing, we have examined (i) the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Company filed with the Secretary of State of Delaware on June 4, 1998, (ii) the By-Laws of the Company; (iii) the form of stock certificate for common stock of the Company, and (iv) such records of the corporate proceedings of the Company, such certificates of public officials and such other documents as we deemed necessary to render this opinion.

School Specialty, Inc.
June 9, 1998

Based on such examination and assumption, we are of the opinion that:

1. The Company is a corporation duly incorporated and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware.
2. The Shares will be duly authorized and when distributed in accordance with the Registration Statement will be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

We hereby consent to the filing of this Opinion as Exhibit 5 to the Registration Statement and the reference to us in the Prospectus which is part of the Registration Statement.

Very truly yours,

To the Persons on the Attached Schedule A:

We have represented U.S. Office Products Company ("U.S. Office Products") in connection with the distributions (each, a "Distribution" and collectively, the "Distributions") by U.S. Office Products of all of the common stock of Aztec Technology Partners, Inc., Workflow Management, Inc., School Specialty, Inc., and Navigant International, Inc. ("Navigant"), all Delaware corporations (collectively, the "Spin-Off Companies"), and the registration of the common stock of the Spin-Off Companies pursuant to Registration Statements on Forms S-1 as originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 19, 1998 as amended through the date of the final amendment dated June 9, 1998 (the "Information Statements"). We have also represented U.S. Office Products in connection with the proposed equity investment in U.S. Office Products by an affiliate (the "Investor") of Clayton, Dubilier & Rice, Inc. ("CD&R") and in connection with the other transactions described in the Information Statements that are taking place in connection with the Distributions. Professional Travel Corporation ("Professional Travel"), Associated Travel, Inc., Aztec International, Inc., Bay State Computer Group, Inc., Compel Corporation, School Specialty, Inc., a Wisconsin Corporation, The Re-Print Corporation, SFI Corporation, United Envelope Company, Inc., Mile High Office Supply, Inc., J. Thayer Company, Carithers-Wallace-Courtenay, Inc., W.J. Saunders & Company, Inc., Office Connection, Inc., and Brasan, Inc. will be referred to herein as the "Lead Companies." Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this letter shall have the meaning given such terms in the Information Statements.

For purposes of rendering this opinion, we have reviewed the Information Statements, including all exhibits thereto; the Investment Agreement; the Distribution Agreement; the Tax Allocation Agreement; the Tax Indemnification Agreement; the Employee Benefits Agreement; certain documentation relating to the organization of the Spin-Off Companies; agreements of merger pursuant to which U.S. Office Products acquired all of the stock of each Lead Company through the merger of a subsidiary of U.S. Office Products into each Lead Company; certain agreements, tax returns, and financial records relating to past and current activities of the Lead Companies; agreements of merger and other documentation relating to transactions pursuant to which U.S. Office Products, Professional Travel, and the Spin-Off Companies (other than Navigant) have acquired the assets and businesses of the Lead Companies; agreements and other documentation pursuant to which Navigant acquired the stock of Professional Travel; agreements and other documentation pursuant to which Professional Travel and the Spin-Off Companies (other than Navigant) have acquired the stock of certain subsidiaries of U.S. Office Products; and such other documents as we have deemed relevant for purposes of this opinion. We have assumed that all parties to agreements that we have examined have acted, and will act, in accordance with the terms of such agreements.

We have also relied on the accuracy of the representations contained in the letter from U.S. Office Products to us, the letters from each Spin-Off Company to us, and the letter from the Investor to us of even date herewith containing certain factual representations. We have also relied on the views of Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated contained in its letter to us of even date herewith (the "Morgan Stanley Letter"). We have not attempted to verify independently such representations and opinion, but in the course of our representation, nothing has come to our attention which would cause us to question the accuracy thereof.

We have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the proper execution of all documents, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to originals of all documents submitted to us as copies, and the authenticity of the originals of any such copies. The letters of representation referenced in the preceding paragraph include representations that, based on the knowledge of those parties, no Distribution is part of a plan or series of transactions pursuant to which one or more persons will acquire directly or indirectly stock representing 50% or more of either the voting power or value of U.S. Office Products or any of the Spin-Off Companies. We have also assumed that no Distribution is or will be part of any such plan that is outside the knowledge of such parties as of the date of this opinion.

This opinion represents our best judgement of how a court would rule if presented with the issues addressed herein and is not binding upon either the IRS or any court. Thus, no assurances can be given that a position taken in reliance on our opinions will not be challenged by the IRS or rejected by a court.

On the basis of the foregoing, and our consideration of such other matters of fact and law as we have deemed necessary or appropriate, it is our opinion, under presently applicable U.S. federal income tax law, that:

1. Each Distribution will qualify under Section 355 of the Code.
2. No Distribution will be taxable under Section 355(e) of the Code.
3. With respect to each Spin-Off Company, the transactions pursuant to which such Spin-Off Company acquires the assets that it will hold at the time of the Distribution, together with the Distribution of the common stock of such Spin-Off Company, will qualify as reorganizations described in Section 368 of the Code.

4. No gain or loss will be recognized by holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock as a result of their receipt of Common stock of any Spin-Off Company. Holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock will recognize gain or loss on the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional shares.

5. No gain or loss will be recognized by U.S. Office Products or any of the Spin-Off Companies as a result of any of the Distributions.

6. A stockholder's basis in such stockholder's U.S. Office Products Common Stock immediately before the Distributions will be allocated among the U.S. Office Products Common Stock and the Spin-Off Companies' common stock (including any fractional shares) received with respect to such U.S. Office Products Common Stock in proportion to their relative fair market values on the date of the Distributions. Such allocation must be calculated separately for each block of U.S. Office Products Common Stock (shares purchased at the same time and at the same cost) with respect to which the Spin-Off Companies' common stock is received.

7. The holding period of the Spin-Off Companies' common stock (including any fractional shares) received in the Distributions will include the holding period of the U.S. Office Products Common Stock with respect to which it was distributed.

You should be aware, however, that the requirements of Code Section 355 pertaining to business purpose, active trade or business, and absence of a device for distribution of earnings and profits, as well as the requirement of Code Section 355(e) pertaining to a plan or series of related transactions to acquire 50% or more by vote or value of a company, are highly dependent on factual interpretations, are to a significant extent subjective in nature, and have a relative absence of authority addressing their application to the particular facts presented by the Distributions. Accordingly, the IRS and/or a court could reach a different conclusion.

BUSINESS PURPOSE. In order for a distribution of the stock of a subsidiary to qualify under Section 355, it must be motivated, in whole or substantial part, by one or more corporate business purposes. U.S. Office Products has represented that the Distributions were motivated, in whole or substantial part, to allow U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies to adopt strategies and pursue objectives that are more appropriate to their respective industries and stages of growth; to allow the Spin-Off Companies to pursue independent acquisition programs with a more focused use of resources and, where stock is used as consideration, provide stock of a public company that is in the same industry as the business being acquired; to allow U.S. Office Products and the Spin-Off Companies to offer their respective employees more focused compensation packages; and to make possible the Equity Investment by the Investor and the consulting agreement with CD&R, which the Board of Directors of U.S. Office Products concluded would contribute to U.S. Office Products' development, based on the skills and experience of CD&R. These representations of U.S. Office Products have been supplemented and supported by the representations made by the Investor and by the Morgan Stanley Letter. Based on these representations and the Morgan Stanley Letter, it is our opinion that each Distribution satisfies the business purpose requirement of Code Section 355. Although similar rationales have been accepted by the IRS in other circumstances as sufficient to meet the business purpose requirement of Code Section 355, there can be no assurances that the IRS will not assert that the business purpose requirement is not satisfied.

ACTIVE TRADE OR BUSINESS. In order for the distribution of the stock of a Spin-Off Company (other than Navigant) to qualify under Code Section 355, both the Spin-Off Company and U.S. Office Products must be engaged in an active trade or business that was actively conducted for the five year period preceding the Distribution, taking into account only businesses that have been acquired in transactions in which no gain or loss was recognized. In order for the distribution of the stock of Navigant to qualify under Code Section 355, substantially all of the assets of Navigant must consist of the stock of Professional Travel, and Professional Travel and U.S. Office Products must meet the requirements described in the preceding sentence. Whether current and historical business activity constitutes an active trade or business, and whether any gain or loss should have been recognized in an acquisition structured and reported as a nontaxable transaction, turn in some instances on the application of subjective legal standards and on factual determinations, such as intentions of the parties involved. Based on the representations made to us and our review of documents, both as referenced above, it is our opinion that each Distribution satisfies the active trade or business requirement. However, because of the inherently subjective nature of important elements of the active trade or business requirement, and because the IRS may challenge the representations upon which we rely, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert that the active trade or business requirement is not satisfied in the case of any of the Distributions.

ABSENCE OF A DEVICE FOR DISTRIBUTION OF EARNINGS AND PROFITS. Code Section 355 does not apply to a transaction used principally as a device for the distribution of the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation or the corporation being distributed. Treasury regulations provide that this test is applied based on all the facts and circumstances, including the presence or absence of factors described in the Regulations as "device factors" and "nondevice factors." Application of this test is uncertain in part because of its subjective nature. Based on the representations made to us, it is our opinion that none of the Distributions is a transaction used principally as a device for the distribution of earnings and profits of either U.S. Office Products or any of the Spin-Off Companies. However, because of the inherently subjective nature of the device test (including the subjectivity involved in assigning weight to various factors), and because the IRS may challenge the representations upon which we rely, there can be no assurance that the IRS will not assert that any of the Distributions are transactions used principally as a device for the distribution of earnings and profits.

This opinion is based on relevant provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, and interpretations of the foregoing as expressed in court decisions and administrative determinations, as currently in effect. We undertake no obligation to update or supplement this opinion to reflect any changes in laws that may occur.

This opinion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders of U.S. Office Products Common Stock and may not be applicable to holders who are not citizens or residents of the United States. This opinion may not apply to certain classes of taxpayers, including, without limitation, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, financial institutions, dealers in securities, persons who have acquired U.S. Office Products Common Stock pursuant to the exercise or termination of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation, or persons who hold their U.S. Office Products Common Stock in a hedging transaction or as a part of a straddle or conversion transaction.

This opinion has been prepared in connection with the filing of the Information Statements and should not be quoted in whole or in part or otherwise be referred to, nor otherwise be filed with or furnished to any governmental agency or other person or entity, without our express prior written consent.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Information Statements and to the references to this opinion in the Information Statement. In giving this consent, we do not hereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission thereunder.

[FORM OF]

SCHOOL SPECIALTY, INC.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

To Jonathan J. Ledecy:

This Agreement establishes the terms of your employment with School Specialty, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), as of June 10, 1998. This Agreement is contingent on and subject to the closing of the distribution (the "Distribution") to the U.S. Office Products Company ("USOP") stockholders of the Company's stock. If the Distribution does not close by September 30, 1998, this Agreement will have no force or effect.

Duties You agree to serve as a senior consultant to the Company providing strategic business advice and high level acquisition negotiations. In that capacity, you will report to the Company's senior management and its Board of Directors (the "Board"). The Board can require such reports of your activities on the Company's behalf as it reasonably deems appropriate. It can require your services to the extent consistent with your other contractual employment obligations to Consolidation Capital Corporation ("CCC"), USOP, and the other subsidiaries ("Other Spincos") of USOP whose common stock will be distributed to the USOP stockholders concurrent with the Company's stock, with the specific timing of your services to be mutually agreed. You agree to comply with the Company's generally applicable personnel policies to the extent applicable to a person working on your schedule and consistent with your obligations in this Agreement.

Term The term of this Agreement runs from the day following the effective date of the Distribution (the "Closing Date") through June 30, 2000, unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement.

Salary You will receive an annual salary of $48,000 from the Closing Date, payable in accordance with the Company's payroll policies.

Benefits You are eligible for participation in the Company's generally applicable benefit plans and programs (including its 401(k) Plan) to the extent you satisfy their terms for participation.

Employment Agreement between School Specialty and Jonathan J. Ledecy

Expenses The Company will make available to you, on an as needed and as mutually agreed basis, office space, secretarial assistance, and supplies for the direct performance of your services to the Company. It will pay or reimburse you for reasonable business expenses relating to the direct performance of such services, to limits to be mutually agreed in advance, upon proper and timely substantiation.

Options

You are receiving options for the Common Stock of the Company in consideration for services as an employee of the Company.

- Option            Your options will cover 7.5% of the Company's outstanding common stock determined as of the Distribution Date (excluding the stock under the Company's initial public offering), with no anti-dilution provisions in the event of issuance of additional shares of common stock (other than with respect to stock splits or reverse stock splits).

- Term             Your option will expire ten years from the Closing Date.

- Price            Your option will have a per share exercise price equal to the offering price in the Company's initial public offering, or if no initial public offering commences on the Closing Date, at the fair market value of the Company's common stock, as determined under the Company's option plan, for the date of grant.

- Schedule        Your option will be fully vested when granted, but may not be exercised until the first anniversary of the Closing Date.

Your option will become exercisable before that first anniversary if and to the extent that the Company accelerates the exercisability of the options for substantially all management optionholders.

All unexercised portions of your options will expire if, as finally determined by a court, you violate the No Competition provision.

- Disgorging      If a court finds that you violated the No Competition Option Gain      provision, you agree that your unexercised options are retroactively forfeited as of the date of the violation and that, if you have exercised the options since the violation began, you will promptly pay the Company any Option Gain, net of any taxes actually paid on the options. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Option Gain" per share you received on exercise of options on or after the violation is

- Stock            for stock you have sold, the greater of (i) the spread Sold              between closing price on the date of exercise and the exercise price paid ("Exercise Spread") and (ii) the spread between the price at which you sold the stock and the exercise price paid, and

- Stock            for stock you have retained, the greater of (i) Exercise Retained        Spread and (ii) the spread between the closing price on the date of the court's final determination and the exercise price paid.

All unexpired options will vest and be exercisable at your death.

Termination The Company can terminate your employment under this Agreement only for "cause." "Cause" means your (i) conviction of or guilty or nolo contendere plea to a felony demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company's business, and resulting in a sentence of imprisonment, or (ii), as finally determined by a court, violation of the No Competition provision as it applies to the Company, provided that the Company will give you 10 days to resolve the violation before attempting to invoke this termination provision. For a termination under (ii), you agree to repay any salary you received from the Company between the date of the violation and the date of the court's determination.

Severance If your employment ends because you resign or are properly terminated for cause, you will not receive severance or termination pay and your salary will end. Except to the extent the law or the terms of an applicable plan requires otherwise, neither you nor your beneficiary or estate will have any rights or claims under this Agreement or otherwise to receive severance or any other compensation or to participate in any other plan, arrangement, or benefit, after your termination of employment, other than with respect to your options.

No Competition Consistent with certain of your prior obligations to USOP, you will not, until after the end of the Restricted Period, for any reason whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for yourself or on behalf of or in conjunction with any other person, persons, company, partnership, corporation, or business of whatever nature:

Competition (i) engage, as an officer, director, shareholder, owner, partner, joint venturer, or in a managerial capacity, whether as an employee, independent contractor, consultant, or advisor, or as a sales representative, in any business (other than an Excluded Business, as defined below) selling any products or services in direct competition with the Company within 100 miles of where the Company or where any of the Company's subsidiaries or affiliates regularly maintains any of its or their offices with employees (the "Territory"), where "products or services" are determined for this clause with respect to products or services offered on or before January 13, 1998 by the Company and/or any of its subsidiaries or the predecessor companies combined to form the Company in connection with Distribution and where the geographic limitation is determined with reference to the Company and its subsidiaries and not to USOP or the other Spincos (e.g., competition with respect to the Company is determined by reference to the location where the Company or its subsidiary has an office with employees and not to the locations of offices of other Spincos);

Employees (ii) call upon any person who is, at that time, within the Territory, an employee of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) in a managerial capacity for the purpose or with the intent of enticing such employee away from or out of the Company's employ (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) other than a member of your immediate family; or

Customers

(iii) call upon any person or entity that is, at that time, or that has been, within one year prior to that time, a customer of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) within the Territory for the purpose of soliciting or selling products or services in direct competition with the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) within the Territory other than on behalf of an Excluded Business.

For purposes of this Agreement, the "Restricted Period" ends, on the later of the second anniversary of the Closing Date and the date one year after you leave employment with the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

For purposes of this Agreement, the "Excluded Businesses" are the following:

(i) any electrical contracting business that, at the time of its creation or acquisition and at all later times, derives more than 50% of its revenues from electrical contracting and maintenance services, without regard to whether it would otherwise violate the No Competition clause because it is engaged in a business directly competitive with the Aztec Technology Partners, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (together, "Aztec"), provided that this exclusion does not permit the business to engage in any of the lines of business described under "Consulting and Engineering Services," "Systems and Network Design and Implementation Services," and "Software Development and Implementation Services" in the Aztec Form S-1 filed on June 3, 1998 (the "Aztec Specified Businesses") other than as provided under (ii) or (vi) in the Excluded Businesses;

Employment Agreement between School Specialty and Jonathan J. Leddecky

(ii) any business whose revenue from activities that compete with Aztec and its subsidiaries, at the time of the business's creation or acquisition and at all later times, is less than $15 million per year, provided that this exclusion does not permit the business to engage in the Aztec Specified Businesses other than (i) as provided under (vi) in the Excluded Businesses or (ii) through the pending CCC acquisitions of National Network Systems in Denver, Colorado and of Chamber Electronics Communications in Phoenix, Arizona

(iv) any business engaged, and only to the extent that it is so engaged, in the business of selling, supplying, or distributing janitorial or sanitary

products or services;

(v) any business engaged, and only to the extent it is so engaged, in the managing or servicing of office equipment (other than computers);

(vi) any business engaged, and only to the extent it is so engaged, in providing internet access services and activities supportive of such services;

(vii) UniCapital Corporation's business as described in its prospectus as of the date of this Agreement; and

(viii) U.S. Marketing Services Inc's ("USM") shelf-stocking and merchandising, and point of purchase display creation and incentive marketing businesses, as described in its registration statement filed on the date of this Agreement, so long as you are solely an investor in USM and not an officer, director, or employee of, or consultant to, USM; provided, however, that your service as a director will not violate the foregoing requirement as long as you cease to be a director no later than the 90th day after the effective date of the registration of USM's initial public offering;

provided, that in each case you are engaged in such business only in a policy making role and not in the entity's business in a manner that would involve you in direct personal competition with the Company (and its subsidiaries), provided further that this proviso does not prevent your activities in furtherance of acquisitions of Excluded Businesses, and provided further that you will comply with your fiduciary duties as a director of the Company in connection with the Excluded Businesses.

To the extent permitted by your obligations to the relevant Excluded Business, as an employee and/or director of the Company (or its subsidiaries), you will inform the relevant entity of any opportunities for it associated with any of the Excluded Businesses.

In addition to (and not in lieu of) the restriction contained in the Employees clause above, you agree that, during the period that the restrictions contained in this No Competition provision remain in effect, and so long as you are employed by, or otherwise affiliated with, CCC, you will not, directly or indirectly, offer employment with CCC to, or otherwise allow CCC to employ, any person who is employed by the Company or a subsidiary of the Company at the time; or was so employed by the Company or a subsidiary of the Company within one year prior to such time.

Notwithstanding the above, the foregoing covenant shall not be deemed to prohibit you from acquiring capital stock in CCC or any Excluded Business or serving as an officer, director or employee or consultant to CCC, or acquiring as an investment not more than one percent (1%) of the capital stock of a competing business, whose stock is traded on a national securities exchange or over-the-counter, provided that such actions do not otherwise breach your obligations hereunder; and provided further that actions of CCC after you have ceased to be a director, officer, and employee of CCC will not constitute a breach of this covenant, despite your continued stock ownership, so long as you are not then directly assisting any competitive actions.

Because of the difficulty of measuring economic losses to the Company as a result of a breach of the foregoing covenant, and because of the immediate and irreparable damage that could be caused to the Company for which it would have no other adequate remedy, you agree that the Company may enforce the No Competition provisions by injunctions and restraining orders.

You and the Company agree that you will not be in violation of the No Competition provisions by virtue of your investment in or other relationship to USOP, any of the Spincos, or their respective subsidiaries, even if one of those entities engages in direct competition with another. You and the Company agree that CCC's acquisition or retention of Wilson Electric Company, Inc. ("Wilson") and Wilson's engaging in any lines of business in place as of the Closing Date do not violate the No Competition provision.

You and the Company agree that the No Competition provisions impose a reasonable restraint on you in light of the Company's activities and business (including the Company's subsidiaries and/or affiliates) on the date of the execution of this Agreement.

The Company agrees to consider reasonably and within two weeks of receipt any requests you make for a waiver from the No Competition provisions for a particular acquisition.

You and the Company further agree that, if you enter into a business or pursue other activities not in competition with the Company (including the Company's subsidiaries), or similar activities or business in locations the operation of which, under such circumstances, does not violate the Competition clause of this No Competition provision, and in any event such new business, activities, or location is not in violation of this No Competition provision or of your obligations under this No Competition provision, if any, you will not be chargeable with a violation of this provision if the Company (including the Company's subsidiaries) shall thereafter enter the same, similar, or a competitive (i) business, (ii) course of activities, or (iii) location, as applicable.

The covenants in this No Competition provision are severable and separate, and the unenforceability of any specific covenant does not affect the provisions of any other covenant. Moreover, if any court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that the scope, time, or territorial restrictions set forth are unreasonable, then it is the intention of the parties that such restrictions be enforced to the fullest extent which the court deems reasonable, and the Agreement shall thereby be reformed.

All of the covenants in this No Competition provision shall be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by you against the Company, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of such covenants. It is specifically agreed that the Restricted Period, during which your agreements and covenants made in this provision shall be effective, is computed by excluding from such computation any time during which you are in violation of any provision of the No Competition provision.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, if any applicable law reduces the time period during which you are prohibited from engaging in any competitive activity described in this provision, you agree that the period for prohibition shall be the maximum time permitted by law.

Employment Agreement between School Specialty and Jonathan J. Ledecky

You specifically agree that USOP and the Company have provided you with sufficient consideration for the enforcement of the No Competition obligations for the Restricted Period and for the assumption of such benefits by the Company. You specifically consent to USOP's assignment to the Company of the right to enforce the No Competition provisions of the Amended Ledecky Services Agreement, as those provisions are incorporated in this Agreement.

Other
Employment

The Company acknowledges that you are also employed by CCC, USOP, and the Other Spincos, and agrees that such dual employment does not breach this Agreement, unless and to the extent that you thereby violate the No Competition provisions.

Return of Company
Property

All records, designs, patents, business plans, financial statements, manuals, memoranda, lists and other property delivered to or compiled by you by or on behalf of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) or their representatives, vendors, or customers that pertain to the business of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) shall be and remain the property of the Company, and be subject at all times to its discretion and control. Likewise, you will make reasonably available at the Company's request during business hours all correspondence, reports, records, acquisition materials, charts, advertising materials and other similar data pertaining to the business, activities, or future plans of the Company that you have collected or obtained.

Trade Secrets

You agree that you will not, during or after the term of this Agreement with the Company, disclose the specific terms of the Company's (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) relationships or agreements with its or their respective significant vendors or customers or any other significant and material trade secret of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) whether in existence or proposed, to any person, firm, partnership, corporation or business for any reason or purpose whatsoever. For CCC or any other businesses with which you are affiliated or in which you are a stockholder, you may reach agreement on comparable terms with significant vendors to the Company, so long as you do not provide copies of or otherwise disclose the specific terms of the Company's relationships or agreements.

Indemnification If you are made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by the Company against you), by reason of the fact that you are or were performing services under this Agreement then the Company must indemnify you against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, as actually and reasonably incurred by you in connection therewith to the fullest extent provided by Delaware law and in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

No Prior Agreements You hereby represent and warrant to the Company that your execution of this Agreement, your services to the Company, and the performance of your agreements hereunder will not violate or be a breach of any agreement with a former or current employer, client, or any other person or entity. Further, you agree to indemnify the Company for any claim, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and expenses of investigation, by any such third party that such third party may now have or may hereafter come to have against the Company based upon or arising out of any non-competition agreement, invention, or secrecy agreement between you and such third party that was in existence as of the date of this Agreement.

Complete Agreement This Agreement is not a promise of future employment. You have no oral representations, understandings, or agreements with the Company or any of its officers, directors, or representatives covering the same subject matter as this Agreement. This written Agreement is the final, complete, and exclusive statement and expression of the agreement between the Company and you with respect to all the terms of this Agreement, and it cannot be varied, contradicted, or supplemented by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements. This written Agreement may not be later modified except by a further writing signed by a duly authorized officer of the Company and you, and no term of this Agreement may be waived except by writing signed by the party waiving the benefit of such term.

Notice Whenever any notice is required hereunder, it shall be given in writing addressed as follows:

To the Company: School Specialty, Inc.
1000 North Bluemound Drive
Appleton, Wisconsin 54914
Attention: Chief Executive Officer

To Employee: Jonathan J. Ledecy

may change the address for notice by notifying the other party of such change in accordance with this Notice provision.

Severability If any portion of this Agreement is held invalid or inoperative, the other portions of this Agreement shall be deemed valid and operative and, so far as is reasonable and possible, effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative. This severability provision shall be in addition to, and not in place of, the comparable provisions in the No Competition provision.

Governing Law This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware, other than those relating to conflicts of laws. Any decision as to breaches of this Agreement or any provision herein shall be made pursuant to a final, nonappealable decision of a court.

Binding Effect and Assignment This Agreement binds and benefits the Company, each of its successors or assigns, and your heirs and the personal representatives of your estate. Without the Company's prior written consent, you may not assign or delegate this Agreement or any or all rights, duties, obligations, or interests under it.

Superseding Effect Contingent upon the Closing and effective only in that event, this Agreement supersedes any prior oral or written employment or severance agreements between you and the Company (specifically excluding your options to purchase Company stock). Except as set forth above, this Agreement supersedes all prior or contemporaneous negotiations, commitments, agreements, and writings with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. All such other negotiations, commitments, agreements, and writings will have no further force or effect; and the parties to any such other negotiation, commitment, agreement, or writing will have no further rights or obligations thereunder.

Negotiated Agreement You agree that you have consulted with counsel of your own selection and have negotiated the terms of this Agreement with the Company. You and the Company agree that this Agreement should not be construed against either party as the "drafter."

AMENDED SERVICES AGREEMENT

To Jonathan J. Ledecy:

This Agreement, amended as of June 8, 1998, establishes the terms of your continuing employment with U.S. Office Products Company, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), and replaces your amended and restated employment agreement with the Company dated as of November 4, 1997 (the "1997 Agreement"), as amended. This Agreement is contingent on and subject to the closing of the distributions (the "Distributions") to the Company's stockholders of the stock of Aztec Technology Partners, Inc., Navigant International, Inc., School Speciality, Inc., and Workflow Management, Inc. (the "Spincos"). If the Distributions do not close by September 30, 1998, this Agreement will have no force or effect and your 1997 Agreement will remain in place and in effect. You are resigning from the Board effective as of and contingent on the Distributions.

Duties You agree to serve as a senior consultant to the Company providing strategic business advice and high level acquisition negotiations. In that capacity, you will report to the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board"). The Board can require such reports of your activities on the Company's behalf as it reasonably deems appropriate. It can require your services to the extent consistent with your other contractual employment obligations to Consolidation Capital Corporation ("CCC") and the Spincos, with the specific timing of your services to be mutually agreed. You agree to comply with the Company's generally applicable personnel policies to the extent applicable to a person working on your schedule and consistent with your obligations in this Agreement.

Term The term of this Agreement runs from the day following the effective date of the Distributions (the "Closing Date") through June 30, 2001, unless earlier terminated as provided in this Agreement.

Salary You will receive an annual salary of $48,000 from the Closing Date, payable in accordance with the Company's payroll policies.

Company Your Company options will continue to vest and be exercisable on their Options current schedules unless and until the Company properly terminates your employment for Cause under this Agreement.

The Company will adjust the exercise price of your options consistent with adjustments for substantially all of the other optionholders' options.

Your existing Company options will not convert into Spincos options.

The Company will accelerate your options if and to the extent that the Company accelerates the exercisability of options for substantially all management optionholders.

You waive any claim to participate in any matching or reload program that may apply to other employees of the Company.

The unexercised portions of your Company options will expire under their current terms or if, as finally determined by a court, you violate the No Competition provision as it applies to the Company.

Disgorging Option Gain      If a court finds that you violated the No Competition provision, you agree that your unexercised options are retroactively forfeited as of the date of the violation and that, if you have exercised the options since the violation began, you will promptly pay the Company any Option Gain, net of any taxes actually paid on the options. For purposes of this Agreement, the "Option Gain" per share you received on exercise of options on or after the violation is

Stock Sold      for stock you have sold, the greater of (i) the spread between closing price on the date of exercise and the exercise price paid ("Exercise Spread") and (ii) the spread between the price at which you sold the stock and the exercise price paid, and

Stock Retained      for stock you have retained, the greater of (i) Exercise Spread and (ii) the spread between the closing price on the date of the court's final determination and the exercise price paid.

Benefits      You are eligible for participation in the Company's generally applicable benefit plans and programs (including its 401(k) Plan) to the extent you satisfy their terms for participation.

Expenses      The Company will make available to you, on an as needed and as mutually agreed basis, office space, secretarial assistance, and supplies for the direct performance of your services to the Company. It will pay or reimburse you for reasonable business expenses relating to the direct performance of such services to the Company (including expenses incurred before the date of this Agreement but not previously submitted, as long as you submit the expenses by June 30, 1998), subject to limits to be mutually agreed in advance, upon proper and timely substantiation.

Compensation

your services as an employee of each Spinco.

Option Your Spinco options will cover 7.5% of the outstanding common stock of each Spinco determined as of the Distribution Date (excluding the stock under the Spinco's initial public offering), with no anti-dilution provisions in the event of issuance of additional shares of common stock (other than with respect to stock splits or reverse stock splits).

Term Each Spinco option will expire ten years from the Closing Date.

Price Each Spinco option will have a per share exercise price equal to the offering price in the initial public offerings for each Spinco or, if no initial public offering commences on the Closing Date, at the fair market value of the Spinco's common stock, as determined under the Spinco's option plan, for the date of the grant.

Schedule Each Spinco option will be fully vested when granted, but may not be exercised until the first anniversary of the Closing Date.

Your Spinco options with respect to a particular Spinco will become exercisable before that first anniversary if and to the extent the relevant Spinco accelerates the options for substantially all management optionholders.

All unexercised portions of Spinco options with respect to a particular Spinco will expire if, as finally determined by a court, you violate the No Competition provision as it applies to the respective Spinco.

If a court finds that you violated the No Competition provision with respect to a particular Spinco, you agree that your unexercised options from that Spinco are retroactively forfeited as of the date of the violation and that, if you have exercised the options from that Spinco since the violation began, you will promptly pay that Spinco any Option Gain, net of any taxes actually paid on the options.

All unexpired options will vest and be exercisable at your death.

Termination

The Company can terminate your employment under this Agreement only for "cause." "Cause" means your (i) conviction of or guilty or nolo contendere plea to a felony demonstrably and materially injurious to the Company's business, and resulting in a sentence of imprisonment, or (ii), as finally determined by a court, violation of the No Competition provision as it applies to the Company, provided that the Company will give you 10 days to resolve the violation before attempting to invoke this termination provision. For a termination under (ii), you agree to repay any salary you received from the Company between the date of the violation and the date of the court's determination.

Severance

If your employment ends because you resign or are properly terminated for cause, you will not receive severance or termination pay, your salary will end, and your Company options will cease vesting. Except to the extent the law or the terms of an applicable plan requires otherwise, neither you nor your beneficiary or estate will have any rights or claims under this Agreement or otherwise to receive severance or any other compensation or to participate in any other plan, arrangement, or benefit, after your termination of employment, other than with respect to your options.

No Competition

The Company hereby releases you, effective for acts or omissions after the Closing Date, from any obligation under your 1997 Agreement to notify the Company regarding corporate opportunities.

Consistent with certain of your prior obligations under the 1997 Agreement, you will not, until after the end of the Restricted Period, for any reason whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for yourself or on behalf of or in conjunction with any other person, persons, company, partnership, corporation, or business of whatever nature:

Competition (i) engage, as an officer, director, shareholder, owner, partner, joint venturer, or in a managerial capacity, whether as an employee, independent contractor, consultant, or advisor, or as a sales representative, in any business (other than an Excluded Business, as defined below) selling any products or services in direct competition with the Company within 100 miles of where the Company or where any of the Company's subsidiaries or affiliates regularly maintains any of its or their offices with employees (the "Territory"), where "products or services" are determined for this clause with respect to products or services offered on or before January 13, 1998 by the Company and/or any of the Spincos and where the geographic limitation is determined with reference to the applicable entity and its subsidiaries (e.g., competition with respect to a Spinco is determined by reference to the location where that Spinco has an office with employees and not to the locations of others);

Employees (ii) call upon any person who is, at that time, within the Territory, an employee of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) in a managerial capacity for the purpose or with the intent of enticing such employee away from or out of the Company's employ (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) other than a member of your immediate family; or

Customers

(iii) call upon any person or entity that is, at that time, or that has been, within one year prior to that time, a customer of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) within the Territory for the purpose of soliciting or selling products or services in direct competition with the Company (including the respective subsidiaries and/or affiliates thereof) within the Territory other than on behalf of an Excluded Business.

For purposes of this Agreement, the "Restricted Period" ends, for the Company and its subsidiaries and affiliates after the Closing Date, on the second anniversary of the Closing Date, and ends, for each Spinco and its subsidiaries and affiliates after the Closing Date, on the later of the second anniversary of the Closing Date and the date one year after you leave employment with the Spinco and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

For purposes of this Agreement, the "Excluded Businesses" are the following

(i) any electrical contracting business that, at the time of its creation or acquisition and at all later times, derives more than 50% of its revenues from electrical contracting and maintenance services, without regard to whether it would otherwise violate the No Competition clause because it is also engaged in a business directly competitive with Aztec Technology Partners, Inc. or any of its subsidiaries (together, "Aztec"), provided that this exclusion does not permit the business to engage in any of the lines of business described under "Consulting and Engineering Services," "Systems and Network Design and Implementation Services" and "Software Development and Implementation Services" in the Aztec Form S-1 filed on June 3, 1998 (the "Aztec Specified Businesses") other than as provided under (ii) or (vi) in the Excluded Businesses;

(ii) any business whose revenue from activities that compete with Aztec and its subsidiaries, at the time of the business's creation or acquisition and at all later times, is less than $15 million per year, provided that this exclusion does not permit the business to engage in the Aztec Specified Businesses other than (i) as provided under (vi) in the Excluded Businesses or (ii) through the pending CCC acquisitions of National Network Systems in Denver, Colorado and of Chambers Electronics Communications in Phoenix, Arizona;

(iii) any business engaged, and only to the extent it is so engaged, in computer monitoring for facilities management;

(iv) any business engaged, and only to the extent that it is so engaged, in the business of selling, supplying, or distributing janitorial or sanitary products or services;

(v) any business engaged, and only to the extent it is so engaged, in the managing or servicing of office equipment (other than computers);

(vi) any business engaged, and only to the extent it is so engaged, in providing internet access services and activities supportive of such services;

(vii) UniCapital Corporation's business as described in its prospectus as of the date of this Agreement; and

(viii) U.S. Marketing Services Inc.'s ("USM") shelf-stocking and merchandising, and point of purchase display creation and incentive marketing businesses, as described in its registration statement filed on the date of this Agreement, so long as you are solely an investor in USM and not an officer, director, or employee of or consultant to, USM; provided however, that your service as a director will not violate the foregoing requirement as long as you cease to be a director no later than the 90th day after the effective date of USM's initial public offering;

provided, that in each case you are engaged in such business only in a policy making role and not in the entity's business in a manner that would involve you in direct personal competition with the Company (and its subsidiaries) or the applicable Spinco (and its subsidiaries), provided further that this proviso does not prevent your activities in furtherance of acquisitions of Excluded Businesses, and provided further that you will comply with your fiduciary duties as a director of each of the Spincos in connection with the Excluded Businesses.

To the extent permitted by your obligations to the relevant Excluded Business, as an employee and/or director of the Company and each Spinco (or their subsidiaries), you will inform the relevant entity of any opportunities for it associated with any of the Excluded Businesses.

In addition to (and not in lieu of) the restriction contained in the Employees clause above, you agree that, during the period that the restrictions contained in this No Competition provision remain in effect, and so long as you are employed by, or otherwise affiliated with, CCC, you will not, directly or indirectly, offer employment with CCC to, or otherwise allow CCC to employ, any person who was so employed by the Company or a subsidiary of the Company within one year prior to such time; or provides (or within the prior year provided) substantial service to the Company or a subsidiary of the Company as part of an entity that is or was a vendor or other outside service provider to the Company or any subsidiary; provided, however, that this provision regarding vendors and outside service providers will not apply after the Closing Date. In addition, the Company specifically agrees that you may hire Jackie Scott and Amy Blodgett, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the 1997 Agreement.

Notwithstanding the above, the foregoing covenant shall not be deemed to prohibit you from acquiring capital stock in CCC or any Excluded Business or serving as an officer, director or employee or consultant to CCC, or acquiring as an investment not more than 4.9% of the capital stock of a competing business, whose stock is traded on a national securities exchange or over-the-counter, provided that such actions do not otherwise breach your obligations hereunder; and provided further that actions of CCC after you have ceased to be a director, officer, and employee of CCC will not constitute a breach of this covenant despite your continued stock ownership, so long as you are not then directly assisting any competitive actions.

Because of the difficulty of measuring economic losses to the Company as a result of a breach of the foregoing covenant, and because of the immediate and irreparable damage that could be caused to the Company for which it would have no other adequate remedy, you agree that the Company may enforce the No Competition provisions by injunctions and restraining orders.

You and the Company agree that you will not be in violation of the No Competition provisions by virtue of your investment in or other relationship to the Company, any of the Spincos, or their respective subsidiaries, even if one of those entities engages in direct competition with another. You and the Company agree that CCC's acquisition or retention of Wilson Electric Company, Inc. ("Wilson") and Wilson's engaging in any lines of business in place as of the Closing Date do not violate the No Competition provision.

You and the Company agree that the No Competition provisions impose a reasonable restraint on you in light of the Company's activities and business (including the Company's subsidiaries and/or affiliates) on the date of the execution of this Agreement.

The Company agrees to consider reasonably and within two weeks of receipt any requests you make for a waiver from the No Competition provisions for a particular acquisition.

You and the Company further agree that, if you enter into a business or pursue other activities not in competition with the Company (including the Company's subsidiaries), or similar activities or business in locations the operation of which, under such circumstances, does not violate the Competition clause of this No Competition provision, and in any event such new business, activities, or location is not in violation of this No Competition provision or of your obligations under this No Competition provision, if any, you will not be chargeable with a violation of this provision if the Company (including the Company's subsidiaries) shall thereafter enter the same, similar, or a competitive (i) business, (ii) course of activities, or (iii) location, as applicable.

The covenants in this No Competition provision are severable and separate, and the unenforceability of any specific covenant does not affect the provisions of any other covenant. Moreover, if any court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that the scope, time, or territorial restrictions set forth are unreasonable, then it is the intention of the parties that such restrictions be enforced to the fullest extent which the court deems reasonable, and the Agreement shall thereby be reformed.

All of the covenants in this No Competition provision shall be construed as an agreement independent of any other provision in this Agreement, and the existence of any claim or cause of action by you against the Company, whether predicated on this Agreement or otherwise, shall not constitute a defense to the enforcement by the Company of such covenants. It is specifically agreed that the Restricted Period, during which your agreements and covenants made in this provision shall be effective, is computed by excluding from such computation any time during which you are in violation of any provision of the No Competition provision.

Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, if any applicable law reduces the time period during which you are prohibited from engaging in any competitive activity described in this provision, you agree that the period for prohibition shall be the maximum time permitted by law.

You specifically agree that the Company and the Spincos have provided you with sufficient consideration for the enforcement of the No Competition obligations for the Restricted Period and for the assignment of this provision to the Spincos.

After the Distributions, you agree that the Company will assign to each Spinco the ability to enforce the noncompetition provisions as to its own business.

Other
Employment

The Company acknowledges that you are also employed by CCC and the Spincos, and agrees that such dual employment does not breach this Agreement, unless and to the extent that you thereby violate the No Competition provisions.

Return of Company
Property

All records, designs, patents, business plans, financial statements, manuals, memoranda, lists and other property delivered to or compiled by you by or on behalf of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) or their representatives, vendors, or customers that pertain to the business of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) shall be and remain the property of the Company, and be subject at all times to its discretion and control. Likewise, you will make reasonably available at the Company's request during business hours all correspondence, reports, records, acquisition materials, charts, advertising materials and other similar data pertaining to the business, activities, or future plans of the Company that you have collected or obtained.

Trade Secrets

You agree that you will not, during or after the term of this Agreement with the Company, disclose the specific terms of the Company's (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) relationships or agreements with its or their respective significant vendors or customers or any other significant and material trade secret of the Company (including the respective subsidiaries thereof) whether in existence or proposed, to any person, firm, partnership, corporation or business for any reason or purpose whatsoever. For CCC or any other businesses with which you are affiliated or in which you are a stockholder, you may reach agreement on comparable terms with significant vendors to the Company, so long as you do not provide copies of or otherwise disclose the specific terms of the Company's relationships or agreements.

Indemnification

If you are made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by the Company against you), by reason of the fact that you are or were performing services under this Agreement or the 1997 Agreement then the Company must indemnify you against all expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, as actually and reasonably incurred by you in connection therewith to the fullest extent provided by Delaware law and in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. Further, while you are expected at all times to use your best efforts to faithfully discharge your duties under this Agreement, the Company will not hold you liable to itself or its subsidiaries or affiliates for errors or omissions made in good faith where you have not exhibited gross, willful, or wanton negligence or misconduct or performed criminal or fraudulent acts that materially damage the business of the Company; provided, however, that this sentence shall not apply to acts or omissions between the effective date of the 1997 Agreement and the Closing Date.

No Prior Agreements

You hereby represent and warrant to the Company that your execution of this Agreement, your services to the Company, and the performance of your agreements hereunder will not violate or be a breach of any agreement with a former or current employer, client, or any other person or entity. Further, you agree to indemnify the Company for any claim, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and expenses of investigation, by any such third party that such third party may now have or may hereafter come to have against the Company based upon or arising out of any non-competition agreement, invention, or secrecy agreement between you and such third party that was in existence as of the date of this Agreement.

Complete
Agreements

This Agreement is not a promise of future employment. You have no oral representations, understandings, or agreements with the Company or any of its officers, directors, or representatives covering the same subject matter as this Agreement. This written Agreement is the final, complete, and exclusive statement and expression of the agreement between the Company and you with respect to all the terms of this Agreement, and it cannot be varied, contradicted, or supplemented by evidence of any prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements. This written Agreement may not be later modified except by a further writing signed by a duly authorized officer of the Company and you, and no term of this Agreement may be waived except by writing signed by the party waiving the benefit of such term.

Notice

Whenever any notice is required hereunder, it shall be given in writing addressed as follows:

To the Company: U.S. Office Products Company
1025 Thomas Jefferson Street, N.W.
Suite 600 East
Washington, D.C. 20007
Attention: General Counsel

To Employee: Jonathan J. Ledecy
1400 34th St., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20007

Notice shall be deemed given and effective three days after the deposit in the U.S. mail of a writing addressed as above and sent first class mail, certified, return receipt requested, or when actually received. Either party may change the address for notice by notifying the other party of such change in accordance with this Notice provision.

Severability

If any portion of this Agreement is held invalid or inoperative, the other portions of this Agreement shall be deemed valid and operative and, so far as is reasonable and possible, effect shall be given to the intent manifested by the portion held invalid or inoperative. This severability provision shall be in addition to, and not in place of, the comparable provisions in the No Competition provision.

Governing Law This Agreement shall in all respects be construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware, other than those relating to conflicts of laws. Any decision as to breaches of this Agreement or any provision herein shall be made pursuant to a final, nonappealable decision of a court.

Binding Effect and Assignment This Agreement binds and benefits the Company and each of the Spinco's, each of their respective successors or assigns, and your heirs and the personal representatives of your estate. Without the Company's prior written consent, you may not assign or delegate this Agreement or any or all rights, duties, obligations, or interests under it. You specifically agree that the Company may assign its rights under No Competition, in whole or in part, to each Spinco with respect to such Spinco's business.

Superseding Effect Contingent upon the Closing and effective only in that event, this Agreement supersedes any prior oral or written employment or severance agreements between you and the Company (including specifically your 1997 Agreement (including but not limited to its Change of Control provisions) but specifically excluding your options to purchase Company stock). Contingent upon the Closing and effective only in that event, the 1997 Agreement will terminate as of the Closing Date. Except as set forth above, this Agreement supersedes all prior or contemporaneous negotiations, commitments, agreements, and writings with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. All such other negotiations, commitments, agreements, and writings will have no further force or effect; and the parties to any such other negotiation, commitment, agreement, or writing will have no further rights or obligations thereunder.

Negotiated Agreement You agree that you have consulted with counsel of your own selection and have negotiated the terms of this Agreement with the Company. You and the Company agree that this Agreement should not be construed against either party as the "drafter."
